ROLL MARKET SLUGGISH; FEW PRICE CHANGES Selective Buying is Noted For Scattered Dates

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Actually there is very little to report this week—even though it has been two weeks between Newsletters. Prices for most rolls are pretty much the same and the scattered exceptions are, as usual, small losses. Only proof sets have displayed a definite weakening—along with common date gold pieces. As for gold, the price of $20's, of course, goes hand-in-hand with bullion prices—and the other denominations are simply settling down in the wake of the strong advances made in recent months coupled with lower "gold" prices. "Gems" in nearly all denominations command—and receive—higher prices than those listed in our charts. Really superb pieces are always sought after by "type" collectors and a fussy customer often has a difficult time locating choice material. A gem $10 Indian, for example, may sell easily at $85 while "BU" pieces are bid only at $70. So much of this material has been improperly handled through the years.

As mentioned, proof sets have exhibited a definite downward trend during the past two weeks. The recent support at higher levels was suddenly non-existent and as dealers lowered ask levels, buyers lowered bid levels. The result—sales have been very light and the occasional quantity bidder is content to stay well below the market. He may not pick up many sets—but he will not see his "bargain" purchase price become the "ask" level within a few days. It should be noted that there are several dealers who are willing to take quantities of most dates after '54—at a price.

Although BU roll prices have registered no exciting changes, scattered—and very selective—buying has been noticeable during the past week or so. This trend is particularly evident in the Jefferson series—an area where excellent investment opportunities abound. It is surprising to see how few transactions result even when the bid level advances as much as 50% within a few weeks. It is not unusual these days to hear a dealer lament that he "can't give his nickel rolls away". However, when the bidding starts—as it did for the 1951-D roll—this same dealer will say that he "wasn't talking about that roll"! There are plenty of other dates in this series that will suddenly not be available when even a mild amount of bidding occurs.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Interest seems to have increased slightly for a number of the better dates in the 40's and 50's; all bidding, however, is still at or below current levels.

NICKELS: In addition to the 51-D roll, several other dates have caught the investor's eye—40-D, 40-S, 46-S, 47-D, 48-D—all bid higher this week.

1943D - Now offered at a lower $107.50

1951D - Still advancing; bid now $30

DIMES: Neither the Mercuries nor the Roosevelts have registered any noticeable demand—although most prices seem basically firm—with the following exceptions:

1948P - Offered now at a lower $72.50

1955D - Still slipping; ask now $24

1955S - A few sales at a lower $17

QUARTERS: Widely scattered changes—and widely scattered sales. A seldom available BU roll set (1941-64) was offered at $3800.

1932P - Bu singles are hard to locate at $13 bid

1946S & 1947S - Both receive occasional attention around $100

1948S - Still edging lower; an attractive buy at $37

1955D - Available now at $115

HALVES: Changes for both W.L. and Franklin rolls have also been minor—and sales remain light and infrequent.

1944D - This one is still tough to locate; bid is $115

1948P - Offered at a lower $132.50

1953P - Offered at a lower $152.50

DOLLARS: Again we have a minimum of changes; scattered "want lists" appear—but dealers usually manage to locate the material they need without advancing the bid level.

1887O, 03P, 04O, 24P and 25P - All edge slightly lower

PROOF SETS: Although several quantity buyers are still "in The Market", they seem to offer less each day. All sets in the '56-'64 group have lost ground.

1956 - Sales noted around $10

1958 - Offered in quantity at $14

1959 - Offered in quantity at $8

1964 - A few transactions around $6.50

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

It will be a challenging year . . . the start of a new decade. I believe that we will see more changes during the seventies . . . in the numismatic world . . . than actually happened during the sixties! I look for many kinds of NEW coins. Design changes are to come for most of our coins. There will be a new dollar coin and there could be some new Commemoratives. So many important things are happening today and will happen in the coming years that special coins will have to be issued to commemorate the events. We will be going out to the planets and there will be a colony on the Moon. The new like dollar coin will stimulate the coin industry like it has never been excited before! And it will be the START of other important changes to come!

If the Eisenhower coin is produced promptly the coin investment should do very nicely, indeed . . . at the very start of the new decade! Coin World subscription figures are holding up fairly well and this is a good barometer. At the same time, however, the stock market is probably not going to rally that well. Most stock market experts are saying that a part of 1970 will be used up before even a lengthy transition period is encountered . . . and even then there will be months of dull trading sessions and erratic daily price movements before the market finally snaps out of it!

Inflation seems to be a way of life and it will be the wise investor who accepts this fact of life. With inflation racing ahead and gobbling up 7% to 8% of our incomes, with taxes gobbling up a substantial amount of any investment gains, how can the average man be satisfied with bank interest or a 9% return on real estate or stocks. And of course even the 9% on stocks is extremely doubtful at the moment . . . it is more likely 9% minus! It is going to take an investment that in the years ahead . . . during the roaring seventies . . . will yield on the average 15% to 25% a year . . . EACH AND EVERY YEAR! That is asking a lot from an investment, particularly if one is wanting SAFETY at the same time! Only the coin hobby and the coin investment have a history of such yields . . . going back some fifty years or more!

One could safely say that the coin investment is probably the only investment in the world with such a yield history!

We now have "paper gold" and this seems to have temporarily driven down the price of gold . . . and also the price for the common gold coins. The money manipulators have somehow gotten the rest of the world to accept this paper gold . . . for the moment . . . anyway. The system provides members with "special drawing rights" and requires that, to support its allocation, a nation member must deposit 25% of the value of its allocation in real gold with the International Monetary Fund. What this can start, however, is a borrowing of money from each other in order to buy the 25% gold requirement. What really will be done is that some will borrow German marks, for instance, from the International Monetary Fund and then go to Germany and buy the gold. Then they would give the gold to the IMF to pay off the loan. The IMF returns the gold to Germany in exchange for German marks. Thus everything assumes its previous status and the applicant has qualified to receive his allotment of "paper gold" without putting up a thin dime.

Each week the Sunday papers publish the amount of paper currency in circulation in the U.S.A. This week it was $53,525,000,000. That is an increase over the previous week of $238,000,000. Week after week this has been going on!! Watch your next Sunday paper . . . on the business page. The printing press money is a reflection of the inflationary pace today in this country! Either the increase in paper currency being issued is a RESULT of other inflationary pressures . . . or it is the CAUSE, indirectly, of inflation today! The excess of printing press money over the available goods and services could be the culprit that is driving prices out of reach of the average family in the U.S.A. Now this international "paper gold" could be inflicting the same kind of inflation on all of the people of the world!

Keep ahead of this world wide inflation wave. Some will be swamped and go under, others will try to ride it and they will barely keep afloat. The coin investor, who invests in fine collections . . . assembles them piece by piece and holds for the long, long term . . . will win that race with inflation!

It was at Xmas time in 1963 that I first started preparing my weekly column for the Coin Dealer Newsletter. That was six years ago. It has been quite a while . . . and many, many columns ago. Once again I want to wish each and every one of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy 1970 !!

IT'S STILL A BUYERS MARKET! Grading is Important Factor in Sales Volume

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Grading, of course, is all-important when buying coins—whether for a personal collection or for investment and eventual re-sale. This, obviously, is not “news”—but what prompts this rather “old hat” comment is the large percentage of over-graded singles which are offered for dealer to dealer sale over the teletype circuits. We are aware, naturally, that there is always the chance for an “honest difference of opinion” in grading. But the number of coins that are sent out to dealers which are a grade or more off is staggering. The “to dealers” is underlined above for the simple fact that the shipper of over-graded material is already aware that the prospective buyer is a dealer and almost certainly knows how to grade coins. Maybe it is the “almost” that accounts for the problem.

As one dealer mentioned this week, he is not going “to push someone else's junk”. It is this very problem which underlies much of the inability of many dealers to sell the long lists of attractively priced singles which appear quite frequently. Most buyers are simply tired of returning improperly described merchandise—and paying return postage and insurance to boot.

Rolls, basically, do not fall into this category—although defective material (spotted cents, weak strikes, etc.) are seldom mentioned on selling lists. One of the greatest problems with Lincolns is that dealers and investors who may want to buy in this area already know from experience that choice unspotted cent rolls are the exception rather than the rule. “Sliders”, too, often find their way into the higher priced and earlier BU rolls.

This problem certainly is not unique among teletype dealers. Indeed, many of the dealers on the two circuits are quiet conscientious in their grading. However, it seems logical that sales would improve in at least some areas if the buyer could “order with confidence”. Returning coins is time-consuming and expensive and many dealers would just as soon wait for a local coin show to pick up material for store stock. They can then see the material and make up their mind—without the mailing hassel. Over a period of time, of course, buyers begin to make at least mental notes regarding which selling lists to discount right from the beginning—making sales more and more infrequent and resulting in dealers who do business with only a select number of other dealers.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Virtually unchanged; selling lists continue to dominate Lincoln activity and the scattered bids are all within current ranges. A few sales of the 47-S roll were recorded at $20 on one circuit.

NICKELS: Prices are mixed and trading is light—several “D” mint rolls remain on investors' want lists.

1947D - Sales registered as high as $17

1948D - Bid now at $25 and rather difficult to locate

1958P - Available in lots around $9

DIMES: Mercury rolls remain quiet and unchanged in price; several Roosevelts again slip a dollar or two lower.

1946S - Offered now at $35

1947S - Offered now at $31

1949P - Tough roll; available at $250

1950S - Also lower; ask now $280

QUARTERS: Bidding is selective and price changes are mixed; most dates after '40 are available if the buyer is willing to pay “ask”.

1941S - Offered at a lower $195

1942D - Often very elusive; bid now $86

1949P - Offered at a lower $260

1953S & 1954S - Both edge lower

1955D - Always fluctuating; bid now $113.50

1958P - Offered in quantity around $42

HALVES: It's a buyer's market in both the Franklin and Walking Liberty series—with numerous key and semi-key rolls available at very attractive prices.

1946D - A sale or two around $170

1947P - Ask is now $190

1949P - The “key”—offered at $340

1949S - Ask is now $285

1950P - Ask is now $190

1953P - Scattered transactions around $150

DOLLARS: Changes are on the downside—mostly “common dates” offered in bargain lots. Key rolls remain elusive and accurate grading is a big factor in transactions of key singles.

1882P & O - Bid now at $59 and $52.50 respectively

1889O - Offered at a lower $225

1892O - Bid moves up $25—now $325

1898P & O - Both are now offered at $65

1899P - Still slipping; choice rolls are available at $360

PROOF SETS: Several sets have begun to edge higher after last week's general slump; the “big three” (1956, 58 & 59) are of the most interest—though mostly at current bid levels.

1953 - Sales registered as high as $24

1958 - Bid (and sales) at $13.50

1960sm - Offered again at $21.50

1964, 68-S & 69-S - All edge lower

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

COMMON SILVER BID MOVES UP Many Bargains in Better BU Rolls are Available

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Common silver bags have once again dominated much teletype trading time—with competitors edging their bids higher several times throughout the week. Delivery points were often a consideration of sellers; the bid price includes delivery. At week's end, dealers were offering to pay around $1330 per bag—with perhaps a $5 or so bonus per bag for lots of five or ten bags. As usual, much time is being spent by dealers on the subject of such shipments—which airline to use, payment in advance of delivery, etc. Numismatics has taken more or less of a back seat throughout all of this activity.

As a matter of fact, it seems that numerous dealers are once again offering to sell BU and circ rolls, proof sets, etc. at lower and lower levels in order to raise cash for the obvious profits which are being realized in the trading of common silver. Even if the material is sold at a loss, the dealer can quickly make it up and go on from there. This, of course, affords some excellent investment opportunities for the far-sighted investor. And, to top it off, it is often the higher priced, more elusive rolls which are offered at the bargain prices.

What is generally holding the investor back from taking advantage of some of these offerings is the thought that perhaps next week's price may be even lower. This, of course, has proven to be correct in many instances. Waiting for the absolute "bottom" on a particular item is fine—but catching it there is another matter. Those who waited for the 51-D nickel roll to go below $20, for instance, will now just have to skip this one and try another. Some research into past price history, keeping up with the various advisory publications, common sense and a little luck could all be combined at the present time—and some real buys could be ferreted out of the charts. Even in a down market there are always some sought after material. Right now there are several BU 1932-P quarters, several Jefferson rolls (pointed out in recent columns), three or four proof sets, 1904-O and a few other dollar rolls, most commemoratives—to name a few.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Again, very slight changes and only occasional transactions. Many rolls are still being returned as inferior—really choice rolls are difficult to find even in today's slow market.

NICKELS: A few dates continue to interest investors—and these few dates are, of course, the very ones which are omitted on most selling lists. Bids for the BU Wartime roll set are noted at $700.

1940S - Bid moves up to $29

1943D - Easily located at a lower $100

1947D & 1951D - Both are elusive—at higher bid levels

1951S - Offered at a lower $87.50

1958P - Available in lots of ten or twenty rolls around $8.50

DIMES: Bidding—at current levels—is registered for the 1955-PDS rolls; sales are infrequent as dealers prefer to "wait". Some of the key dates edge lower.

1949S - Offered now at $525

1950S - Offered now at $265

1951S - Offered now at $172.50

QUARTERS: Not much action (except for some in the earlier BU singles); even the late date "close to face" rolls aren't of much interest at the moment.

1946D - Often quite tough—now available at $77.50

1955P - Sales noted at $30

1958P - Sales noted at $41

HALF DOLLARS: Numerous Franklin rolls in the '48-'55 range are offered at lower levels; some sales have been recorded but there seem to be more than enough to go around right now.

1948P - Available at $125

1949P - Sales noted at $325

1951S - Ask is now a lower $130

1952S - Also lower; offered at $142.50

1953P - One or two rolls traded at $145

1953S - Available at $60

DOLLARS: Very slight changes; "bargain lots" quickly find a buyer—but virtually all bidding remains within current ranges.

1889O - Offered at a lower $215

1890S - Offered at a lower $115

1904O - Fairly elusive at the higher bid of $61

PROOF SETS: Interest continues (and bids edge higher) for the '56, '58 and '59 sets—and quantities up to one hundred sets are wanted. The 68-S and 69-S sets are still rather weak at bids of $6.75 and $5.85 respectively.

1956 - Sales at a higher $10

1958 - Sales at a higher $14

1959 - Sales at a higher $7.75

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

With the coin market so far down and the long-term potential so bright, how can any coin investor help but come out a winner. But he should start studying his charts now and make his buying plans now. At today's prices it is quite possible for an investor to come pretty close to having a small corner of the market on a particular single issue or roll issue! Prices are that reasonable! In other words the newcomer to the field can pick up a fortune in key rolls for very little. And at this particular time the coin investor or collector-investor can have the knowledge of the latest numismatic poll, which is now pointing out what the REAL supply totals are for the various key, semi-key and common rolls. For the first time the investor does not have to go it blind. The CIC Poll is telling us whether the so-called key rolls are really scarce or whether it might be some of the common rolls instead!

Eye-opening totals have been revealed during the past weeks and there are new "key" issues before us!!

I would say that the investment is on a firm base with such data available for the first time in the history of numismatics!! Couple this priceless data with the low, low prices in today's coin market . . . and one has a perfect combination . . . the kind of numismatic investing dream many of you have been dreaming about for years. Well, the dream is a fact . . . and it is happening right now!!

Furthermore, the coin investor can purchase his rare singles and rolls . . . or invest in coin collections on a periodic purchase or accumulation plan, where he can have his bank set aside a sum of money . . . say $25 to $50 . . . bi-monthly or quarterly . . . for the purpose of having an authorized coin broker purchase coins each month. The bank to deduct the costs from the monthly bank statement. This is done with stocks and Mutual Funds and it can be done with coins.

There is always the advantage of being able to use the "dollar cost averaging" that is done so frequently in the stock market. The coin broker who is buying for you monthly can purchase the same rolls or singles at various prices . . . some months at low prices, other months when they are rising. Thus, the buying prices per roll are averaged out and it is a perfect way to invest in coins over the long term.

If the coin investor wishes to create a retirement fund there is the Keogh Plan to consider. The government allows the self-employed investor to contribute up to $2500 a year of his income (10%) with the total amount deductible from income tax. You only pay income tax on the capital gains after you have retired. If you can arrange to have a bank purchase your coins and store them in a bank box, rental at your expense, the plan can be used as it includes any investment that a bank will go along with. It is difficult to find a bank that will bother with heavy coins, but it is worth the search. The bank, of course, retains control of the coin portfolio until the investor reaches the age of 59½ or older. Under such a plan the coin investor could invest up to $2500 per year in coins, or a total of $25,000 over a period of ten years, if his income was in the high area each year. Ten percent of his income per year can be set aside for investment purposes in this unusual retirement plan.

This is one way to set aside a nice retirement fund that could double or triple during the holding period. And of course the monthly plan I have suggested above, where the bank is authorized to deduct from your bank account each month and send the deduction to your selected coin broker, is a fine plan and way to accumulate a fancy estate for your children. Almost any coin collection, rare single or uncirculated roll (with a small available supply) can appreciate greatly over a long holding term!

Seeing that regular purchases are made of the finest material . . . EVERY MONTH . . . is a sure way of building up a portfolio of coins worth a fortune . . . particularly if the holder picks the long term holding and has the patience to stick with it until it pays off. This is the only way to beat inflation over the long term!!

GOLD TWENTIES TUMBLE; LOTS OF ACTION

Rolls and Proof Sets Continue to Take a Back Seat

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Gold has replaced silver as the major topic of teletype messages this week. Although virtually all denominations have registered downward adjustments, it is the twenty dollar piece that has fallen sharply. By Saturday of last week (Jan. 17) and the following Monday, sales of BU twenties were recorded in the $48-$49 range—and, although many quantity buyers were in the market, the supply seemed never-ending. By the middle of this week, prices had firmed up just a bit and bidders were offering to pay $49-$50 for quantities up to one hundred pieces; the ask had inched back up to approximately $51.50.

This price drop is, of course, an excellent opportunity for the investor to put away BU gold twenties. Imports of large quantities from England and Switzerland will stop as soon as the importing becomes unprofitable. Last week they were selling in London and Zurich as $1-$2 less per coin—but increased buyer interest at these levels could equalize prices and the bargain-basement sale would be over. Prices will again edge forward. It may be quite a while before twenties return to the $70 range of last fall—but, on the other hand, a new monetary crises somewhere in the Western World could easily trigger new and swift advances. Either way, putting away nice BU pieces at today's prices is a very good idea.

BU rolls and proof sets have been generally "catching it in the neck" as a result of this gold flurry—on top of the usual silver flurry, that is. Better date rolls continue at the top of the list of bargain offering—the idea of dealers remains to get cash. Interesting pre-1940 rolls are appearing (several Buffalo dates, 35-S, 36-S, 38-D & S dimes, 37-D, 39-D, 40-P quarters, etc.)—and pre-1940 proof sets are rather plentiful at the moment. Here are still other opportunities for the investor who wants to fill in a few dates of this more scarce material.

The rolls which are recording some demand this week still include several Jeffersons (40-S, 47-D, 48-D, 51-D, 53-D), the 1955-PDS dimes (at current bid levels), and scattered Washingtons and Franklins (mostly at or below current bid levels). The proof set picture remains unchanged except that the 1953 set is now included in the lists of investors' wants.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Interest is still high on one of the two teletype circuits for choice rolls of 47-S—with a few sales noted as high as $22.50; otherwise, Lincolns remain basically out of favor.

NICKELS: Scattered dates remain on want lists—with prices lightly mixed across the charts.

1940-S Now elusive at $32 bid
1947D & 1948D - Both edge higher
1949S & 1951S - Both edge lower
1950D - Sales noted around $360

DIMES: Mercury rolls are extremely quiet; the key Roosevelts slip another notch lower. Any buying interest centers around the close-to-face dates after 1955.

1949S - Now offered at $500
1950S - Now offered at $255
1951S - Now offered at $165

QUARTERS: Very slight changes—and very light trading.

1948D - Offered at a lower $67.50
1955D - Attractively priced now at $113.50

1959P - Available in quantity at $18

HALVES: It appears that dealers have decided not to lower ask levels any further this week for either the Walking Liberties or Franklins; sales, however, remain infrequent.

DOLLARS: Not really much action here either—a few rolls seem to be in mild demand and, of course, "bargains" quickly find a home.

1888O - Offered at a lower $61
1890O - Bid up $10; now $120
1891O - Up sharply; bid $200 (an increase of $40)
1904O - Still wanted—now at $62.50

PROOF SETS: Only slight changes; sales volume is light. The 1953 set joins the "wanted" group—1956, 1958 and 1959.

1953 - Sales at a higher $24
1961, 1962 & 1963 - Bid for in quantity at current levels
1964 - Offered now at $6.35

1937-S	44.00	46.50	1939-S	21.00	22.50

CANADIAN: The lower priced sets are beginning to interest buyers—but suddenly most of them have either disappeared from the tapes or carry slightly higher price tags. See Page Five.

Warrickels are bid in the $3.80-$3.90 range.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

A WORD ABOUT QUALITY

It certainly isn't news that many dealers and investors have a tough time buying coins through the mail. Over grading is the problem and buyers have simply written off many advertisers as not worth the problems involved. Bargain prices usually mean inferior material. I have been striving in recent months to deliver material exactly as it is advertised and, although there can occasionally be a difference of opinion, my returns have been virtually nil. However, obtaining choice material can seldom be accomplished at a price which also enables me to sell at below market. In other words, you get what you pay for. Try me---spend a few dollars more for conservatively graded coins and sets. You will find the higher resale value worth it---and think of the return postage you will save!

MARKET ACTIVITY GENERALLY INCREASES Gold Twenties and Common Silver Dominate Much Trading

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Both teletype circuits have been extremely busy during this entire week—more activity than has been noted in quite a while. Areas of buying interest have cropped up all over the place—and, though there haven't been a lot of price changes, there are more "want lists" and more recorded sales. The 1970-PDS cents are all being traded and the 1970-P dimes are on the market (there was some mention of the 1970-S nickel but prices haven't really been established). And then there is the 1970 proof set—offered for sale at $15, $13.50 and $11.50—with bids around $6. By next week, perhaps, we will have prices with a reasonable spread to add to our chart.

Gold twenties have been on nearly everyone's mind and the bid-ask range has edged higher each day. Those who were quick to buy at the $48-$49 have already realized some profit and there is talk on the tape of the $60 level being reached again in a short while. Sales near the end of the week were mostly around $53-$54.

Common silver bags traded as high as 35% this week—and buyers outnumber sellers by a wide margin. The ask on Warnickel bags is approximately $400 and there aren't very many of these for sale either. Apparently the flow of common silver from the public into many coin shops has become a mere trickle—even though the buying price is at or very near the top of what has ever been offered.

Jefferson nickels appear to be of even more interest to investors than they were last week—with additional dates being added to buying lists. The 1940-S roll, in particular, is almost impossible to locate—even though a few weeks back it was included in my selling lists at $30 or less. This week's bid-ask range is $38-$40. A low priced roll with lots of potential is the 53-D—there are a couple of bags around; and investor with $750 can put one away and possibly realize a nice profit within a short while. Ten or twenty roll lots are already difficult to locate at $8 or so. Other dates to watch (and perhaps pick up before the move begins) are 40-D, 41-D, 46-D & S, 47-S, 48-S, 49-D & S, 50-P, 51-P and 52-D. As with the 40-S and 51-D rolls, all it takes is a little buying interest to see these dates disappear from selling lists overnight. Often when dealers run selling lists which include virtually all dates, they have only a roll or two of most—and sometimes you will find that the particular date you want is already sold and that the dealer has just neglected to type out an up-to-date list.

This Week's Market

CENTS: The few slight changes are, as usual, on the down side; bidding, however, seems to have increased a bit—although it is all at current levels.

1938S - Sales noted at $52.50

1934D & S - Both edge slightly lower

1955S - A few transactions recorded at $11

NICKELS: Gains outnumber losses—and those recently sought-after dates are appearing on even more "want lists".

1940S - Up sharply—and difficult to locate in the $38-$40 range

1942S - Offered again at $105

1948D - Sales at a still higher $28

1952D - Offered at $50; often extremely elusive

1953D - Considerable interest at $7.50 bid

DIMES: For the Roosevelts too we have more advances than declines; sales, however, remain rather light and scattered.

1949D - Now available at $92.50

1953P - Sales registered at a slightly higher $19

1955P & D - Both edge higher; dealers aren't anxious to sell

1956D & 1957D - Still moving up; few offered

QUARTERS: Washingtons are virtually unchanged this week; numerous late date rolls are priced at practically the level of common silver—an investment area to be considered.

HALVES: A choice BU roll set of Franklins is available at $2700; single sets have traded at $145. Rolls—both BU and circ—have experienced very little activity and prices are unchanged.

DOLLARS: Again, only "bargain offerings" really interest buyers. Circ bags are bid at $2000—with few sellers appearing.

1892P - Offered at a slightly lower $565

1892O - Also lower; available at $340

1904O - Transactions noted at $64.50

1927P - Choice original rolls are offered at $400

PROOF SETS: The earlier sets ('36 thru '39) fail to spark much buyer interest at lower ask levels; higher bids for several of the later dates fail to produce many sales.

1955 - A few sales noted at $23

1956 - Very few offered to bidders at $10.50

1958 - Bid moves up to $14.50, some sales

1959 - Sales at a higher bid of $8

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gcm uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

CANADIANS: Would you believe quantity bidding for the really low priced sets?—and sellers continue to evade the bidders at these levels. Prices are on Page Two.

Warnickels are bid in the $3.85-$3.90 range.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

Money in circulation this past week amounted to $52,521,000,000. Paper money in circulation for the same week in 1969 totaled $49,537,000,000. However, for the first time in weeks there was a drop from the preceding week. Money in circulation for the preceding week was $53,040,000,000. This is the first sign that we may be finally winning the battle of inflation. It is to be hoped that this trend continues.

It is interesting to note that the latest survey shows that it now takes about $541 for an average family of four to live on. This compares with $130 needed in 1937, or $312 in 1957. We are talking about the absolute minimum needed to live on. It all points out, that inflation continues on steadily whether it is under controls . . . or not! There is no stopping it . . . over the long term. All we have been doing is simply slowing it down from time to time!

Such figures do serve to prove that the average family is going to be putting out several hundred dollars more, per month, just to get by, ten or fifteen years from now. And these ten year periods seem to fly by in no time at all! The investor who has been holding for the long term finds that his nice long term capital gain has been wiped out, as far as purchasing power is concerned, and that higher state and Federal taxes are being imposed on his gain at that time! It is discouraging for the investor if his yield has been an average yield.

Naturally, if the yield has been above average this investor is going to win this bout with inflation! Furthermore, if inflation should ever turn out to be really serious or even panic-inflation . . . the worst runaway kind that some European countries have experienced . . . rare objects with a limited supply . . . will be the only safe investments to be holding during such a dangerous period.

Every investor should consider seriously the advantages in including rare silver and gold coins in his investment program. Every investor should consider the advantages that his children might enjoy many, many years from now from a portfolio of such coins set up now for their future use exclusively! In these hectic inflationary times such precious metal coins . . . symbols of TRUE value . . . can only continue to gain in metal and numismatic value. Most will be rarities, even curiosities, to the generation that our children will be a part of!

The latest form of numismatic investing is in the collecting area. Yes, there is a new breed of investor today who is using his investment money and his hobby money . . . combining them . . . for the purpose of assembling RARE coins into RARE COLLECTIONS. Only the best and the rarest is being considered and money is no object. Quality is the utmost consideration in the formation of such collections.

The end result is that such a collector-investor finds that he has eventually formed a beautiful and priceless collection out of CHOICE material. He has used money, taken out of his recreation-hobby budget . . . and money taken out of his monthly fund set aside for investment purposes. A wedding of the two—DOUBLES the amount of money he can pour into such a "pleasure" investment. And of course this combination investor-collector is enjoying the collecting hobby at the same time that he is creating future long term gains for himself or his children!

If he is able to form a collection in a fairly short period of time, there is nothing to prevent him from starting all over again on a second collection, perhaps in a different numismatic field. Selling such choice material collections is no problem at all . . . no matter what the price . . . as the auction market is always there . . . waiting . . . for such rare, select material!

A WORD ABOUT QUALITY

It certainly isn't news that many dealers and investors have a tough time buying coins through the mail. Over-grading is the problem and buyers have simply written off many advertisers as not worth the problems involved. Bargain prices usually mean inferior material. I have been striving in recent months to deliver material exactly as it is advertised and, although there can occasionally be a difference of opinion, my returns have been virtually nil. However, obtaining choice material can seldom be accomplished at a price which also enables me to sell at below market. In other words, you get what you pay for. Try me---spend a few dollars more for conservatively graded coins and sets. You will find the higher resale value worth it---and think of the return postage you will save!

PROOF SETS BEGIN TO STIR Numerous Jeffersons Remain on Want Lists

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Several Jefferson rolls are still on hourly "want lists"—and they have been joined by a few dates in the Roosevelt series. It is typical that as soon as a few bidders begin to seek a particular date, that date suddenly disappears from selling lists. There are a few "advisory publications" that specialize in pointing out the best buys in the underpriced rolls and singles—and that seems to be about all it takes. The market is actually quite thin, at this point, for much material. Such dates as 40-S and 51-D nickels aren't being held by the bag and those investors who have any quantity probably paid two or three times the present bid price anyway. The floating supply is quickly absorbed when even a minimum of buying starts and then it becomes a matter of enticing rolls from investors. Well, it is human nature to "wait and see" when a roll starts to move—it is only when the upward swing slows considerably that the investor then starts to make the decision to sell. At that point he may be getting at least a better percentage of his 1963-64 purchase price. There are, of course, those fish who swam upstream and bought 51-D nickel rolls at $20 and 40-S at $26 not too long ago.

Just picture what would happen to any number of rolls as a result of even one dependable "buy now" recommendation. Take the 1951-D Franklin roll (bid $260, ask $275), even though Franklin sell lists have been lengthy in recent weeks, very few have contained the 51-D and the price has held better than any other early date (right now it favorably compares with the magical 49's—P, D and S). Accumulating only ten rolls would be a major task and the price would most likely be $400 before the ten rolls were safely in the vault.

There are rolls—the "popular" dates—which are far too plentiful for this type of price advance. They are around by the bag—or by ten bags. Special "promotions" cause these dates too see-saw, but accumulating a bag or two of, say 1955-S cents or 1955-S dimes, is certainly no trick. Picking out just the right dates, of course, is the business of the few dependable advisory publications—and their batting average isn't bad. However, it should be added that the coin investing public wants to be told just which dates to buy—and that helps! Maybe a few readers can figure out in advance which are the best buys and pick up some rolls before the recommendation and subsequent "scarcity".

This Week's Market

CENTS: Light and scattered bidding remains the rule; the few recorded transactions are all within current bid-ask ranges.

NICKELS: The changes this week are mostly in the plus column—several dates are still elusive. One or two BU roll sets of Wartime nickels were traded at $700.

- 1940S - Bid still edging higher; now $40
- 1947D - Sales at a higher $18.50
- 1949S - Some interest noted at $49
- 1950D - Several rolls have been traded around $360
- 1953D - Buyer interest continues; sales at $8

DIMES: Mercuries are unchanged and extremely quiet, bidding picks up for several Roosevelt rolls.

- 1948S - Up $2—with bids at $36
- 1950S - Offered now at $245
- 1951S - Bid at a higher $165
- 1955D - Sales noted at a higher $24
- 1955S - Also up slightly—with sales at $17

QUARTERS: Prices are nearly unchanged this week and bidding is light; the 55-D roll has slipped another notch and sales were registered as low as $105.

- 1932P - Choice singles are tough at $14.50 bid
- 1953S - Buying interest evident at $32.50

1958P - Further sales in the $41 area

HALVES: Several dates in the Walking Liberty series are offered within the current bid-ask ranges—very little interest noted. Franklins are virtually unchanged; a BU roll set traded at $2650.

DOLLARS: Only the 1904-O roll has shown a gain (bid now $65); otherwise, the scattered bidding noted remains at or just below market levels.

PROOF SETS: Pre-1950 sets seem plentiful and create little buyer enthusiasm; several of the later dates register gains.

- 1956 - A few sales at the higher bid of $11
- 1957 & 1960 - Both are now bid at $5.75
- 1958 - Transactions noted at a higher $15
- 1959 - Also up—with sales at $8.25

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

A WORD ABOUT QUALITY

It certainly isn't news that many dealers and investors have a tough time buying coins through the mail. Over grading is the problem and buyers have simply written off many advertisers as not worth the problems involved. Bargain prices usually mean inferior material. I have been striving in recent months to deliver material exactly as it is advertised and, although there can occasionally be a difference of opinion, my returns have been virtually nil. However, obtaining choice material can seldom be accomplished at a price which also enables me to sell at below market. In other words, you get what you pay for. Try me---spend a few dollars more for conservatively graded coins and sets. You will find the higher resale value worth it---and think of the return postage you will save!

MARKET RELATIVELY ACTIVE; PRICES MIXED

Wartime Nickels are Again Reaching Bargain Levels

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Proof sets seem to have pulled back a little after last week's rash of buying. Obviously the higher "one hundred lot" bids enticed a few sellers into the market—and, once there, they even decided to lower the "ask" just a bit to encourage further sales. Several buyers are still showing interest—but it is typical, at this point, to see the bids edge lower in proportion to the lowered ask levels. Pre-1950 sets continue to be offered to a largely disinterested audience. A few "buying lists" for the 1936-54 sets have appeared with prices somewhat below the current bid levels—these optimistic bidders will take "ten to twenty-five" of the earlier dates at their bid prices; few if any sales have resulted.

The silver dollar market is strangely quiet. Usually there are at least a couple of "hot" issues in the Morgan series—but at the moment it is only the real "bargain offering" that causes any activity. Several of the more elusive Carson City and San Francisco dates are currently available by the roll. Numerous bidders, also, are in the market for many of the "common dates"—but bids are mostly in the $46-$47 range (again, very few sales have been recorded as a result of these bids).

Most of the Wartime nickel rolls are again approaching an interesting price level. The bid price—by the roll—is $736.50; BU roll sets are offered at $725. It was from almost this exact point that the last buying flurry occurred—pushing the price to over $1000 per BU roll set in a short time (in July, 1968, the "ask" was $1025). The $700 level seems to be the "bottom"—just how soon another "top" will be reached remains to be seen. However, picking up a choice BU roll set at today's price should afford very little "downside risk". Several Jefferson dates, by the way, are still on the "most wanted" lists—with sales of the "hot" 40-S and 48-D rolls very few and far between.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Minor changes for a few of the earlier dates; the 1970-S bags are available in lots of three or more at around $72.50 per.

NICKELS: Quite a number of changes—in both directions; several dates remain of interest to investors. Most of the Wartime rolls, however, have edged lower this week and several are beginning to look very attractive.

1938D (J) - Offered at a lower $157.50

1939D - Choice roll offered at $1075

1940S - Virtually impossible to locate at $42 bid

1942P (t2) - Also lower; available at $160

1943D - Below the $100 level; offered at $97.50

1948D - Sales as high as $32

1950P - Scattered transactions at $50-$52.50; tough to find

DIMES: Prices are mixed—sales are light; several of the later dates are in mild demand. Buyer interest is noted for circulated roll sets at a higher $375.

1947S - Available now at $30

1950S - Up $5—bid is $235

1956D, 57D and 58D - All edge slightly higher

QUARTERS: Virtually all dates seem to be available within current price ranges—and buyer interest is very selective.

1940D - Seldom offered roll; available at $1125

1946S & 1947S - Both are lower at $102.50 ask

1953S - Some interest noted at a slightly higher $33

1955D - Transactions again this week as low as $105

HALVES: Several dates in the W.L. "short set" remain on selling lists; the Franklins are very lightly traded within current price ranges. Circulated roll sets are in some demand at $625.

DOLLARS: Very slight changes and only an occasional transaction; numerous high-powered rolls are appearing on "sell lists".

PROOF SETS: A little retrenching is noted; numerous buyers remain in the market—but their bids have edged lower in several instances.

1955 - Available in quantity at $23

1956 & 1958 - Both slip back a little

1970S - Bid at $10; few sales registered

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

Some of the leading economists believe that a slowdown during the first part of 1970 will finally dent inflation and eventually interest rates. They are calling it a "pause" instead of a recession. The trick is to ease up slowly on the money squeeze and not over-react when we reach the point where inflation is really slowing down. If we stimulate the economy too much then we'll be off on another inflation reaction!

If things are scheduled properly we should see a slowdown that will last for about seven or eight months . . . then normal activity through the balance of the year . . . and with a very pronounced easing of the price hiking. Prices should level off and stay on a plateau until the end of the year. 1971, however, is another story. No doubt about it, growth with resume in 1971. It can only be hoped that the increase in activity will be on a more sustainable basis.

Actually the seventies could turn out to be THE decade of all decades!! With a police-action war slowly being brought under control, we can only expect things to improve. So many areas are waiting for the signal, particularly the construction or housing market. We are on the eve of the biggest housing boom ever seen in this country. This will be the decade where America will be cleaned up and made beautiful again. If we can all keep up with the higher sales taxes, property taxes, state income taxes and Federal income taxes that will be necessary if we are to take on all of these beautifying projects . . . the seventies will be an exciting and happy time to be a living part of!

Of course we must expect inflation to continue. It always has . . . and evidently it is to go on and on over the years ahead . . . at a reduced rate perhaps . . . but at a rate that we can live with. The fact that higher prices and higher taxes are the prospect for the future will make it difficult . . . particularly . . . for those on a fixed income and for most investors.

These two classes will have to invest in markets that will deliver larger than usual yields each year . . . and with a degree of safety. I am speaking of yields that could be as high as 15% to 25% per year! Over the long term the stock market and the real estate market and the bond market just cannot deliver that kind of return. Loss of purchasing power, due to inflation, higher local, state and Federal taxes, applied to any gains being made . . . make it impossible for the average investor to more than "break even" with average yields.

Investing in coins over the past thirty five years has produced a final overall average gain of 25-2/3% per year. This includes all of the booms and slumps during the period 1935 through 1969. This is a pretty startling average because it does include the 1965-68 slump that hit the coin world with such force at the top of the last coin boom! Here is a 35 year period that has included every kind of investment weather. The next 35 year cycle could be much the same because the last one was very representative, including every kind of economic condition that could possibly affect a hobby!

As the war is brought under control and turned into a Korea-type policing . . . that we can live with . . . as the stock market gradually recovers to former heights . . . and as the building recovery takes hold . . . so shall the coin hobby and investment have its very own recovery! Today's low, low prices for scarce material make it possible to assemble choice collections of coins that will be priceless in the years ahead! The collector-investor who concentrates on such material is fighting the battle of inflation and higher taxes the RIGHT way . . . the ONLY way. We are probably living in a time of bargains insofar as choice numismatic material is concerned!

This will be the last time that the collector-investor will be able to pick up choice, rare and semi-rare, uncirculated singles . . . and I am speaking of the older coins that are to form the beautiful collections of the future. Assemble these collections TODAY . . . or "tomorrow" . . . if it must be done slowly over a period of time . . . either way . . . they will be welcomed by the affluent collector of the future!! And the collector-investor will be well paid for his time and patience! In a world of flimsy PAPER values . . . every changing . . . what could be better than the rare, SOLID, priceless GOLD and SILVER coins!!

A WORD ABOUT QUALITY

It certainly isn't news that many dealers and investors have a tough time buying coins through the mail. Over-grading is the problem and buyers have simply written off many advertisers as not worth the problems involved. Bargain prices usually mean inferior material. I have been striving in recent months to deliver material exactly as it is advertised and, although there can occasionally be a difference of opinion, my returns have been virtually nil. However, obtaining choice material can seldom be accomplished at a price which also enables me to sell at below market. In other words, you get what you pay for. Try me---spend a few dollars more for conservatively graded coins and sets. You will find the higher resale value worth it---and think of the return postage you will save!

THIS WEEK OFFERINGS

COMMON SILVER & GOLD DOMINATES TRADING Jefferson Nickels Continue to Interest Investors

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Several more dates in the Jefferson series seem to have caught the investor's eye—and quite a number of small gains have been recorded again this week. In addition to the 40-S and 48-D rolls, 47-D, 48-S, 49-D, 49-S and 55-P all look attractive at current levels. The following is an interesting comparison between current bid prices and the 1964 bid for these few rolls:

	Today's BID	1964 BID
1940-S	$43	$85
1947-D	18	40
1948-D	33	72
1948-S	22	100
1949-D	20	61
1949-S	50	160
1955-P	28	125

Out of this line-up, current bids range from approximately one-half of the 1964 price (40-S) to 20% or less (for the 48-S and 55-P rolls). These variations, of course, hold true for the rest of the dates in the series. A little individual research might bring even more interesting comparisons to light. One thing to remember, however, is that "promotions" were relatively common back in 1964—and they were thoroughly bankrolled. A late promotion, for instance, on the 47-S saw it top the $100 level for a short while (current bid is $17.50).

Common silver bags and $20 gold pieces continue to dominate much of the teletype trading time—twenties have again edged higher and bulk silver has varied only slightly from day to day. Dimes thru dollars are really very quiet—with only selective and scattered bidding noted. Most "selling lists" are fairly extensive; it seems to be only the occasional "hot" roll that is left out of these lists. As soon as the particular roll "cools off" it begins to appear again. As an example, now that the bid for the 51-D Jefferson roll has leveled at $32, it is available—at $34 or so. Had the bid continued its upward swing, it is doubtful if it would yet be on "selling lists".

This Week's Market

CENTS: Slight changes are noted; the 1960-P small date roll is now offered at $125.

NICKELS: More gains than losses—buyer-interest expands to additional dates.

- 1938S - Transactions registered at $170
- 1940S - Sales as high as $44
- 1943D - Bids move up to $97.50 on one teletype circuit
- 1947D - Here is one to watch; difficult to locate at $18 bid
- 1948D - Sales as high as $34
- 1949D & S - Both edge slightly higher
- 1950D - Slightly lower; transactions recorded at $360
- 1955P - Bid edges back up to $28

DIMES: An occasional Mercury roll is traded (within current bid-ask ranges); the Roosevelts are lightly mixed.

- 1951S - the bid moves up to $168
- 1954S - Sales noted at a lower $19.50
- 1955P - Up; with bids recorded at $47
- 1957D - Again this one is elusive; bid is now $16

QUARTERS: Virtually the entire list of rolls from '41 are currently offered at "ask"—with surprisingly little interest being shown. The scattered bidding which is recorded is mostly below the current bid levels.

- 1955P - Sales at a lower $29
- 1955D - Still slipping; offered at $107.50

HALVES: Walking Liberty rolls still fail to excite buyers at current prices; the Franklins register only minor changes.

- 1943S - Now available at $210
- 1949S - Now available at $280
- 1950P - Also lower; choice rolls are offered at $180
- 1950D - This one is slightly higher at $135 bid

DOLLARS: A few small losses are scattered across the charts; sales remain very light. The recently "hot" 1892-P roll is now available at $545—and the very scarce 1893-P roll was traded this week at $900.

PROOF SETS: The 1938 thru 1942 sets slip another notch—with few sales recorded; the later dates are mixed.

- 1955 - Sales at a lower $21-$22
- 1958 - Offered again at $15
- 1961, 62 & 63 - Bids edge higher for these three
- 1968S & 1969S - Both record sales at slightly higher levels

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

CANADIANS: Recent bidders seem to have nearly filled their needs; prices are on Page Five.

The bid for common silver leveled at week's end around 31%-32%.

Warnickels are bid in the $3.70-$3.80 range.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

JEFFERSONS HEAD "WANT LISTS" Early Proof Sets are Available at Bargain Levels

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Quite a number of the lower priced Morgan rolls have begun to appear on fairly extensive dealer "want lists". So far, bidders feel confident that they will be able to pick up the needed rolls within current bid-ask ranges—and they are probably right. However, past experience has taught that when certain dates begin to appear regularly on buying lists those particular dates usually disappear from selling lists. As an example, the 1904-O is currently difficult to locate at a higher $64 bid (and the few rolls offered manage to keep a few dollars ahead of bid); the 1898-O, on the other hand, is not appearing to any degree on "want lists" and can currently be picked up without too much effort. Common date BU bags, too, are receiving numerous bids—but the $2250-$2300 currently being offered encourages very few sales. As a matter of fact, not many single BU rolls (except 22-P and 23-P) are offered for less than $49-$50—although an occasional "bargain lot" may be marked down to the $47-$48 range. "Bargain lots", by the way, still find an almost immediate buyer.

Early date proof sets ('36 thru '42) remain fairly plentiful—and it is surprising that so few buyers are interested at the moment. Actually, there were more buyers in the market a few months back when prices were 25% to 50% higher. The 1937, 1938 and 1939 sets look particularly interesting at today's prices. There seems to be an adequate number of sets offered for the investor to be able to locate choice sets. In fact, most of the sets now being offered are described as "gem, spot-free" sets. Certainly a few wise, long-term investors can see the potential in this sort of investment.

The recent interest in later date proof sets seems to have leveled off for the moment. Fifty to one hundred set lots of most dates from 1954 are currently being listed for sale—often at a price between bid and ask "plus freight". The "S" mint sets are particularly plentiful although they are perhaps registering the most sales. The 1970-S set, while not yet available in large quantities, has recorded sales of smaller lots as low as $8.50 per. With all orders reduced to four sets each, it is going to be difficult for dealers to put together the large lots which were traded in both the 1968-S and 1969-S sets.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Only an occasional Lincoln roll appears on dealer "want lists"—and no date after 1934 is difficult to locate. Mild interest is noted (at current levels) for the 36-S, 37-S and 38-S rolls.

NICKELS: Several dates remain "hot": all of this week's changes are on the "plus" side.

- 1940-S - Still advancing—bid now up to $45
- 1948D - Hard to find at the higher bid of $35
- 1949D & S - Both edge slightly higher
- 1950D - Several transactions noted at $335
- 1951D - Still edging up; bid now $33
- 1952S & 1955P - Both rolls register mild demand

DIMES: Mercuries again are unchanged with virtually no rolls traded; a few small gains have been recorded by the Roosevelts.

- 1951S - Up again this week; bid now $172.50
- 1955P - Slightly lower; offered at $48
- 1955D - This one is up; bid now $25
- 1957D - Still moving; few offered to bidders at $17

QUARTERS: Relatively few changes—and relatively few sales. "Selling lists" continue to include nearly all dates. Single BU sets ('41-'64) have traded at $95 during the week.

- 1941D - This one seems elusive; bid $162.50
- 1949D - Offered at a lower $102.50
- 1953S - Up $2—with bids monitored at $35
- 1955P - Offered at a lower $30

HALVES: Many Walking Liberties and most Franklins remain on "selling lists"; prices are lightly mixed and sales have been scattered.

- 1947D - Offered now at a slightly lower $122.50
- 1949P - Also lower; "choice" rolls are available at $330
- 1950D - Slightly higher—bid now $137.50
- 1955P - Offered as low as $120

DOLLARS: Somewhat increased bidding is noted—especially for a number of the lower priced Morgan rolls. Bidders are, for the most part, content to remain within current bid-ask ranges.

- 1878 (8tF) - Difficult to locate at $172.50 bid
- 1879P, 1880O & 1884P - All edge higher
- 1904O - Bid now at a higher $64
- 1924P - Offered at a lower $58.50
- 1926D - Bid moves up to $182.50

PROOF SETS: Again small losses are scattered across the chart; sales have been light.

- 1938, 1939 & 1942 - All three slip lower
- 1959 - Offered in quantity at $8.25
- 1970S - Sales noted in the $8.50-$9.50 range

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

CANADIAN: Very little bidding is noted; virtually no sales recorded. Prices are on Page Two.

The bid for common silver leveled at week's end around 32%-33%.

Warnickels are bid in the $3.75-$3.85 range.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

This week the amount of money in circulation reached a total of $52,202,000,000. This compares with $52,143,000,000 the previous week and $49,377,000,000 in the same week last year. While there was a slight decrease in money put into circulation recently it appears that this was temporary. The rise continues. There has been an increase of $2,825,000,000 in this past year . . . money that has been pumped into the economy . . . NEW paper money! This works out to about $54,326,923 of new money that went into the blood stream of the nation each week during the past year. The increase for this past week is $59,000,000 . . . so we can see that the rate is fairly consistent and steady.

Some economists are now stating that there will be an easing of the present controls on the money supply and the interest rates by the Federal Reserve . . . and that these changes are to be applied sometime during the next few months. I would guess that this will spark another boom and . . . if so . . . we'll then have a boom and continued inflation . . . at the same rate we are now experiencing. We are all guessing . . . right now . . . so this is just another guess. At the moment we are having inflation along with a slow-down . . . the next step could be . . . inflation along with a boom. Perhaps this will be the only answer because the Republicans certainly would welcome booming times during the election period coming up in November. Once the boom has been restored there could possibly be wage and price controls applied to the economy . . . and one could expect to see the same thing happen in other countries. Already Canada has started to bring about some order by a voluntary set of wage and price controls.

Surprisingly enough such controls seem to meet with approval whenever the public is polled on the matter. The voters want wage and price controls . . . and as this is an election year . . . such controls just may happen. Voters certainly do not want any kind of recession, no matter how mild . . . and generally voters are more content when there is a booming economy with inflation . . . providing, of course . . . that the inflation doesn't get out of hand.

Resistance to wage and price controls . . . on the part of some government experts . . . is based on the inability to impose such controls successfully. Still . . . we did a pretty good job with such controls during the World War II days. They were very effective . . . as we all suddenly realized when they were slowly relaxed at the end of the war!

The purpose of such controls, however, shouldn't be for absolute iron control. We should expect problems and loopholes . . . but the overall effect should certainly hold down inflation a point or two . . . and that is all we are seeking. An end to all inflation is just not in the cards. We have been living with inflation during all of our lives and it is not about to stop now. What we must do, of course, is to check its speed somewhat, to rein it in a bit. The good times that can go along with a reasonable amount of inflation will then see to it that the average man is making enough money to keep up with the inflation rate . . . and everyone keeps happy! Yes, I am inclined to agree with some of the bankers and economists who are now stating that controls may be the answer.

In a world of inflation . . . with inflation to definitely be a way of life . . . the investor has to turn to stability . . . to things that have a firm base . . . a firm value . . . to materials that cannot be replaced . . . to things that increase in value with age . . . to materials that increase in value as other paper securities decrease in value. And . . . these investments would naturally be rare coins, gold, silver, diamonds, rare stamps, paintings, antiques. Keep this in mind when you are looking around for a safe investment medium that will react well to the inflationary surges that are sure to come to our economy at times during the years ahead!

COMMON SILVER TOPS MARKET ACTIVITY BU Jefferson Sets Look Attractive at Today's Price

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

A few dealers are currently offering to sell complete BU sets of Jeffersons at around $93.50. As a medium to long-term investment, this set is an attractive buy—one with outstanding potential. During the peak market of 1964, the complete Jefferson set was selling for over $200. At that point in the numismatic marketplace, BU roll sets were seldom available and dealers had a difficult time making up a quantity of single BU sets. Right now, all Jefferson rolls can be located and a few dealers are making up sets "from original rolls"—with just a few dollars profit involved from each set. Those investors who favor Jeffersons—but do not feel like investing in a roll set—could now put away a few single sets. Today's price is apparently rock-bottom. With the recent gains recorded for numerous rolls, dealers may soon be obliged to edge the price higher for their sets. This is not to say that one can expect spectacular gains in the next couple of months. To repeat, Jefferson sets should be carefully purchased with an eye to the longer term.

One should always keep in mind the fact that one or two "sliders" in a set can virtually nullify future gains. In the Jefferson set, it is usually the 1939-D which is less than choice—after that, the dates which are most often inferior are 1939-S, 1938-S, 1938-D and 1942-D. The 1950-D is generally BU since circ 50-D's are far more scarce than the uncirculated variety. One should, of course, check each coin when buying a set—but particular attention should be paid to those listed above. The Wartime nickels, by the way, generally are available in gem condition and a set with less than choice pieces should be rejected.

Much of the teletype time was taken up again this week by the discussion and trading of common silver. The announcement that the Eisenhower dollar would contain 40% silver—coupled with the definite ending in November of the G.S.A. silver sales—has created a situation in which very few dealers are willing to sell their bags. The bid for both silver bags and Wartime nickels can be expected to be quite volatile in the near future.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Dealer "want lists" have increased in length—although bid prices, for the most part, aren't bringing about very many sales. Apparently dealer stocks are depleted in many instances; numerous attempts to replenish inventories are being noted.

NICKELS: Prices are mixed this week; those "wanted" dates are still in demand.

1940D - Bids recorded as high as $47.50
1942S & 1945P - Two Wartime rolls slip lower
1948S & 1949D - Both are now bid at $22.50
1949S - Up again—with bids at $54
1951D - Available now—at $34
1955P - Bid moves up to $31

DIMES: No changes registered for the inactive Mercury rolls; the Roosevelts are lightly traded—with only minor changes.

1947D - Often fairly tough; available now at $40
1951S - Higher again this week—bid $175
1955D & S - Both slip back a little

QUARTERS: A few changes; sales remain infrequent.

1939P - An impressive jump to $125 bid—none offered
1941P & D - Both rolls register some demand
1946S & 1947S - These two are beginning to interest investors at current levels
1955D - Still lower; $100 bid—$105 ask

HALVES: Choice BU "short sets" of Walking Liberty halves are difficult to locate at $150 (most rolls, however, remain on "selling lists"); several Franklin rolls are receiving bids—mostly below market.

DOLLARS: Quite a number of BU rolls are currently available at slightly lower prices; sales are scattered and, as usual, only real "bargains" are of major interest.

1878P - Offered at a lower $72.50
1878CC - Also lower; offered at $215
1879O - This one is up—with bids at $87.50
1888O - Still slipping; available now at $57.50
1903O - High powered roll; offered this week at $550
1926D - This one is hard to locate; bid at a higher $190

PROOF SETS: The early sets continue to edge lower (some buyers are interested—but at still lower prices); the later dates are lightly mixed.

1956 & 1958 - Both are slightly lower
1964 - Offered in quantity at $6.10
1968S & 1969S - These two finally move up a bit
1970S - Leveling at $8.25-$8.75

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

MOST BU ROLLS ARE EASILY AVAILABLE Only Scattered Dates Fail to Appear on Selling Lists

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Long selling lists (which cover all series) continue to appear almost hourly on the teletypes—and very few dates are missing. For the dealer or investor who is willing to pay "ask", virtually any date is obtainable at the moment. However, buyers are content right now to offer less and wait around for a seller—and occasionally a "bargain lot" will appear that just "fills the bill". Those dates which enjoy plus signs this week are among the scattered issues which are not being included in "selling lists"—or, at least, are not subject to negotiation.

It is at times like this in the numismatic marketplace that it is advantageous to take a long look at dealer "selling lists" and find out what is not included—or, if included, which dates are available in only small quantities and find quick buyers. In cents, all dates from 1935 are offered. True, some are a little tougher than others—but, with Lincolns, the problem is more one of quality than quantity.

One of the least offered Jeffersons is the 1942-D roll—and, when it appears, there is usually only half a roll or one roll available. In recent months, even the "key" 1939-D has been offered more frequently. Other dates which seem to be around in only small quantities are 1939-S, 1938-S, 1938-D and 1950-P. At this point, a buyer can locate all of these dates. It is when the market moves that these scarcer issues quickly go into hiding.

Probably the most seldom offered nickel roll is the 1935-D. Currently priced at $250-$275, it is literally months between offerings. Putting five rolls away would be quite a task—and chances are that a $50 to $100 advance in the bid level would bring about very few sales. In the Buffalo "short set" (1934-38), it should also be noted that both the 1934-P and 1934-D rolls are really very scarce—and that the 1935-S is often difficult to locate. At today's prices, the long-term investor might have some fun putting together a "short roll set" of Buffalos—it certainly would be a challenge and the downside potential is quite small.

Next week perhaps we will look at dimes and quarters to see if there are any glaring holes in the line-up of available dates.

This Week's Market

CENTS: A few small losses; mild bidding continues at or just below current levels. Most reasonable bids get results.

1939D & 1942S - Two key rolls; both offered at a lower $87.50

1947S - Transactions noted at $17

1955S - Available in quantity at $11

NICKELS: Again, prices are mixed; Wartime rolls are for sale at slightly lower levels—the recently "hot" dates remain on buying lists.

1942P (t2) - Now available at $152.50

1942S - Now available at $95

1943D - Now available at $97.50

1946D, 47D & 48D - All are on "wanted" lists

1951D - Moving up again; sales noted at $35

1951S - Offered this week at a lower $82.50

DIMES: Pre-1934 Mercuries are in demand—choice BU singles and circulated rolls appear on "want lists"; only minor changes are recorded by the Roosevelt.

1948P - Choice rolls are offered at $67.50

1955P - Scattered sales at $46

1955S - Up slightly—with bids at $17

1957D - Leveled now—at $17 ask

QUARTERS: A BU roll set (1941-64) is available at a lower $3650; single roll prices are mixed and volume is light.

1939P - Offered now at $120

1946S - Buying interest continues—at $98 bid

1954S - Up $2—with unsuccessful bids at $27

1955P - Offered now at $29

1955D - Available in ten roll lots at $100 per

HALVES: Common "P" mint W.L. rolls are offered at $82.50, the Franklins are mixed—with BU single sets still available at $145.

1948P - Bid moves up to $122.50

1949P - Key roll offered this week at $325

1951D & S - Both edge lower

1953P - A sale or two registered at $145

1955P - Some interest noted at $118

1958P thru 1962P - Mild bidding—mostly at current levels.

DOLLARS: Virtually all the changes are on the down side; sales are light.

1878 (7/8 t1) - Offered at a lower $240

1878CC - Also lower; ask is now $210

1887O & 1888O - Both rolls edge lower

1890P - Bucking the trend with a higher bid of $70

1891CC - Offered now at $390

1892CC - Offered now at $915

1899P - Offered now at $340

PROOF SETS: A buyer or two is interested in the "special mint sets"—at higher bid levels; all of the other changes carry minus signs.

1938 - Available now at a lower $145

1941 & 1942 - Both also edge downward

1968S - Sales noted at $7

1969S - Sales noted at $6

1970S - Sales noted at $8.25

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

Of late we have had several moves, it appears, against the little investor. Banks, for example, are now empowered to pay 7½% interest, but only on accounts of $100,000 or more. Government bonds and T-notes, previously available in small amounts, have now been hiked up to as much as $10,000. $10,000 will soon be the minimum for all government securities and these securities can pay anywhere from 7% to 8½%. It may be that quite soon we shall see the new minimum to be raised even higher to $20,000 . . . thus cutting out the ordinary investor completely.

This week there are plans to make major changes in the stock market broker commissions. In some cases there will be drastic changes. These new fees will not only be applied when the little investor buys stock but also when he sells the stock. The rates of increase for these new fees can be anywhere from 17% to 116%! The reason for the fee hikes: to discourage the many smaller purchases and sales made by the average investor. Yes, these new fees could become a major factor in decisions about where and how to invest savings.

It is to be the age of the BIG investor and the little investor is going to be left out from here on, it seems. Banks and markets just cannot handle the work load of these millions of average investors and furthermore they don't make enough money out of the small accounts.

What is left for the average investor? It appears that the coin investing market is the only thing left. With the coming Eisenhower dollar, the coming Eisenhower proof set, the coming Eisenhower mint set . . . the coin world is on the edge of a tremendous expansion! The proof set series will be off and running. The Silver Dollar series, after being dead for 35 years, will be reincarnated, brought back to life! Some of the silver traders are predicting that there could be a further increase in the price of silver. The Swiss Union Bank this week predicted that there would be an accelerated increase in the price of silver. The bank cited the shrinking of the official American reserves and the continued growth in the industrial demand. It pointed out that industrial users increasingly prefer silver of .999 purity rather than the U.S. Treasury's .900 silver.

If the new "Ike" dollar contains some silver this would be an act that could send the price of silver even higher. There is talk this week that we might have an Eisenhower dollar in the proof set and in the Mint Set that would contain 40% silver. Clad silverless copies would be used for general use. This would give us two distinct types of dollar!! Imagine the interest that would spread over the numismatic world if this comes to pass. Imagine the interest, for that matter, taking over . . . not only the numismatic world . . . but the entire world . . . when this unusual dollar coin is finally released!! Actually the above idea is being seriously considered as a compromise . . . at this very moment. It is believed that such a plan would satisfy both silver lobby and the anti-silver forces!

If one sifts through the reports from the economic experts . . . from the war experts . . . from the numismatic experts . . . we seem to be ALL heading for brighter times. Plans to bring the war to an end, with just minor police action and air control, turning the rest over to the Viet Nam forces, is not too far away. As this gradually comes to a close, the greatest building boom in the history of this country will start to take hold! The stock market will recover and recapture its former heights. Coin investments will join the general boom the whole country will be enjoying . . . spurred on by the Eisenhower dollar boom. It all seems to blend in to a happy decade!

Inflation might be held to a 5% level during this coming boom, but if it does go higher, I believe that the coin investment will come through the bout with inflation the winner . . . and will win the battle with far greater yields than any other investments will deliver! Remember, however, that I am speaking of investments in the choice numismatic material, authenticated material . . . and I mean coins and rolls that have a low "availability" base! The CIC Poll, now under way, is slowly learning just which issues have the smallest "available" supplies on hand. From here on it will be the "available" supplies that will determine which coins are to make money . . . not the so called "low mintages."

CHANGES ARE MINOR; ACTIVITY MODERATE Early Mercuries—BU and Circ—are in Demand

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Considerable collector interest in early Mercury dimes is evidenced by the numerous bids which dealers are sending forth on the tapes. Choice BU pieces—when offered at reasonable levels—usually find a buyer within a short time. The three toughest dates to locate are apparently 1921-P, 1921-D and 1926-S—these are all high-powered coins and, in the case of the 1921-P, dealers are willing to pay over the current Redbook listing of $375 for choice specimens. Both the 1921-D and 1926-S have recently recorded teletype sales at $275. There are several lower priced dates which are quite difficult to find in gem condition—dates which could be considered excellent long-term investments at today's prices. At the top of this list is the 1917-D—seldom available—but, when offered, it is priced in the $50-$55 range. Choice 1917-D's are really quite a bit more scarce than a number of other dates which list in the $100 range in the 1970 Redbook. Also, both the 1924-P and 1925-P—along with 1926-D—look interesting at today's prices. Several choice BU 1927-D's, by the way, were offered on the tapes recently and were traded in the $140 range.

That old problem of grading, of course, is eternally with the buy of choice material and many of the "gem BU" Mercuries sold on the tapes are quickly returned to the seller because of "rubbing" or weakly struck cross-bands. Circulated rolls of the mintmarked issues in the 'teens and twenties are also of considerable interest to a number of buyers. Strictly GOOD and better rolls of several dates are few and far between. There is quite a difference between "average circ" rolls and "GOOD and better" rolls. The most sought after dates—by the circ roll—are 1916-S, 1917-D, 1919-D & S, 1924-D, 1925-D, 1926-S, 1927-D, 1928-D, 1929-D and, of course, 1930-S and 1931-D & S.

Last week we mentioned a few of the nickel rolls which are seldom offered for sale in comparison with the majority of dates. There are several dime rolls which fall into the same category. First of all, it is obvious that the early "D" mint Mercuries are quite scarce—1934-D, 1935-D and 1936-D. Of these three, the 35-D is the toughest, followed by the 36-D and then the 34-D (a roll of which is currently offered at $575). Two other dates which are lower priced and overlooked at the moment are 1934-P and 1937-D. Actually—in future years, the 34-P may prove to be worth more than the "D"—and the 37-D may move up to the category of the other early "D" mints. In Roosevelt, there are many dealers and investors who consider the 1949-P to be the scarcest—although both the 49-S and 50-S are usually thought of as the two "keys". Certainly the 49-P appears infrequently in a series which is rather plentiful all the way through—and "bargain offerings" on this date are rarely encountered.

This Week's Market

CENTS: The 47-S roll has taken another substantial jump—bid is now $23—with few if any offered; otherwise, price change are minor and sales remain light.

NICKELS: Changes are about evenly divided between gains and losses; War-time rolls continue to be offered at bargain levels.

1942S & 1943D - Both edge lower again this week

1948D - Bid now at $40; non available

1948S & 1949D - Both prove elusive with higher bids

1955P - Up again—bid now $33

DIMES: Early Mercuries (1916-34) remain in demand—both BU and circulated; the later rolls are quiet. Only small changes are registered for the Roosevelt.

1950D - Up slightly—with bids at $51

1955D - Sales noted around $25

1957D - Bid moves back up to $18

QUARTERS: Single BU sets (1941 up) and still available at $95; several rolls record mild demand.

1932P - BU singles are bid now at $16—few available

1941D - Still very difficult to find—bid now $175

1942D - Also tough; bid moves up to $85

1951P & D - Both edge slightly higher

1955D - Still slipping—with choice rolls now offered at $100

HALVES: Late date Philly W.L. rolls are now available at $80; again the Franklins are mixed—with numerous sales recorded for the better dates.

1946D - Offered at a lower $170

1949D - Transactions at a lower $160

1949S - This one was traded at $275

1950P - Bid moves to a higher $177.50

1951D - Offered now at $255

1955P - Offered now at $119

1956P & 1957P - These two edge higher

DOLLARS: Only a few changes are scattered across the charts—sales have remained light and relatively long "selling lists" are plentiful.

1878 (7/8 tf) - Offered now at a lower $220

1891CC - Choice rolls are available at $380

1903O - Choice rolls are available at $540

PROOF SETS: Slight fluctuations this week; most dates after '53 are for sale in quantity—at current levels.

1937 - Bid $255; Ask $270—an investment to be considered

1956 & 1958 - These two slip a little lower

1965 thru '67 S.M.S. - Still edging higher

1970S - Sales noted at a lower $7.75

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

MOST BU ROLLS ARE EASILY LOCATED 1970-S Cent Varieties Register Increased Action

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

There is quite a bit of activity on the tapes which is centered around the varieties of 1970-S cents. The so-called "atheist cent" (a cud variety with "IN TRUST" missing) has received bids this week in the $11-$13 range—per coin! Rolls are also wanted—with bids recorded as high as $550. Several dealers are apparently of the opinion that the "atheist cent" is a major variety—not merely a "cud". Others obviously still consider the coin to be a minor variety which will, in future years, be consigned to the "oddities" category—and that it will not be included in either the Redbook or coin albums. Only time and public acceptance will tell—meanwhile, trading continues and prices are advancing.

Then we have the 1970-S "small date" cents. This variety has recently been illustrated in the "Numismatist" and—while not as easy to identify as the 1960 variety—trading is picking up and BU rolls are currently receiving bids in the $50-$80 range. Dealers are willing to sell in the $60-$90 range—according to the day and teletype circuit. Sales have been registered as high as $70-$80. Here is another instance in which time and the buying public will determine the future picture for the 1970-S "small date" cent.

Wait—we're not finished! There is also the 1970-S "small date" proof set! The sets which include a "small date" cent are currently bid at $20—with the ask ranging from $22 to $25. Trading is really light on all three of these varieties—many dealers only participate in selling—not wishing to be holding much of this material should interest suddenly subside. There was a period of time, it should be remembered, during which the 1960 small date cents were not accepted by all dealers and rolls were trading in the $40 range. Actually, "small dates", major varieties, or whatever—the industry could use the "shot in the arm" which would be provided by acceptance of these varieties.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Changes are minor again this week; \searrow \nearrow remain infrequent.

1936S & 1941D - Slight gains noted.
1939D - Transactions as low as $82.50
1947S - A few rolls are offered at $24

NICKELS: Wartime roll sets are available around $700; roll prices are mixed—several dates remain active.

1935D - Very scarce; bid now $255
1940D - Bid moves up to $27
1942P (t2) - Up slightly; several rolls are wanted at $150
1946S & 1949D - Both edge a little higher
1950D - Easy to locate at $355

DIMES: BU Roosevelt sets have traded this week at $43; roll prices are mixed.

1947S - Available at a lower $29
1948P - Also lower; offered at $66
1950D - Higher again this week; bid now $53
1952S - Several rolls are for sale at $68.50
1955P - Offered in quantity at $46
1955D - Choice rolls receive bids of $25 on one tape; available for less on the other QUARTERS: A few rolls dip lower; most rolls remain fairly easy to find.

1941D - This is a tough one at $175 bid
1946D - Available at a lower $75
1946S - Bid edges up to $98; offered at $102
1949P - Relatively scarce roll; available now at $250
1955D - Transactions registered as low as $95

HALVES: Minus signs pepper both the W.L. and Franklin charts; "bargain offerings" fail to entice buyers in most cases.

1943D & S - Both slip $5 lower
1949P - Offered this week at $320
1949S - Also lower; available now at $275
1951D - Usually rather elusive; offered at $245

1951S, 52S & 53S - All three edge lower
1955P - A sale or two around $115

DOLLARS: Here, too, it's mostly minus signs; the current supply of material is more than equal to the demand.

1878 (7/8t) - Choice rolls are offered at $215
1883O, 84O & 85O - Available in quantity at $49
1892CC - Scarce roll for sale at $900
1904P - Offered this week at $265
1925S - Offered this week at $235

PROOF SETS: Quantities of most dates after 1953 remain on the tapes; several dates edge lower and sales have been scattered.

1955 - A few sales recorded at $21
1957 - Available by the hundred at $5.75
1959 - Available by the hundred at $8
1964 - Still slipping—offered at $6
1968S, 69S & 70S - All are slightly lower

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

The Postal strike . . . and the Railroad strike . . . and the Rubbish collector strike . . . all form a part of the inflation economy we find ourselves in now. As I have pointed out many times before, inflation is to be a way of life. It has been for the past fifty years or more . . . and that covers a lifetime for many of us . . . at least our working lifetime. True, we have had different forms of inflation . . . some years the rate has been as low as 1% or 1-1/2% but mostly it has averaged around 3% over the years. Occasionally it has jumped much higher . . . and we have been in such a period lately.

Because we have an expanding population, an expanding economy . . . because we have stronger unions, because we have a stronger government . . . today . . . inflation could go along with this BIG movement . . . this revolution. It just may be that inflation is not going to follow the pattern of the past. There are too many demands . . . the people want EVERYTHING and they want it now. Discipline and patience are not popular words at this time! Too many social reforms are proposed and promised . . . too many parts of our population have their hands stretched out . . . and all are convinced that their yearning for more and more is justified . . . whether it is received by lawful change or unlawful change. When adults decide that their rights, their causes, are greater than the law . . . then the law is disregarded. The children are watching . . . and they too will be deciding which law they want to obey and which law they do not intend to obey!

We seem to be in a twilight zone . . . somewhere between the freedom of democracy and the iron discipline of a socialistic state. If the people go too far in their demands . . . no matter how needed they may seem . . . we could end up in a police state. No totalitarian socialistic state (such as those now behind the iron curtain) would ever allow the people to run undisciplined. Those people in the United States may be having their last fling at "freedom." But . . . all of this may not happen . . . we may stumble along with riots, crime, pollution, violence, strikes in the years ahead . . . and somehow come out of it all a better country with a form of socialist democracy that will please everyone. In the meantime, however, INFLATION is to be with us and the investor had better keep this in mind constantly.

It has been my guess for some time that the coin investor could be the ONLY investor that will come out of this long Inflation "March" with some handsome gains. It just could be that his yields will be the only ones that will step ahead of the coming inflation waves! It is a hard-money investment, it is the only investment left that actively works with gold and silver, it is an investment that has a platform of scarcity where the available supply dwindles yearly as the population and the economy grows. Of course the coin investor has to pick the coin issues that have small available supplies on hand . . . NOW. The CIC Poll is going to light some of these totals now. And more will be published in the future. Those issues with small available supplies NOW will certainly be exceedingly RARE five, ten or twenty years from now. Those issues that are in plentiful supply at this time will be able to satisfy the expanding demand in the years ahead. Gains with such material will be modest. It will be the rare material, where only a small supply is available for the future collectors, that will be exciting investments. These are the issues that will deliver unbelievable yields in the years ahead! Mintages mean nothing anymore. One must judge what the available supply of uncirculated material is . . . and whether it will be sufficient . . . or NOT sufficient . . . to satisfy the demands of the affluent collector five or ten years from now! If the supply is small . . . the yield will be HUGE!

Unless the hobby grows at a tremendous rate . . . the issues to study and consider would be in the older issues . . . this is the area to watch at this particular time! The CIC Poll is proving to us here at the Haylings' office that the older BU rolls are beautiful investments . . . in most cases. Some of these older date uncirculated rolls are still bargains. We are finding out that the mintage figures sometimes mean something . . . but in many instances some of the common issues are the rarer issues. Not always . . . the poll has been selective . . . but it is an interesting trend. Those having such information in the future will have a better chance of picking the RIGHT coin investment material!!

Latest figures on the amount of paper money in circulation works out to $52,508,000,000 . . . for this week. This compares with $52,311,000,000 for last week and $49,554,000,000 for the same week a year ago! An increase of $2,954,000,000 over last year. If you want to see how much more paper money has been issued, use these figures to get your percentage. You will find that it is roughly in the 6% area (I haven't worked it out this week) . . . and quite close to the price increase percentage that is now current. They seem to go hand in hand each week!

If we have to live with such inflation let's do it the safe way with choice numismatic material . . . material with small available supplies on hand!

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Buying lists for silver dollar rolls have increased in length during the past week or so—although the prices most dealers are offering are still slightly “below market levels”. The common date rolls seem to be of the most interest—the earlier “S” mints (1878-S thru 1882-S) and the later “O” mint rolls (1898-O thru 1904-O). Quite a number of Carson City rolls have recently been offered—several at slightly lower levels; prospective buyers have accordingly lowered their bids. Some dealers are breaking up these relatively scarce rolls and are offering BU singles at reasonable prices. A “choice” roll of 1893-CC’s is being sold as singles at the lowered price of $175 per coin. Another scarce roll—1901-S—was available this week at $800.

Most Peace Dollars are available as single coins—numerous dates, however, are very seldom offered by the roll. The problem with many of the “BU” singles being offered is that they all too often turn out to be less than choice—sometimes less than BU! Many teletype dealers are simply tired of ordering BU Peace Dollars and finding that they have to return part or all of the shipment to the seller. Usually—but not always—the selling price is the clue to quality. Very few dealers have to sell gem BU single Peace Dollars on the tape at “bid” or less. Choice singles are relatively easy “over the counter” sellers. The term “BU” is used far too loosely, of course—and encompasses everything from polished XF to actually frosty unirculated.

Very few BU rolls are difficult to find on selling lists. From cents thru halves dealers are listing nearly all dates at current prices. Only a scattered date fails to appear—a few nickels (40-S, 48-D); dimes (34-P, 38-P); quarters (41-D); halves (35-P, 36-P)—these are rather tough to locate.

The 1970-S cent varieties are still the subject of a fair amount of teletype activity. The “atheist” cent (with IN TRUST missing) is bid in the $16-$17 range this week; the “small date” rolls are bid around $65-$70; and the “small date” proof set is bid at $22.50.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Virtually unchanged; long selling lists continue to appear.

NICKELS: Numerous changes—in both directions; Jeffersons remain the “most active” series.

1938D & S - Both edge slightly lower
1939S - Available now at $330
1940S - Up again—with bids noted at $47.50
1946S - Sales at a slightly higher $24
1950D - Offered for sale now at $350

DIMES: The Mercuries are nearly unchanged and only an occasional transaction is noted; the Roosevelts are lightly mixed.

1938P - Elusive at a higher bid of $110
1948P - Still edging lower; now available at $62.50
1950D - This one is still moving higher; bid this week $55
1955P - Sales registered at a lower $44
1955D - Sales as high as $25 on one tape; sold at $23 on the other
1957D - Bid reaches $20

QUARTERS: A minimum of trading—although a considerable amount of “below market” bidding is being recorded.

1941D - Still difficult to locate; bid now $177.50
1947S & 1949P - These two edge slightly higher
1955D - Further sales at a low $95
1958P - Transactions recorded at $39

HALVES: Both the Walking Liberties and Franklins register addition “bargain offerings”; only widely scattered sales have been noted.

1935P & 1936P - Both are now bid at $120. Common date “P” mint W.L. rolls are offered as low as $77.50
1946D - Several choice rolls are available at $160
1949D - Offered this week at $265
1950D - Offered this week at $137.50
1955P - Transactions at a higher $118

DOLLARS: Gains and losses are about evenly divided this week; trading volume is still rather light.

1880S, 81S & 82S - All three register mild demand
1885S - Bid moves back up to $200
1890CC & 91CC - Both are offered at lower levels.
1898O - Sales noted at a lower $63
1899P - Still slipping—available at $330
1904O - Offered by the bag at $3050
1926D - An elusive roll; bid now $195

PROOF SETS: The “special mint sets” have perhaps recorded the most activity—at least, on one teletype circuit; most other dates are readily available—in quantity.

1936 & 1937 - Beginning to inch forward again
1961, 62 & 63 - These three also record small gains
1965 - Sales as high as $3
1966 - Sales as high as $3.10
1970S - Bid drops to around $7.25

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem unirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

ONLY A FEW ROLLS ARE ELUSIVE Most Dates are Easily Located Within Current Price Ranges

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Roll trading remains sporadic and unpatterned—with sellers willing to part with all but a few dates. Those few dates, obviously, are ones which are appearing on dealer "want lists". Among the most elusive rolls this week are still the 40-S and 48-D Jefferson rolls; the 50-D and 57-D dimes and the 1941-D and 1941-S quarters. Other than these—and perhaps a few more scattered fairly difficult dates—BU rolls remain on the market and easily obtainable within current levels.

Interest seems to be on the increase for quantities of GOOD and better type coins. Several dealers are in the market for twenty-five to one hundred each of half-cents, large cents, two-cent and three-cent pieces, shield nickels, half dimes, etc. Indian Head cents are wanted by the bag at a higher $9.75 a roll and Liberty nickels are now hard to locate at $6.75 per roll. Although the Barber coins are fairly easy to find by the roll, strictly-GOOD and better rolls are fairly tough—most of the rolls offered are basically AG coins (or "average circulated").

Along the lines of "type coins", a leading investment advisory publication has just pointed out the potential in BU rolls of common date twentieth century type coins. This includes recommendation of the purchase of Buffalo nickels, Mercury dimes and Walking Liberty halves—as well as accumulation of Standing Liberty quarters and, capital permitting, the Barber coins. To this list might be added common date Indian Head cents in BU condition. On widely scattered occasions, a full original roll of Indians is offered on one of the Teletype circuits. However, as with the Standing Liberty quarters, Indian Head cents will most likely have to be accumulated in lots of five or ten pieces.

The latest report on 1970-S cent varieties includes bids as high as $25 per single BU "atheist" cent; sales in the $70 area on the "small date" cent rolls and bids on the "small date proof set" in the $25-$27.50 range. There is even more controversy over the merits of 1970-S small dates in general—it will take a while yet to determine whether this will be an accepted variety or a minor error.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Scattered dealers are attempting to buy gem rolls at or just below bid; sales volume remains extremely light.

NICKELS: Several more price advances this week; BU sets, however, are still available at around $92.

1940D - Up $2; bid now $29
1941S - Also up—with bids noted at $27
1942P (I) - Transactions at a higher $33
1948D - Another sharp advance; bid now $45
1951D - Offered this week at a slightly lower $35

DIMES: More gains than losses this week for the Roosevelts.

1948S - Again slightly higher—with bids registered at $37.50
1950D - Very tough to locate at the moment—bid up to $60
1950S - Up $5; bid is now $235
1955D - Sales noted this week at $24
1955S - Sales noted this week at $17
1957D - Upward trend continues; sales as high as $21

QUARTERS: Several changes—all on the higher side; those same few dates remain elusive.

1935P & 36P - Both rolls are now bid at $170
1941D - Quite scarce—bid reaches $180
1941S - Up a substantial $10; difficult to find at $190 bid
1946S - Transactions recorded at $98
1955D - Still available as low as $96

HALVES: Common date "P" mint Walking Liberty rolls are still available in quantity as low as $77.50; the Franklins are nearly unchanged in very light trading—with single BU sets easily located at $145.

1944D - Always quite elusive; bid now $118
1945D & S - These two edge lower again this week
1946D - Also still slipping—choice rolls can be purchased for $155
1950D - Offered at a lower $135
1955P - Sales at a slightly higher $118

DOLLARS: Scattered plus signs—although most of the relatively active bidding is still at or below current bid levels. Numerous Carson City rolls remain on the market.

1890P - Up this week with bids at $72.50
1899P - Bids noted at a higher $320
1904O - Transactions registered at $61.50

PROOF SETS: Very light volume; an occasional buyer wants one hundred each of several dates—but he is willing to bid low and wait for results. The "S" mint sets are very slightly lower—each recording sales at "bid plus postage".

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

CANADIAN: A little bidding is being registered for the low priced sets, sales, however, are few and far between. Prices are on Page Two.

The bid for common silver leveled at week's end around 34%-35%.
Canadian silver is bid at $1085-$1095 per bag.
Warnickels are bid in the $3.90-$4.00 range.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

We are living in a time of inflation . . . but an interesting time, to say the least! The Republic of Guinea, for instance claims to have the honor of issuing the first legal tender coin in the world honoring the historic moon flight. Because of the publicity that inflation is getting Japan is now studying the possibility of taking some zeros off its currency . . . along the lines taken by France when it introduced a new franc that was equal to 100 old francs. It is stressed that such action isn't connected in any way with a revaluation or devaluation of the currency. Currently 360 yen are equivalent to one U.S. dollar, which Japanese officials think doesn't look as good, for example, as four Deutsche marks to the U.S. dollar. Yes, these are crazy times. Recently the noted psychic, Kenny Kingston, stated that the war in Vietnam will be over in June. He also claims that the stock market will have a sharp rise April 12th. Speaking of inflation, the latest official report from Chile says that the cost of living has gone up about 5,000 per cent in the last 19 years. Compares to about 55% here in the United States during the same 19 year period.

I do believe that peace talks and rumors have seemed brighter of late. There is a surprising air of assurance among the U.S. and South Vietnamese peace negotiators despite the long stalemate in the talks. Some believe that we are now seeing the last acts in the Vietnamese theater of war. By July North Vietnam may be forced to make a choice . . . either real negotiations to preserve what influence they still have in South Vietnam, or simply to pull out their forces quietly. They could do this in a way that would save face simply by leaving their Viet Cong allies to fight a guerrilla war that would probably fade away in a year or two. Something like this has happened in Maylayasia.

If the war is to come to a close the stock market and the coin market would naturally boom to all time highs. The Dow averages would race up to 1000 and beyond. Coin prices could hit the 1964 highs again and even higher. The first Eisenhower Dollar, which may be out on the 80th anniversary of the birth of the late former president . . . or October 14th of this year . . . could bring about the coin boom too!!

With plans to bring out three different Eisenhower dollar coins, the excitement should spread to the whole silver dollar series and the rest of the coin world too!! With a copper clad dollar piece, a proof dollar piece and a special uncirculated 40% silver dollar piece . . . to be available . . . the reaction by the coin world and the public should be tremendous. The 1960 small date days and the Kennedy half dollar days-all over again!!

In the meantime inflation is still the topic of conversation and something every coin investor has to consider. Some believe that the largest single cause of inflation could be the spending by the government and the use of un-backed printing press money. Perhaps we should have expected inflation when our gold-backed currency and our silver backed currency . . . and our silver coins . . . were eliminated. We in the coin industry saw all of this taking place before the public. We were in at the start of these changes and perhaps actually were a first witness to a different form of inflation. Who would have thought . . . some years back . . . that coin collectors someday would be the only people with gold or silver coins. How precious and choice these gold sets and silver sets will be in the next ten years!!

Doctors continue to be active in the coin investing field. Most of the doctors believe in coin investing and many predict a significant upsurge in coin collection investment. These are the kind of investors who have patience and are willing to stay with a coin investment for five or ten years. Doctors who invested in rare coins in 1950, some twenty years ago, even as small an amount as $1,000, would have amounted to as much as $200,000 to $250,000 today . . . even though we have come through a coin slump for several years. Choice material would have had to have been purchased and stored properly, highly speculative material would have had to have been avoided . . . but the buying decision wouldn't have been too difficult back in 1950. Almost every rare issue at that time was being offered at nice low investment prices!! Who can say that the new crop of investors coming into the field today will not have the same chance to profit greatly during the coming twenty years!

JEFFERSON NICKELS SPARK MARKET ACTIVITY

Investment Recommendations are Worthwhile; Prices Advance

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

It is interesting to follow the progress of a particular roll after it has been recommended as an investment by one of the two or three leading investment advisory services. The effect seems to be more in proportion to the faith of the investing public in the particular "advisor" than in the actual scarcity of the recommended material. Within the last year, more than one publication had noted that Jefferson nickels had "bottomed out" and that several rolls in particular were excellent buys—very little if anything happened as a result. Recently, however, two of the most respected publications which deal in this sort of research have pinpointed some of the very same Jefferson rolls—and the results are probably already familiar to you.

First came the 1951-D roll—which dealers were frantically trying to give away in the $19-$20 range. This one reached $35 before it even took a breather. The 1940-S (which was available around $27) is still going strong at $50—and the 1948-D has done even better in its move from $23-$24 to the $50 range. Now, of course, these three rolls are relatively scarce when one views the Jefferson series as a whole. But most dealers and a good percentage of investors already knew that—experiences during the 1963-64 peak market had shown which rolls were the most difficult to track down. It seems that it takes a recommendation from the right source. By the way, there are certainly a number of other Jefferson rolls which are at least equal in scarcity to these three dates—and normal demand has done nothing to advance the price. In other words, the investing public wants to be told exactly what to buy and when. It is also interesting to note that there are many investors who won't even consider buying until a roll has already made a move. In other words, the 48-D roll now looks better at $48 than it did even at $30.

The same level of demand which has recently been shown for the 51-D, 48-D and 40-S rolls would quickly double the price on, say, the 50-P, 49-D or 49-S rolls. In fact, the 49-S and, in particular, the 50-P, are both far more scarce than the $350 roll of 50-D's. A quick look at the price levels reached in 1964 by these two rolls will show them to be considerably more difficult to locate in quantity than any of the three rolls which have recently been recommended.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Quite a number of minor adjustments this week—all on the minus side. Scattered "below market" bidding continues; sales remain very light.

NICKELS: Jeffersons remain one of the more active areas of the market; bidders are still having a difficult time locating those elusive dates.

1940S - Still advancing—with sales at $50
1942P (T1) - Also up; bid now $34
1942S - Offered this week at a lower $92.50
1948D - Bids—and sales—as high as $50
1950P - A bargain at $50 ask
1951D - Slightly lower—with transactions at $33.50

DIMES: A few dates in the Roosevelt series are also relatively active—but most rolls are easily available within current bid-ask ranges.

1950D - Still "hot"—with sales noted at $64
1950S - Up $5; bid this week at $240
1955D - Transactions at a slightly higher $24
1955S - Offered at a lower $17.50

QUARTERS: A number of the earlier dates (35-P, 36-P, 37-PD, 39-PD, 41-PDS) remain on "want lists" at current bid levels—all are difficult to pry loose; most of the later dates are regularly offered.

1954S - Up $2—with bids registered at $29
1955D - Moving back up; sales as high as $98

HALVES: Relatively few changes (most of which are lower); trading volume is light. Choice BU Franklin sets have recorded sales at $140.

1946D - Still lower; traded at $145
1948P - Offered this week at $125
1949S - Offered this week at $265
1955P - Transactions at a higher $120

DOLLARS: Prices are mixed; most dates are available—with only a few rolls proving to be elusive at the moment.

1878S - In demand in quantity at $65
1890P - Also higher—bid now $75
1891P - Offered this week at $160
1901S - Scarce roll; available at $785
1935P - Up this week—with bids at $205

PROOF SETS: All changes are minor; virtually all dates after 1953 are available in one hundred set lots. The 1970-S set has registered sales around $7.30.

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

CANADIAN: Prices are on Page Five this week; activity is at a near standstill.

The bid for common silver leveled at week's end around 33½%-34½%.
Canadian silver is bid at $1075-$1080 per bag.
Warnickels are bid in the $3.80-$3.85 range.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

A WORD ABOUT QUALITY

During the past several months I have been fortunate in building up my list of satisfied customers. This is due, I believe, to the fact that I try my best to grade accurately and deliver merchandise that is properly described. I thank those who have gained confidence in my service and invite the rest of you to try an order or two. Since I can rarely locate choice material below "bid", I obviously cannot sell gem coins at ridiculously low prices. As most of you know, you get what you pay for. In the long run, of course, most "bargains" turn out to be a headache—especially when you try to sell them!

CIRCULATED MERCURY DIME SETS—in albums (missing 16-D, 21-P, 21-D and 42/41) nice collectable AG/G to F/VF—no culls or illegible coins—an excellent investment or store stock

BU ROLL MARKET BASICALLY STEADY 1970-S "Atheist" Cents are Moving Up Sharply

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Regular bidding is now recorded for the 1970-S "Atheist" cents—ending the week in the $46-$50 range. Sales were noted during the week as high as $52.50—and the "ask" listed by those few dealers who have them for sale runs upward to $75 per coin. Actually, at these current price levels, there is more interest in this "variety" on the tapes than there was when it was selling in the $7 area. The 1970-S "small date" cent, on the other hand, is receiving less attention—BU rolls were offered at mid-week as low as $40 in lots of ten rolls. The "official" mint explanation on the origin of the "small" and "large" date 1970-S cents seems to have cooled off at least part of recent enthusiasm. A mint spokesman explained that the significant lowering of the top of the 7 in the large date was a result of a "sharpening of the master die" and that the two "varieties" did not result from the mint having used two different master dies.

Aside from continued interest in a few Jefferson and Roosevelt rolls, the BU roll market remains largely unchanged. Both the 1940-S and 1948-D nickel rolls seem to have taken a breather at $50 bid—the 40-D, 42-P (1), 46-D, 47-D and 59-P rolls are enjoying increased demand. Any or all of these dates could advance significantly with a sustained demand. The 1950-D dime roll is still in the driver's seat as far as Roosevelts are concerned—with bids topping the $70 level. Only a few weeks back this roll was easy to locate in the $47.50-$50 range.

Nearly all proof sets—particularly those dates after 1953—are still available in relatively large lots. For those dealers or investors who are willing to pay the shipping charges, it is no trick to locate one or two hundred set lots of virtually any of these dates at "bid". Smaller quantities and "guaranteed spot-free" sets are usually offered at "ask". It appears that "phone" sales are not infrequent—with the actual transaction price not hitting the teletype circuits.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Light and scattered bidding remains the rule; sales are infrequent. The 1960-P small date roll was traded this week at $125; the 1970-S "small date" roll seems less interesting at a lower $40-$50 ask.

NICKELS: Plus signs again dominate the Jefferson chart; trading volume is relatively light as most of the "wanted" issues remain in hiding.

1939S - Choice rolls available at $325

1940D - Still edging higher; bid $29

1940S - A sale or two around $51-$52

1942P - Up another dollar—with bids at $35

1946D & 1951P - Both edge slightly higher

DIMES: BU roll sets are offered around $2050—with single BU sets available at $42.

1950D - Still on "want lists"—now at bid $71

1950S - Up $5; bids at $245

1952S - Offered this week at a lower $65

1957D - Up another notch; bid $22.50

QUARTERS: BU single sets ('41 - '64) are easily located at $95; roll activity is minimal—with those same few dates in demand "at bid".

1941D - Very elusive—bid up to $182.50

1946S - Also up—with bids noted at $102.50

HALVES: BU Franklin sets have registered transactions at $140, roll prices are nearly unchanged.

1948D - Sales at a lower $62.50

1949P - Gem rolls are offered at $315

1950D - Up slightly—with bids at $132.50

1956P - Mild interest at the current bid of $47.50

DOLLARS: Relatively few change this week; a number of scarce dates remain on the market—especially Carson City rolls.

1890O - Bid at $125; none offered

1899P - Also up—with bids at $330

1904O - Up slightly; bid now $62

1926P - Seldom offered; bid at a higher $152.50

PROOF SETS: The supply continues to exceed the demand; sales are light and scattered.

1952 & 1953 - These two edge a little higher

1970S - Sales noted around $7.25

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

The stock market hasn't been much of a haven for investors lately. The inflation hedge that they have been looking for hasn't turned up in the stock market, that's for sure! At a time when these people needed the stock market it has failed them. Where can one hedge against inflation?

Land might be the answer but of course rising taxes are making this investment an uncertain one if the holding period is a long one. Land, rare coins, antiques, paintings . . . perhaps these are the best hedges against the kind of inflation we have been experiencing. Silver, gold, diamonds, platinum might hold up well over the long pull.

The investor in coins in the future will rely more on the "available" supply than he will on the mintage total. There will be changes. Poll results are revealing which coins are being held in abundant amounts and which have small available supplies on hand. We have never had such figures before and all of this will change our way of thinking. Low mintages from here on may not necessarily mean that a coin is scarce. Then too we have been melting off our beautiful silver coins by the ton . . . month after month, years after year. No longer can we find a silver coins in our pocket change. This means that mintages for the silver coins will not be reliable anymore. There will have to be adjustments here but this will be mostly in the circulated coin area. However, strange as it may seem, quite a few uncirculated silver coins have been melted down . . . or about uncirculated issues . . . and some of these might have passed for uncirculated if they were still around today. No doubt about it there are new blue chip rolls and coins around that will be soon discovered. Many of the common issues, with large mint runs, may turn out to be new key issues . . . with small available supplies on hand to serve the collectors of the future!

The Eisenhower dollar boom, that is probably ahead of us, may be the spark that sets us off on another up-cycle. In addition to the reaction the older silver dollars are going to feel when this happens, the rest of the coin world is going to awaken too. A fair number of the good issues will make a comeback. There will be new key rolls that will spring ahead. Some will surpass previous highs. Some of the cats and dogs that were over-sSpeculated-in during the last boom may not come back. However, those rolls and those uncirculated singles, that are available in short supply, are the ones to watch in the next boom. In a general coin boom probably everything, good and bad, will take part to some extent. But . . . it will be the newly discovered issues with small available supplies and some of the silver issues, where melting was heavy, that will be "off and running."

It might be interesting to watch the Peace Dollars. This series will be the bridge between the older silver dollars and the new Eisenhower dollar series. It could be that there will be more appreciation here because of its closeness to the "Ike" series. Peace dollars have an excellent history of price gains. The series is a short one and not too hard to collect.

While the silver dollars are to be in the news during the next couple of years . . . you can't dig up a series, dead for 35 years, and expect numismatists to take it calmly . . . nevertheless . . . don't stop thinking about some of the other coin series. The Jefferson nickel series, for instance. There are still more people involved and interested in this series than there are in the silver dollar series. If the "Eisenhower boom" does result from the issuance of the special collector coins and because it is the rebirth of a dead series . . . don't be surprised if the Jefferson nickel series does catch on fire again! Proof sets are another investment area that could come alive because of the Eisenhower proof dollar!

Buying into an investment market has to be done sooner or later. If you think you have seen the worst it probably would be prudent to start buying in the really strong issues, particularly the silver dollars and the proof sets, perhaps the Jefferson nickel rolls. In buying rolls of silver dollars, for instance, you are buying into some really strong issues. They have built a substantial base and I would say that they offer some protection even if your judgement on the coin market is in error . . . for this particular time. Investing in the finer, rarer gold pieces could also be a strong area, particularly if a boom is approaching.

A WORD ABOUT QUALITY

During the past several months I have been fortunate in building up my list of satisfied customers. This is due, I believe, to the fact that I try my best to grade accurately and deliver merchandise that is properly described. I thank those who have gained confidence in my service and invite the rest of you to try an order or two. Since I can rarely locate choice material below "bid", I obviously cannot sell gem coins at ridiculously low prices. As most of you know, you get what you pay for. In the long run, of course, most "bargains" turn out to be a headache—especially when you try to sell them!

CIRCULATED MERCURY DIME SETS—in albums (missing 16-D, 21-P, 21-D and 42/41) nice collectable AG/G to F/VF—no culls or illegible coins—an excellent investment or store stock—$25.00 per set—delivered

BARGAIN OFFERINGS ATTRACT BUYERS "Atheist" Cents Continue Upward Swing with Bids at $60

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

"Bargain offerings" have been relatively frequent in recent weeks—and have accounted for a good percentage of recorded transactions. It is apparent that many dealers and investors are of the opinion that a majority of BU rolls are currently at—or very near—"bottom". Those rolls which are offered at substantial savings from current levels are beginning to sell fairly quickly—sometimes within minutes. This, of course, is especially true for the more "popular" dates.

And bidding is noticeably on the increase in many areas. This increase, of course, is partially indicated on our charts by plus signs—when the buyer becomes slightly impatient and raises his bid. However, at this point, much bidding is still within current recorded levels and no price change has occurred—although the amount of actual bidding has increased considerably. The 1947-D nickel roll, for example, seems particularly difficult to locate at the current bid of $18.50—frequent requests for this roll now go unanswered. It seems fairly certain that the dealers and investors who want a quantity of 47-D's are going to have to offer more for them in the next few weeks. This is not an isolated instance—there are numerous dates across the various series which are currently receiving a similar amount of buyer attention. The 1941-D quarter roll started to appear on "want lists" several weeks ago around $150—practically none were enticed out of hiding. Bidders become impatient and the bid is now $190 (with a continuing scarcity, as a matter of fact).

Although "small date" 1970-S cents and proof sets are being mentioned less and less on the tapes, the "atheist" cent is still zooming upward—with bids (and a few sales) as high as $60 per coin. The fact that sales are few and far between is due either to actual scarcity or to the fact that the few dealers who have some of these coins are not yet willing to part with them. Anyway, the "atheist" cent is still on its way!

This Week's Market

CENTS: Several small price changes—in both directions; dealer "want lists" seem to have increased in length although trading volume remains very light.

1939D & 1942S - These two move up slightly; bid now $83.50

1941S - Rather difficult to locate this week at $33 bid

1947S - Sales recorded in the $16 area

NICKELS: The Jeffersons are the most active rolls again this week; gains continue to outnumber losses.

1940D & 1942P (1) - These two edge slightly higher

1946D & 1947D - Both are bid for in quantity in the $18 range

1948D - Up again—with few if any sales at the higher bid of $55

1950P - Transactions noted at $49

1951D - Offered this week at a lower $32

DIMES: Here, too, we have more plus than minus signs; sales, however, are moderate at best. Circulated roll sets are available at $375.

1950D - Upswing continues; bid now $74

1950S - Also moving up—with bids at $247.50

1952S - Several choice rolls are offered at $62.50

1953S - Increased interest at $17.50 bid

1957D - Up again—with bids at $23.50

QUARTERS: A few more gains—with a several of the more scarce rolls in continued demand.

1935P & 1936P - Both are bid at a higher $175

1941D - Bid reaches $190; virtually none are available

1946S - A sale or two at a higher $105

1947S - Surprisingly, this one is down—offered at $92.50

1958P - Transactions at the $40 level

HALVES: Walking Liberty rolls are quiet; a few small losses have been registered by the Franklins.

1950D - Available now at $135

1951D - Down slightly—ask is now $240

1953P - Also lower; choice rolls are offered at $142.50

1955P - Scattered sales around $120

DOLLARS: Many of the lower priced issues have recorded minor price adjustments; bidding is active for both circ and "common date" BU bags.

1880O - Available at a lower $85

1882CC - Up slightly—with bids at $500

1898O & 1904O - Both register mild demand at $61

1901P - Tough roll—now bid at $1150

PROOF SETS: The 1970-S set is lower—with sales noted at $7; the rest of the line-up has recorded only slight changes and very light trading.

ROLL PRICES MIXED; TRADING MODERATE

Rolls with Big Potential Await Astute Investors

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Although the BU roll market is far from booming, it is interesting to note just how little actual bidding it takes to advance the price of any fairly elusive date. Once the small "floating supply" is purchased, dealers begin to edge their bids higher and, in many cases, any further quantity of rolls is quite difficult to locate. Apparently those frequent "selling lists"—which often include virtually all dates of a series—contain only small quantities of the more scarce material. The fact is that, in most instances, this small number of rolls has remained for sale week after week. When even minimal buying starts the supply is quickly exhausted.

Recent examples in the Jefferson series have been extensive—1940-S, 1948-D and 1951-D being the most dramatic. The 1957-D Roosevelt roll had dipped to $12—recent buying efforts by only two or three dealers have registered sales as high as $25 this week; the 1950-D dime roll has moved from the $50 level to this week's bid of $77.50 with relatively few rolls changing hands. Even in the Lincolns it seems that only a small amount of bidding exhausts the supply of some issues: the 1941-S roll has moved up quickly with sales at $36 and the 1947-S roll is up $4 this week—choice rolls are suddenly elusive again.

The trick is, of course, to pinpoint exactly which dates have the potential for quick and substantial gains and to quietly accumulate some rolls before the advances occur. Actually, it is easier to pick out the dates than it is to find any quantity for sale—and the quiet accumulation is also something of a problem. The "1965 Coin Investors Manual" graphs the peak market activity of 1964 and gives the highest bids recorded for each BU roll—cents thru dollars. Percentage comparisons with today's prices often give an idea of scarcity in relation to price. There are good buys on the current market—many of them. Just ask the investor who bought the 1951-D nickel rolls early this year at $19—or the 1948-D nickel rolls at $23—or the 1957-D dime rolls at $12.

A last minute check on the "atheist" cent shows bids and sales in the $62.50-$65 range. The 1970-S "small dates", however, are now rarely mentioned on the tapes.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Scattered dates record mild demand; most prices are steady at current levels.

1941S - Still tough—now bid at $35

1943S - Sales noted at a higher $22

1947S - Back on "want lists" on one tape; bid again at $20

NICKELS: Buffalo rolls are virtually untraded—prices are firm; Jeffersons remain fairly active with several dates still in demand.

1942S - Offered this week at a lower $90

1943D - Also lower; choice rolls are available at $95

1949P & D - Both edge higher—rather elusive at current levels

1951D - Back up to a bid of $32

1951S - Offered this week at a lower $80

1955P - Up again—with bids registered at $35

DIMES: The Mercury rolls are unchanged with a few dates on "want lists" in the bid-ask range; Roosevelt rolls are lightly mixed.

1940S - Difficult to locate at $80 bid

1946P - Bid at $12.50 on one tape; offered at $11.50 on the other

1946S - Offered this week at a lower $32

1950D - Up again—with bids at $77.50

1950S - Also up; choice rolls are now receiving bids of $250

QUARTERS: Several of the late date rolls are offered at lower prices; most of the early dates are unchanged—with scattered issues enjoying mild attention.

1939P - Not easy to find; bid again at $110

1942D & 1943D - Both are wanted at $85

1948D - Offered at a lower $65

1955D - Transactions recorded at $97.50

1958P - Sales at a slightly higher $40

HALVES: Quite a number of minor price changes; BU Walking Liberty "short sets" have traded at $149.50 and BU Franklin sets have registered sales at $139.50.

1945S - Offered at a lower $95

1947P - Also lower; available at $180

1950D - Up—with bids noted at $140

1951D - Offered this week at $235

1953P - Choice rolls receive bids at a higher $145

1955P - Transactions noted around $120

DOLLARS: Numerous small changes—about evenly divided between gains and losses.

1878CC - Up $10; with bids at $210

1885S - Also bid at a higher $210—few offered

1890O - Another substantial jump; bid reaches $150

1891O - Offered this week at a lower $205

1903O - Several rolls are available at $525

PROOF SETS: Very minor changes—and rather light trading; the "S" mint sets are plentiful at slightly lower levels.

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

Money in circulation this past week amounted to $52,817,000,000 . . . down from the previous week's total of $52,945,000,000. That is an encouraging sign if this trend will continue. Economists, nevertheless, seem to be coming around to the belief that, while inflation may be reduced somewhat, the inflationary advance is to be with us for some time to come. In other words . . . pressure may be eased a bit during the last half of this year . . . but not as much as we had hoped for. I have been reading some interesting reports to the effect that CREDIT CARDS may be behind the new kind of stubborn inflation we are now dealing with! Quite some time ago I mentioned this possibility in my column . . . and now it seems that others are thinking along the same lines! And it just could be that these cards have taken over the nation's economy. A few years ago I wouldn't have believed that anything like that could possibly happen . . . but today . . . I am not too sure. These cards have crept into the daily lives of almost everyone in the U.S.A. The cards appear to be an excellent stimulating factor and could be keeping the boom in force . . . offering the average man a thousand dollars in additional CREDIT is perhaps coaxing him into buying things he would never have purchased otherwise! And that is one way to create a heavy demand and one way to bring about rising prices and inflation.

Lately a law has been passed that prohibits the mailing of these cards . . . unsolicited. This is probably an attempt by the government to bring some control to the credit card area . . . but I am afraid it is too late to do anything else. No doubt the very existence of such a law proves that there is some concern about all of this additional credit! Yes, credit cards are here to stay and they will certainly have some bearing on the kind of booms and the kind of inflation we have in the coming years.

In other words . . . don't count on deflation! If you want to win the inflation battle you will have to become an investor, it seems. There is no other way to stay ahead. Bank interest is controlled and isn't quite keeping up with the inflation rate. One has to invest in something and hope that it will deliver a yield of sufficient strength to not only cover the loss of purchasing power . . . but also the rising State Income Taxes, Property Taxes, Sales Taxes and Federal Income Taxes . . . to say nothing about the rising Social Security Taxes and other miscellaneous taxes that are constantly being created!

Hedging against inflation is the answer. The investment that you pick is going to have to be one that will stand up well in times of heavy inflation. Excellent hedges are in the "hard" areas . . . such as paintings, antiques, land, precious metals, diamonds, rare coins, gold, silver . . . objects where the demand exceeds the supply.

There are many kinds of coin investing available to the investor. Perhaps the silver dollars and the proof sets offer the most potential at this particular time because of the coming of the Eisenhower dollar. Investing in currency is something that the average coin investor has overlooked. The token field offers excellent opportunities to the smart investor. Fractional currency, trade dollars, encased stamps are other parts of the numismatic world that should be studied for possible investment yield!

The gold coin series, which contains over 900 different dates and varieties, is a type of "hedge" that many will turn to. Gold coins over the past 50 years have delivered unbelievable yields. One could have purchased one of each of the 900 types and received a handsome yield from every one! It has been an investment over the years where the element of "selection" has not been an absolute necessity! Yearly units of gain for most gold coins, particularly the nice material, has averaged over 20% yearly for the past 35 years! This is an interesting series in that it represents approximately ONE THIRD OF ALL COINS ISSUED BY THE UNITED STATES UP TO 1935. There are some 2700 various dates and varieties among our early United States coins.

investment advisory publication? A mathematical model has been developed for use in analysis of price structures within coin series. Based on an index of numismatic value, each coin is evaluated in terms of HOW MUCH it is over- or under-priced in relation to the rest of the coins in that series.
Reports resulting from this new, modern approach yield information you shouldn't be without. Published bimonthly.

MARKET MODERATE AND DIVIDED Wartime Nickels at Interesting Price Levels For Investors

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Wartime nickels have leveled off in recent weeks at what should be considered an interesting price range by investors. For several weeks now the "ask" for BU roll sets has remained firm in the $700 area—with rather frequent bids recorded at around $675-$685. Actually, bids at anything less than $685 have been thoroughly ignored—and picking up a choice BU roll set at less than $700 is not an easy accomplishment.

Except for minor week to week fluctuations, the individual BU rolls have remained steady in recent weeks and the occasional "bargain offering" sells quickly. A few weeks back, a small hoard of 1942-P (11) rolls came on the market and the price dipped to the current $150-$155. This is not an easy roll to locate in general and the present ask price is rather attractive—a little bidding would see the bid price quickly reach $200 again. There are, of course, other good buys in this eleven roll "short set"—in fact, all issues, including the two "common dates" (1943-S & 1945-S) offer good potential for the medium to long term investor. There is no need to point out what happens when just a few dealers or investors start to accumulate such dates as 1942-S, 1943-D, 1944-D & S, 1945-P & D.

Just for fun, let's compare current bid prices with the "highs" reached in 1964. This is not to infer that each of these rolls is again on its way to these levels—but the percentage figures may give the investor an inkling of which rolls prove the most elusive when the buying starts. By looking at these percentages, the 42-P (11) roll, as mentioned, looks particularly attractive—along with the 44-P.

	1964 BID	Current Bid	% of 1964 Price
1942-P (11)	$400	$150	38%
1942-S	$175	$ 87	50%
1943-P	$ 75	$ 31	41%
1943-D	$175	$ 92	53%
1943-S	$ 56	$ 30	54%
1944-P	$110	$ 42	38%
1944-D	$ 85	$ 67	79%
1944-S	$145	$ 67	46%
1945-P	$142	$ 76	53%
1945-D	$ 65	$ 39	60%
1945-S	$ 48	$ 30	63%

This Week's Market

CENTS: Activity centered mostly on the 1970-S's. At present the "athesist" is bid at $69.00 and offered at $70.00, with sales having been made at $70. The 1970S "small date" BU roll is in the bid-ask range of $30.00 to $40.00. What might be considered at this junction is whether the risks outweigh the potentials.

NICKELS: Buffalos pretty much untraded; Jeffersons now with more minuses than pluses.

Wartime BU roll set - Bid up $5.00 to $690.00

1943D - Choice roll offered at $90.00

1948D - Backs away from recent gains; down $3.00

1959P - Offered on one tape at $4.10-$4.15 plus postage; bid at $4.85 on the other

DIMES: Mercuries more or less quiet and unchanged; Roosevelts mixed in fair to moderate activity.

1946P - Up $1.25 under mild bidding

1949S - Sale transacted at $465.00

1950D - Up $5.00; mild bidding by one dealer

1955P - Down; previous bid now the ask

QUARTERS: Sell lists considerably larger than buy with numerous dates down.

1941P, 43P, 43D - The exceptions; bids up $1.00 to $1.50

1955D - Neither down nor up; sales at $97.50

HALVES: Two to seven in the plus-minus score in fair to moderate activity.

1946D - Offered at a lower $145.00

1948D - Some demand; bid up $1.50

1965P - Rolls around at lower ask of $15.00

1970D - (Are they out?) 5 to 10 rolls wanted at $15.75

DOLLARS: Demand moderate; ten issues recorded up, zero down.

1878S - A good year this week; three of the issues up

1882CC - Roll sought with bid $15.00 higher

1883O - Up 50c; wanted both by the roll and the bag

1883S - Bid raised $25.00 trying to find a roll

1925P - Up $3.00 to the 1924-P level

PROOF SETS: Most later dates from '55 on around in quantity at lower asks. Earlier sets are generally quite but firm.

1941 - A choice set changed hands at $88.00

1963 - Hundred set lot traded at $370.00

1964, 69S, 70S - Plentiful supplies weight down prices

1937-S	42.50	45.00	1939-S	21.00	22.50

COMMEMORATIVES: Activity scattered with price changes an even two up and two down; see Page Two. Of possible interest, though not totally related, bids were noticed at $120.00 for the Wilson silver dollar, at $16.50 for the Norse thin, and $11.00 for the Norse thick.

CANADIAN: Large supplies still overhang. 400 1964's are offered at $2.30 and 500 1965's at $2.18, each plus shipping. The 1966 set is down as shown on Page Five.

The bid for common silver this week approximately 25% to 29%.
Wartime Nickels are bid at approximately $3.50.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

COINS RESIST STOCK'S PLUNGE Investor and Collector Demand Increases for Barber Coinage

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Demand has increased noticeably in recent months for the Barber coins—dimes thru halves—BU and circulated. Obtaining choice BU specimens is, of course, the greatest problem. Most of the individual offerings which list BU Barber coins seem to be optimistic at best—a very large percentage of these “gems” turn out to be far less than choice. Actually, there is little need for a dealer to sell choice BU Barber coins at “wholesale” teletype prices—virtually all dealers have customers ready and waiting for gems to include in their type sets.

Although the dimes are the most plentiful, recent checks have indicated that gems are still relatively few and far between. Most of the “BU” Barber dimes seem to have been cleaned at least once a year for the last ten. Bids for choice pieces are recorded in the $15-$16 range—most of the really nice specimens offered are currently priced at $20 or more. Circulated rolls of “GOOD and better” dimes are now easy sellers at around $16—they have a potential of at least $25.

Choice Barber quarters are usually bid in the $30-$32 range—most are offered for sale at $35 or more. Again, the problem is in finding really nice pieces. “Sliders” seem to be around in relatively plentiful supply—these are mostly coins which have seen no actual circulation but, again have been repeatedly cleaned—and usually not by experts. Circulated rolls of Barber quarters in “GOOD and better”—which should mean full obverse and reverse rims—currently bring $22.50-$25—with an upside potential of $40 or more.

The gem BU Barber half is by far the most elusive—proofs are easier to locate. Here the problem is twofold—the proofs (priced in the $135 area) are more often hairlined than perfect—and the BU gem is just plain scarce. At recent coin shows, real “gems” have been priced right up there with the “average” proof. At a convention, a flawless 1895-P recently sold for $150 to a “fussy customer” who wanted a gem BU coin rather than a proof for his type set. He could have gotten a nice proof for less. If it weren't for the price of proofs holding a ceiling, gem BU Barber halves would advance considerably in the face of current demand. Circulated Barber halves are now selling for about $27.50 per roll—however, most rolls contain coins with less than full rims. Chances are that actual “GOOD and better” rolls will move up to the $40 range.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Light volume and very few changes. One of the exceptions, the 1970-S “athiest” is up again with the bid presently at $72.00 and with sales having been made at $72.00. In XF-AU and for those badly printed, the bid is $60.00. For the 1970-S small date BU roll the bid-ask range is narrowed somewhat to $36.00-$39.95.

1941S - Demand lessened; back again to $33.00-$35.00

NICKELS: Some now stirring; activity, however, remains, at best, fair to moderate.

1942P - Up $2.50; bid now $38.00

1942D - Up $5.00; bid now $25.00

1949S - Offered as low as $20.00

1950D - Sale at $340.00

DIMES: Perking up a bit with some new dates added to “want lists”. Seven pluses recorded against one lone minus.

1946P - Still being bid higher, now at $13.50

1947P - Now wanted at $21.00

1950P - Up $25 to $50.00 bid

1950D - Bid still being raised, now $85.00; alone roll sold at $80

1950S - Second highest price Roosevelt, up $5.00

1952S - The lone down is; ask now $60

1953S - Inches up 50 cents

1957D - Bounces back up to $25.00 bid

QUARTERS: Probably the quietest of all sections. After last week's minor selling, happily there are no new minuses.

1941P - Still in good demand; bids, however, remains the same

HALVES: Several sales transacted but prices, at best, remain mixed.

Franklin BU sets - Sales as low as $130.00

1950D - Up another $5; this one can get pretty volatile at times

1953P - Now lower; sales made at $138

1955P - Also lower; earlier sale at $119, later sales at $117.50

DOLLARS: Activity moderate with prices mixed. Several singles traded, among them—1878 8tf, '78CC, '81CC, '85CC, '91CC, '92P, '26P, '27D, '960 and '94S.

1878 7/8tf - Down with new offering

1883S - Bid up again, now at $610.00

1885P - Up 50 cents to $50.00 bid

1894P - Down $7.50

1897P - Sale at $75.00

1899P - Down $15.00

1904S - Single piece sales at $155.00

PROOF SETS: Demand apparent for many of the earlier sets, but buyers are in no hurry and trades remain light and prices generally unchanged. Later sets now pretty much stable after last week's decline.

1940 - Sought with bid $1.00 higher

1952 - 5 set lot traded at $34.00 per

1956 - 50 sets, specified gem, traded at $9.00

1960 small date - Choice spot-free set sales at $20.00

1967 - Lot of a hundred sold at $380.00

1970S small - Bid by one dealer at $23.00

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

It may be difficult for my readers to accept at this time, but several economists, who have been right in the past, believe firmly that a new BOOM is to be with us in the period 1974-75. And of course with it will come more inflation. They believe that those with the foresight to accept this prediction and to act on it will make the fortunes. A surging economy during the seventies is to bring all of this about.

It is even predicted that the boom will even be BIGGER than the past boom we had in the sixties!! Of course it takes guts to go ahead and buy in a down stock market or a down coin market. Some will have this kind of nerve . . . they will act contrary to everyone else. And these are the people, history tells us, that make the fortunes. They buy close to the bottom . . . just this side of the bottom . . . they don't wait for the absolute bottom. They sell close to the top . . . but not at the absolute top. In other words the contrary type of stock market or coin market investor sacrifices a portion of the price when he is buying or selling. These people sell a bit too soon and buy a bit too soon. Others may believe that these people are fools to buy before the complete bottom or sell while prices are still going up . . . but the ones who laugh have the laugh wiped off their faces later on when they lose by holding on too long!

Coin investors in the years ahead are going to take part in such booms. Coin collecting will catch on with the growing population and the growing economy. We will actually find the hobby to be catching up with the stamp collecting hobby and its twenty five million collectors!!

Those who believe that an exciting hobby dealing with the most attractive thing that anyone could deal with . . . MONEY . . . is going to remain in the doldrums for ever . . . is kidding themselves!! Of all things in the world today . . . MONEY is perhaps the nicest bartering token. It represents a form of security and satisfies the need for security at the same time it is serving as a hobby and investment for the collector-investor. The combination is terrific and no other hobby in the world can offer such an arrangement! And we can also say that no other investment in the world can offer such advantages. If the investor becomes a collector-investor he is also accepting the hobby itself and becoming a part of it. This means that he has found an investment that is offering enjoyment, entertainment and educational aspects at the same time that it is appreciating in value. He is not going to find this in any other hobby or any other investment. And this is just one of the reasons why the coin collecting hobby is going to catch on with one great big BANG and go along with the booming nation we will have in the seventies!

The Eisenhower silver dollar is still stalled but it is expected that everything will be settled by October 14th, the general's birthday. Present plans to sell an Eisenhower proof dollar and a special uncirculated Eisenhower dollar at high numismatic prices is making many folks irritated with the government. One thing about all of this is that these contemplated high government fees are going to make the common clad uncirculated Eisenhower pieces very popular with the investor. Why concentrate too much on the $5 and $10 Eisenhower pieces when rolls of the clad uncirculated Eisenhower dollars will be available at face. And even if they will be hard to obtain at the bank, dealers will still be selling them for far less than the specially priced government pieces! The clad Eisenhower pieces are going to be the most popular, I would say! Watch these regular issue cupronickel pieces. There is going to be a lot of action with these pieces and these alone can spark a coin boom. The extra proof and mint type Eisenhower pieces are not going to hurt the chances of a boom either . . . even though they be very high priced! We'll always have the clad Eisenhower pieces to play around with. But most important of all . . . and some collectors are forgetting this in their anger over the high prices . . . the issuance of these Eisenhower dollar pieces is bringing to life a series that has been dead for 35 years!! One must not forget the tremendous activity that will work back to the older dollar series. Even the proof Eisenhower dollar will indirectly stimulate the proof set series.

SEVERAL DATES IN DEMAND

Both BU and Circulated Standing Liberty Quarters Interest Investors

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Recent attempts to buy a few BU rolls of Standing Liberty quarters have proven futile. When recommended a few weeks ago by one of the leading investment advisory services, several optimistic dealers tried to pick up a roll or two each for their investors—very few changed hands. First of all, it has been quite a while since original BU rolls were offered with any frequency—mostly the occasional roll was for sale during pre-teletype days. Once in a while—usually at one of the larger auction sales—a roll or two will come on the market. The problem is that almost invariably the BU roll will be of the “flat head” variety—not quite what the investor envisions when he decided to put a BU roll set of twentieth century type coins together. Two of the most “common dates”, by the roll, are the 1924-D and 1926-D. Strangely enough, these two are among the three or four rarest dates in gem, full head condition. The last roll we examined was a roll of 1926-D—and every coin was “dished” in the area of the head—no detail at all.

For the investor who wants to accumulate any quantity of choice BU Standing Liberty quarters, practically the only solution is to buy the coins one or two at a time. Coins with “flat heads” are far less desirable and future sale will always be a problem. The coins of 1928, 1929 and 1930 are most often available in “full head” condition and type coin collectors in coming years will concentrate mostly on these dates.

The “type one” variety of 1917 has recently been pointed out as an excellent investment when located in really choice condition. Actually, most of the “type one” issues were fully struck—so the problem is not so much in obtaining “full head” specimens as it is in locating gem coins without the usual “cabinet friction”—coins which haven’t been repeatedly cleaned.

Circulated rolls of full date Standing Liberty quarters have recently been appearing on dealers “want lists”—with quantities in demand in the $16 area. So far the demand has exceeded the supply and reasonably nice rolls should advance nicely in the next year or so—with at least a $25 price tag to be expected.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Activity up a bit. A couple new dates now wanted.

- 1938S - Sought with bid raised $2.50
- 1951P - Up $1.00; previous ask now the bid
- 1960P small date - Slips $5.00 with new offerings around
- 1970S Athiest - Still upward bound; bid for BU pieces now $76.50
- 1970S small date - Basically unchanged; high bids around $36.00, ask at $40.00

NICKELS: Activity fair to moderate with a few changes both up and down.

- 1938D and S - Bid successful respectively at $142.50 and $160.00
- 1942P - Up again; bid now $40.00
- 1942D - Also continuing its rise, bid raised $5.00
- 1945S - Down $2.00
- 1946D - Offered on one tape at $17.00, sought on the other at $18.50
- 1948D - Recent demand now lacking; offered on one tape at $45.00 and on the other at $50.00
- 1950D - Lowest mintage Jefferson, sales at $335.00

DIMES: Activity fairly good. Six issues up and five down.

- 1942S - Successful bid at $62.50
- 1946P and 47P - Both continuing up; bid raised 50c and $1.50
- 1948P - Offered now at $60.00
- 1949P - A choice roll around for $235.00
- 1950P, D and S - As with last week, all three issues up again
- 1953S - Offered on one tape at $17, wanted on the other at $18.50
- 1955D - Sales at $23.00
- 1957D - Again a difference of tapes; bid $25.00 on one, ask $24.00 on the other
- 1958D - 10 rolls go unwanted at $9.00

QUARTERS: Activity mild with demand somewhat weak and price changes down a bit.

- 1947S - Ask now $88.50

1955D - Sales at $94.50

HALVES: Activity only fair with price changes few and mixed.

- 1945D - Sales transacted at ask
- 1950D - Still moving up; bid now $145.00
- 1953D - Now wanted at $21.00
- 1955P - Sale made at $120 with a five roll lot around for $117.50 per

DOLLARS: Activity, demand, and sales all fairly good.

- 1878CC - In demand; bid up $5.00 to $215.00
- 1881CC - Single piece sales made at $60.00
- 1899P - Roll sale at $315.00
- 1903P - Up again another $5.00
- 1934S - Choice piece sold for $200.00

PROOF SETS: Some sporadic weakness apparent, but activity pretty much in line with last week's prices.

- 1963 - Sold as low as $340.00 for a 100 set lot
- 1968S and 69S - Down 40 and 20 cents
- 1970S - Sales in the $6.35-$6.50 range
- 1970S small date - Bid up to $26.00

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

INVESTORS

We buy and sell BU and proof type coins.

When selling we guarantee authenticity and the condition of our coins. When buying they are truly BU and proof coins or we reject them.

When an investor buys coins not true in grade he realizes his loss when its time to sell.

Please write or phone stating your needs or ask for our recommendations.

Scattered Early Date Rolls Offer Investment Opportunities

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

The tendency of a few dealers to continually offer long lists of rolls for sale "at bid" is at least partially responsible for the rash of minus signs posted in recent weeks. Strangely enough, it is usually these same dealers who wonder (sometimes rather loudly) why the Newsletter "is ruining the coin market" by lowering the bid-ask ratio. The Newsletter policy—from the very first issue—has been to report prices as they appear on the teletype. The price at which dealers are willing to sell is the "ask" price. If, at this point in the numismatic market place, dealers are able to buy from the public (or each other) at 10% or 20% under bid they should still realize that whatever they are willing to sell for on the tapes will be picked up as the "ask" price.

Exceptions to this occur when the material offered at a price lower than the current ask is sold rather quickly to a receptive investing public. However, when certain rolls or proof sets remain for sale day after day, they cannot be passed over in order to hold the prices at an artificially high level. The vast majority of subscribers do not have access to teletype information except through the Newsletter and the confidence built up during the past eight years cannot be compromised. We are happy to say that nearly all dealers are aware of this fact and support it wholeheartedly.

Quite a number of specific dates across the various series are again on dealer "want lists". These "wanted" dates, of course, are the ones which are not appearing with any frequency on selling lists. Some of these dates are probably rather scarce; others are just in the hands of dealers and investors who are waiting to see how high the bid will go. Catching the bid at its "peak" is always a rather tricky accomplishment.

Some of the earlier really scarce rolls continue to come out of the woodwork. These are rolls which should be of particular interest to serious long-term investors. The nickel thru half dollar rolls of the late 1920's and early 30's are blue-chip material—seldom offered and relatively easy to sell when the time comes.

This Week's Market

CENTS: More or less on the weak side. The recently soaring "athiest" cent is now receiving fewer bids.

- 1942S - Relatively scarce, ten rolls now available at $79.50
- 1943S - Sales at a lower $21
- 1955S - Sales at a lower $10
- 1970S small date - Bid/ask approximately $30/$40

NICKELS: Several price changes with more losses than gains.

- 1939S - Choice roll now available at $280
- 1942P (II) - Up again this week; bid now $42
- 1942D - Also gaining—bids noted at $235
- 1943D - Sales at a lower $88
- 1946D & S - Both edge slightly higher
- 1950D - Bid now $320; ask $330

DIMES: Prices are mixed with gains and losses evenly balanced.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

Talk still continues among the nation's bankers and economists that prospects for the second half of 1970 are to be good. Profits will rise and there will be fewer jobless on hand. The second half starts July 1st so the "turn-around" point is almost here. About the same time President Nixon will pull back the troops from Cambodia and of course more withdrawals from Vitenam are then scheduled. The timing is good. Elections arrive in November and we can be certain that the economy will receive some shots in the arm, if needed. This "help" will certainly come in August, September or October . . . BEFORE the election. It wouldn't be wise to wait till the last minute. The atmosphere has to be helathy and encouraging if the Republicans are to stay in office after November.

The campus riots and tantrums are naturally going to ease off after commencement and the vacation time sets in. There could be some city violence as the "dog days" take over in August. All in all, however, things should be under control. However, it doesn't appear that inflation is going to be under control. Lets put it another way . . . inflation may be under some sort of control by election time . . . but it certainly isn't going to be eliminated or reduced.

One of our leading economists believes that business will pick up at about the same rate during the last six months of 1970 as the decline was during the first six months.

I believe that coin investors, and stock investors too, will turn away from the speculative issues. They'll turn instead to blue chip investments . . . the solid issues. More attention is to be paid to the actual amounts of uncirculated coins ON HAND . . . the available supplies that were set aside in the year of issuance. In other words investors will be more interested in the actual amounts that were saved and NOT the mintages, whether they be high or low!

Some of the most attractive buying opportunities in years are now available to the coin investor. At present prices many of the scarce issues are bargains. Even the silver coins, particularly the silver dollars, are selling at reduced prices. With the advent of the Ike Dollar just around the corner this is absolutely unbelievable!

Because inflation appears to be a new kind of inflation, the decade ahead may be the inflation decade. Average wage settlements so far this year have been 10.8 per cent! Women's clothing firms in New York, for example, granted pay increases of 21.3 over the next 3 years. A wage boost of 11% went to the office employees of National Airlines. Post Office employees are to get a possible 8% wage hike and this on top of the 6% boost given to all Federal workers recently. Newspaper printers in New York were granted a record-breaking boost of 42% over a period of 3 years!

Although there is some talk in Congress about applying some brakes to this upward trend, don't be too sure that we will have wage and price controls. As a coin investor you should take steps to protect yourself. Coins as an inflation hedge could be the answer. If there is to be a freeze on wages, prices and rents Democrats on the House Banking Committee suggest that it be for eight months. So . . . after the clamps were taken off a boom could start inflation again. The AFL-CIO wants all prices, profits dividends, wages, salaries and rents frozen. Placing restraints on profits would be an interesting experiment. However, it appears that if price controls were applied profits would automatically be held in line. At least profits wouldn't increase.

Social Security payments are to keep going up. It is planned to tie these pensions into a cost-of-living program. It is quite likely that we will be seeing a single individual collecting $300, or even $400 monthly, ten years from now. I would think that our senior citizens will be more affluent, on the average, at that time than they are today! This will be good for our profitable hobby.

According to a leading "cycle" expert, a history of business cycles indicates that there is a pretty good chance that the slow-down in 1970 will ease off toward the end of the year and that 1971 and 1972 will be years of prosperity! If one goes back through the years, according to this expert, all the way to 1850 and look at all the dates of the booms and busts and the recoveries, we find a pattern. Both the 1966-67 and the 1969-70 slow-downs fall into this pattern. We have had 22 peacetime expansions since 1854. On the average these have had a lasting period of 25 months. If we go along with this cycle theory the history indicates, our friend tells us, that the turnaround will come in August 1970 and the advance could last two to three years.

The issuance of the new Eisenhower dollar coin, possibly coming in October, is timed beautifully, if all of this comes to being. With the economy on an even keel again and the coin industry sparked by a new coin from a series that has been dead for 35 years, the years 1971 and 1972 could be happy ones, indeed, for the coin world!

NUMEROUS CHANGES ACROSS ENTIRE MARKET Commemoratives Move Up; Proof Sets Edge Lower

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Quite a long and interesting list of early Lincoln rolls has been appearing on the tapes for the past week or so. No one needs to be reminded that cent rolls have been (and still are) in an extremely weak position—but many of the dates available at the moment are rarely offered and should be at least considered by serious long term investors. The prices are very attractive. This recent offering includes 1928-P & D, all issues of 1929 and 1930, 1931, 1932-P & D and 1933-P & D—and they are described as being particularly choice. A few Buffalo rolls have also made their appearance—but none of the more scarce issues were included. It seems that 1934-P & D and 1935-D are almost invariably missing from selling lists of Buffalo nickels.

Price adjustments have been considerably more numerous than usual for all series—cents thru halves; completed transactions have been light to moderate. Actually, buying lists seem to be on the increase in many areas and real “bargain offerings” are now only appearing for the most common material. Quantity buying by investors is apparently increasing a bit and at least some dealers appear to be replenishing their depleted stocks. Perhaps today's low prices—effective in nearly all areas of the market—are finally attracting attention.

One area that could use some attention—and unfortunately is receiving very little—is proof sets. There has been another nearly complete overall downward adjustment again this week. Dealers are still offering to sell one hundred or more of most dates “at bid”—and sales, to put it mildly, are infrequent. Smart investors might consider bargaining for some of their favorite dates. When the “turn-around” begins, it will certainly be advantageous to be holding proof sets which were acquired at such reasonable prices.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Quite a rash of small changes—about evenly divided between gains and losses; substantial quantities of most of the lower priced issues are offered for sale.

NICKELS: Plus signs outnumber the minuses by at least two to one; both the Buffalos and Jeffersons are included in light to moderate trading volume.
1936D, 37D & S - All three edge slightly higher
1938S - Mild interest at $161.50 bid
1940S - A few rolls are appearing now—priced around $50
1942D - Bid reaches $240; often quite elusive
1945P - Offered this week at a lower $75
1948D - Also now on the market—at around $42.50
1950D - Transactions recorded this week at $325

DIMES: For the Roosevelts, too, slight gains have dominated the charts; BU single sets are still easily located at $42 and a BU roll set is offered at $2050.
1946P - Bids on one tape reach $15.50
1946S - A few sales at a higher $31
1949D - Mild interest noted at $92.50 bid
1950P - Up $2.50—and rather hard to locate at $57.50
1950D - One or two dealers are still in the market—now at $95
1951S - Offered at a low $180
1955P & S - Slightly higher; 1955D - Slightly lower 1957D - Bids reach $25; few available

QUARTERS: Bidding is light for the Washingtons—with a few of the earlier dates now offered at lower levels.
1937D - Tough roll—offered at $315
1940S - Available at a lower $162.50
1942D - Sales at a higher $90; still underpriced in relation to most other issues
1943D - Sales also registered at $90

1943S - Available at a lower $135
1949D - Bid now at a slightly higher $97.50

HALVES: Although the Franklin rolls have been lightly traded at best, there are still numerous price adjustments recorded this week.

1949D - Key date now listed at $260 ask
1950D - Bids reach $155 on one tape
1951S & 52S - These two again edge lower
1957P & 58P - Both are now available at $33

DOLLARS: Both buyers and sellers continually run long lists—but they often fail to get together.

1878 (7/8 tf) - Transactions noted at $200
1885S - Offered this week at a lower $205
1890O - Quite elusive; bid reaches $175
1892P - Offered this week at a lower $535
1903P - Sales registered at $120

PROOF SETS: Here the minus signs again dominate—most sets after 1952 are available in quantity and few buyers are on the scene. The 1970-S set has recorded sales at a higher $6.50.

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

PROOF SETS AGAIN EDGE LOWER Light Trading for BU Rolls; Commems Remain Strong

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Proof sets have fared rather badly throughout another week of very light trading. Virtually all issues from 1936 have registered lower ask levels—and, for the most part, dealers and investors still seem to be waiting in the wings. "Bargain lots" of one or two hundred sets of almost any date after 1952 fail to stir much activity; the pre-'53 sets also seem to be available in whatever quantity the buyer might want. Even the early sets ('36 thru '42) are constantly offered—with very little buying noted. It is here that the long-term investor might find something of real interest—particularly in the 1937, 1938 and 1939 sets. These early sets contain proofs of both the Mercury dime and Walking Liberty half dollar (and a Buffalo proof in the '37 set)—proof coins which are not common and which in future years will be quite desirable. When even mild buying starts on these sets, the supply is quickly exhausted and prices once again start the upward climb. These sets are not around by the hundred and now is the time that the buyer can pick and choose—buying only choice material. When the supply begins to dwindle there are far fewer sets to choose from and quality sets are much more difficult to locate.

In contrast to the proof sets, commemorative half dollars remain in a strong position. Sellers rarely have to resort to "bargain prices" in order to move choice material—and buyers often have to edge their bids higher just to pick up one or two pieces. The 1936 Bridgeport issue is now on "want lists" in the $29-$30 range; the low mintage 1936-S Oregon Trail is almost impossible to locate at the same price. As a matter of fact, there are several dates in the Oregon Trail series which have low mintages and which are quite underpriced in relation to other coins in the series. Take a look (in last week's issue) at the mintage figures for 1928-P, 1933-D, 1934-D, 1936-S and the 1938 PDS set. While you're at it, compare the mintages and prices for the 1938PDS and the 1939PDS Arkansas sets—and then look at the 1938PDS Texas set. You should find quite a bargain among these three sets!

This Week's Market

CENTS: Virtually all dates from '35 are available within the bid-ask range; locating choice, spot-free rolls is still frequently a problem.

NICKELS: There have been numerous downward adjustments this week—particularly among the Wartime rolls; trading volume has remained light.

1938S - Available at a lower $162.50
1939S - This one is up—with choice rolls wanted at $275
1942P (I) - Bid $43 on one tape; offered at $41 on the other!
1944PDS - All three edge a little lower
1948D - Still backing off; easily located now at $40
1949S & 1951D - Still in mild demand; both edge higher
1951S - Offered this week as low as $75

DIMES: Common date "P" mint Mercury rolls are now offered at $36; a few Roosevelt rolls slip slightly lower.

1948P - Several rolls are on the market around $61
1951P - Still edging higher—with bids noted at $23
1955P - Transactions recorded at $42
1957D - Elusive at $25 bid

QUARTERS: Mostly unchanged and lightly traded; a few of the later dates are now on the market with lower price tags.

1941D & S - Both remain elusive at $190 bid
1944S - A sale or two at $55
1946S - Bid $105—few are offered at this price
1954S & 1955P - Both are now available at $27
1955D - Offered in quantity around $95

HALVES: Sales of common date "P" mint W.L. rolls are registered at $76; numerous Franklin rolls are still listed among the "bargains".

1944D & S - These two edge higher—the "D" roll is particularly tough
1946D - Still slipping; available now at $140
1950D - Offered now at $155
1951D - Offered now at $225

1954S - Sales registered as low as $32.50

1957P & 1958P - Both are now available at $32

DOLLARS: Prices are lightly mixed; circ bags are now in demand at $2070.

1878 (7/8 tf) - Available at $200

1890O - Choice rolls in demand now at $180

1891CC - Offered this week at a lower $370

1891O - Also lower; offered at $195

1903O - Several rolls are on the market at $495

1927P - Choice rolls are offered at $375

PROOF SETS: Again this week there is a rash of minus signs; buyers remain on the sidelines.

1955 - Available in quantity at $20

1958 - Available in quantity at $12.75

1961 & 1962 - Available in quantity at $3.50

1970S - More sales noted at $6.50

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

In a recent Gallup Poll it was found that a clear majority of 55% were in favor of freezing both prices and wages. I have mentioned a feeling I have had for some time that the public was waiting for such controls and really wanted them. The Poll seems to back up my guess.

Dr. Arthur Burns, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, indicated recently that he is considerably less adamant against controls as some of the other leaders in the Administration, particularly the President. He implied that some controls were needed to check inflation.

Regardless of how the Administration feels we are probably going to have wage and price controls some three to four months from now . . . providing . . . that inflation has not been checked in the meantime. Some reports have shown that the cost of living has really gone up as high as 7.2 per cent. If that same rate is still around come Labor day you can expect a lot of objections to controls to be fading away!

Such controls have worked very well in the past, holding prices in line beautifully in the 1951-52 period. Prices had been going up at a rate of 5.7 in 1950. After the controls went into effect the price index only went up 4.6 in the following five year period. Compare this tiny increase with the present five year period (1965-1970) that has registered a whopping increase of 23% so far. And even when the controls were taken off in 1953, after a two year control period, prices did not move up as had been expected.

It is an unhappy choice . . . unemployment or wage and price controls. President Nixon chose the unemployment, credit crunch system. The system so far is cooling down the economy but hasn't had any effect on rising prices. Some say that if we allow the unemployment rate to climb to a high of 6 per cent the inflation rate will finally drop down to an annual 4.5 per cent rate for 1971. Either way it is going to hurt some, it seems.

But all of this guessing will probably come to an end definitely . . . come September. Election time will be shaping up then and something will have to be done. Will the controls be imposed before the election or after it? There has been some talk about an eight month period of controls. This would be short enough so it wouldn't hurt any of us much and could do a very good job of stabilizing prices and wages so that they could very well stay that way for several years.

How would the coin investment fare under a wage and price control set-up? Well, it would probably mean that all prices of coins would be frozen at their present bargain prices. Whether scarcity and the law of supply and demand would get any consideration from the price control board is something no one knows at this time. As long as the controls were not in effect at the time of the next coin boom, we would be in good shape. Inflation would be checked, folks would be able to buy things priced to match their incomes. Coins would continue to sell at good prices. Prices are attractive now and these would be the prices that would remain under controls. Eight months would go by quickly and then coin prices could go up on anything where a scarcity had built up a demand.

Just what causes inflation? During ordinary inflation it is said that people are spending money faster than goods are being made. Now . . . you and I know very well that we ARE NOT spending money faster than goods are being made. There is an abundance of everything and the factories could increase their production of suits, clothing, cars, appliances, tires, TV's, rugs, homes . . . you name it . . . by 50% or 100% if they wanted to . . . with not any great difficulty . . . providing the demand was there. So this inflation IS NOT caused by this text book answer!

Figure it out for yourself. There are many obvious reasons. Government spending continues to use huge amounts of money. Unions regularly ask for higher and higher wages with more and more fringe benefits. Economists are finally realizing that wages during the last couple of years have been outrunning productivity. Actually that is a revolution in itself. When wages are raised and productivity. Actually that is a revolution in itself. When wages are raised and productivity has not gone up by the same amount through better management, better labor saving machinery, better sales promotion . . . then the money is being taken from one person and given to another . . . and that is what we call a revolution! When a person finds that his money is being taken away, to be given to someone else, he reacts accordingly. If he is a factory owner, up go the wholesale prices, if he is a shopkeeper, up go the retail prices, if he is a professional man, up go the fees, if he is an investor he demands higher interest on his investment money, if he is a working man he asks for a second raise in wages . . . and on and on. If he is a person on a fixed income, if he is a retired person, if he is a small businessman who cannot pass along the increases, if he is a farmer working under fixed market prices . . . it is just plain TOUGH. These would be the people who are suffering in this "revolution." we could say that money was actually being taken away from them forcibly and given to other classes of people!

The productivity gap is with us. The better life can only come from greater productivity. Output per man this past year fell and was even lower than it was in 1961 or any year since! The above sentence might be telling my readers exactly why we have the form of inflation we are having today! National productivity gained 3% this year compared with wage increases averaging 7%!! Couple this obvious GAP with government spending and you probably have the reason. Of course, we can add in the greed we all seem to have, whether we be working man or business man, when it come to MORE wages or MORE profits. This adds fuel to the already burning inflation fire!

All of this is a mighty good reason why the investor should seriously consider rare COINS as his investment of the future! Nothing else seems to have the firm base necessary for a decade of inflation, in my opinion.

BU ROLL PRICES MOVE STILL LOWER Commems and Choice Type Material are In Considerable Demand

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

A number of dealers seem to be determined to sell at least a portion of their BU roll stock of cents, nickels and dimes—and their stock appears to be rather complete. Again this week there has been an almost across the board reduction in ask prices for the Lincolns, Jeffersons and Roosevelts (and to a lesser degree among the Washingtons, Walking Liberties and Franklins). However, sales resistance remains high and very few buyers seem to have been impressed—at least, not to the extent of actually ordering!

It seems academic to say that there is a price at which any roll will be "bargain priced". But as long as dealers are going to remain in the price lowering mood, it is obvious that most potential buyers will be content to wait and see just how much more they are going to slash their prices. So far, it is only the more elusive material that gets picked off as prices edge lower and lower. These are the rolls that experience has already taught to be almost impossible to locate at reasonable prices when the market is booming. There are numerous issues which are of interest to almost any investor (and to most dealers, as a matter of fact)—but as the market currently stands there seems to be no reason to hurry in purchasing them. That mythical "bottom" doesn't seem to have been reached yet.

There are scattered areas of the market in which lower prices are not currently the rule. Several commemoratives remain on want lists—a few at higher prices again this week. The 1938-PDS Arkansas set was mentioned last week—virtually none have been offered to anxious bidders. The same goes for those low mintage Oregon Trail issues. Early "S" and "D" Lincolns and Mercuries are appearing more and more frequently on these want lists also and, except for an occasional sales, dealers appear to be holding on to their current stock. Choice BU earlier Mercury dimes, by the way, are pretty tough to locate and demand for choice type material never seems to end.

Proof sets might have reached a "bottom" of sorts—yet sales are extremely few and far between. All dates remain on the market with larger quantities of all of the later issues still available at "bid plus shipping".

This Week's Market

CENTS: Two or three major dealers have again offered quantities of most dates after 1940—and at lower prices; sales, however, are still infrequent.

NICKELS: Prices have also been lowered again for a number of Jefferson rolls.

1938D/S (B) - A full original roll traded at $340

1938D (J) - Choice rolls are available at $145

1939S - Mild demand noted at $285

1942P - Strictly gem rolls are difficult to locate at $42—"average unc" rolls are offered at $40

1943D - Still sliding—ask is down to $85

1948D - Also lower; offered at $37.50

1950D - Bid now only $315; ask is $325

DIMES: Common dates "P" mint Mercuries are on the market around $35; numerous lowered ask levels have been registered by the Roosevelts.

1946S, 47S & 48S - All three edge lower

1949P - Bucking the trend—with higher bids at $230

1950D - Backing off; available now at $92.50

1950S & 51S - Two key rolls—offered at slightly lower prices

1955P - Available now at $42

1955D - Available now at $23.50

1958P - Available now at $16.50

QUARTERS: Just a couple of small losses for the Washingtons—but trading remains limited.

1946S - Off $5—bid back down to $100

1955D - Ten roll lots available at $90 per

HALVES: A couple of slight gains and several losses for the Walking Liberties, the Franklin prices are mixed.

1939D, 40S & 42S - All three are available at $172.50 per 1944D - Still a tough one; bid now $120

1946D - Sales noted at a lower $135

1949P - Key roll now offered at $307.50

1953P - Also down—with gem rolls available at $137.50

1958P & 59D - These two edge a little higher

DOLLARS: Very few changes; moderate trading recorded—especially among the lower priced issues at current levels. Circ bags are now bid at $2080.

1878CC - Bid moves up to $230

1884CC - Choice rolls are now available at $535

1890O - Still hard to find—bid reaches $185

1926D - None offered to bidders at $200

PROOF SETS: Very few changes after last week's rash of minus signs; buying is still minimal. The 1970-S set is up with transactions noted as high as $6.80.

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

PROOF SETS REMAIN AT "GIVE AWAY" LEVELS BU Roll Trading Very Slow; Circ Singles and Type in Mild Demand

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Though to a lesser degree than last week, dealers have again lowered numerous ask prices in order to encourage sales. No series has been spared—although nickels and dimes have registered the greatest number of losses. Buyers, of course, have the upper hand and virtually all bidding remains "below market"—only an occasional date is difficult to locate within current price ranges. Looking only at the price charts for recent weeks would give the impression that buying is at a virtual standstill for BU rolls and proof sets. However, this is not really quite the case. It is just that sellers outnumber buyers to a great extent and that buyers can be fairly confident that their low bids will receive due consideration. The better material is still being picked off; counter offers are more often effective than in stronger market periods.

Most of the earlier rolls—in the 30's (and a few in the 20's)—prove to be of considerable interest to long-term investors. Quite a lot of this type of material is coming "out of the woodwork". The 1929-D and 1930-D Lincoln rolls didn't last very long and the roll or two of 1934-P & D dimes had several interested buyers. Early Washington and Walking Liberty rolls usually find quick action. Later rolls obviously aren't faring as well—buyers feel certain that waiting "another week or two" will bring about even lower prices. They have been right so far—although numerous individual rolls have gone no lower in several weeks.

Quite a lot of buying interest remains evident for better date Barber dimes, quarters and halves. These relatively scarce coins are mostly in demand in G-F condition and are being bought more by collectors than investors. Usually only one or two of each date are wanted and it is almost always the key and semi-key dates which are on "want lists". Take a fresh look at the mintage figures on the late date Barber halves and compare the Redbook prices with prices for such issues as 1916-S, 1921-PDS and 1938-D halves. Which, for example, do you feel is more scarce in GOOD to FINE condition: 1910-P 49 1938-D, 1913-D or 1916-S, 1905-O or 1921-S? Collecting of Barber coinage may be somewhat on the upswing—current prices make such collecting interesting and reasonable to the "average" collector of limited funds.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Price changes this week are few and scattered—sales, however, are even more infrequent.

1941D - Transactions noted at $30
1943D - A few rolls have been traded at $11.50
1955S - Offered in quantity at $9.75

NICKELS: A few more losses; long selling lists appear regularly and dealers have little trouble locating any roll they want. BU single sets are for sale at $90.

1938S - Offered now at a lower $160
1939S - Up $5—with bids at $290
1943D - This key roll is still slipping; available now at $82.50
1948D - Still backing off; ask is now $35

DIMES: BU single sets remain on the market at $41; several rolls again edge lower.

1947D - Offered now at a lower $37
1948P - Ask down to $56.50; not really a common roll
1950PDS - All three slip back
1953D - Considerable interest; bid moves up to $9
1957D - Lower—bid now $22.50; offered at $24

QUARTERS: Light trading continues—with a couple of minus signs appearing in the charts. BU single sets are available at a lower $95.

1941D - Scarce dates; sales at a lower $185
1942D - Also a tough roll; offered this week at $90
1946S - Transactions noted at $102.50
1958P - Transactions noted at $40

HALVES: The Walking Liberties are virtually unchanged—with considerable "below market" bidding; the Franklins are mixed—with BU single sets offered at $132.50.

1951S & 52S - Both rolls again edge lower
1955P - Offered now at $116
1959D & 60P - These two edge higher

DOLLARS: Very minimal changes—very light trading.

1890O - Up slightly—bid now $187.50
1891CC - Several choice rolls are available at $360
1926P - Lower—with sales at $145
1926D - This one is seldom offered; bid at a higher $205

PROOF SETS: Another across the board reduction of ask prices; some buying interest is in evidence—but dealers and investors are well aware that now is the time to drive hard bargains.

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

November is now being picked as the month for the "turn-around." This is to be the point where the recovery from the mini-recession starts to take palce. The bottom of this recession period is to continue on through the summer and thru September. This leaves October with a question mark. It puts the voter in a very difficult spot because he is going to have to make up his mind at this point just how to vote in the November elections. And how will he know what is going to happen. It is quite likely that any noticeable improvement in the nation's economy will take place immediately after the election . . . and this isn't going to help any of us to make up our minds.

The Ike dollar may make its appearance in October if there are still plans to bring it out on the Eisenhower birthdate. Election time quite often has been the changing point in an economy cycle and even a numismatic investment cycle. I have covered this in some charts, going back many years and covering many, many elections. So . . . it is possible that come November the numismatic industry may find itself going along with the post-election recovery and boom. Certainly the Eisenhower dollar coin is going to spark the coin world like it has never been "sparked" before! With the Viet-Nam war slowly developing into a Korea-like "police-aciton" we may be entering a very lively decade of economics.

Recently I received an interesting letter from a reader, who has to say this about dealers: I quote . . . "I feel that if the advertising dealers would get their heads together . . . and agree to stop dropping prices and start instead to raise prices . . . and raise the prices in their ads every week, for perhaps only two or three months, then I maintain that they would create a market and a healthy price base that would start the ball rolling again. It would be a brand new ball game! Give this some thought and pass the word along to the dealers." (unquote)

And this I am doing . . . for the Coin Dealer Newsletter probably reaches more DEALERS in the numismatic field than any other medium. It is interesting to go back to the period just prior to the last coin boom . . . back to around 1960 or so. It was at that particular time that several dealers started to do just what the gentlemen are advocating . . . they did start boosting the price of uncirculated rolls (which had been trading at very low prices) and the whole coin market, singles and rolls, old and modern issues, did continue to climb and climb. Dealers in the coin world do seem to have a unique advantage or disadvantage that isn't enjoyed by other retailers in other fields. They CAN seem to bring about a series of drops in coin prices . . . or a series of raises in coin prices. Whether they can control the drops or the raises is another question . . . but they certainly seem to be able to get the ball rolling . . . once they decide to do it.

With new tax increase being talked about for 1971 and with a decade of some form of inflation ahead of us . . . one can see a need for an investment with a SOLID base that has a history of delivering extremely large yearly yields. Rare coins, old coins, gold coins, silver coins . . . where the available supply is small . . . can only react in one direction during the seventies . . . and that is UPWARD! And the rebirth of the silver dollar series will probably lead the way!!

Power over people's lives is to come from Washington, D.C. in the years ahead. Everything is being turned over to the Federal government. Welfare, medical, education, environment, pollution, anticrime laws, housing. With the 18-year old voting we may find even more things being turned over to the government for solution . . . our mild socialism could become a stronger brand. The coin COLLECTIONS may be the only investor left!!

Now there is some talk again about the American Dollar and the English Pound. Some experts now believe that gold is about to move back up again. The first quarter of 1970 showed a record liquidity deficit of $1,900,000,000. The strength of the dollar . . . and the English Pound, to some extent, are keyed to the U.S. balance of payments! If the same old thing starts all over again . . . and the dollar loses value again with the rest of the world . . . we can expect the price of gold coins to advance. If the new Ike dollar is made of silver, investors are certainly going to latch on to them, particularly if basic metals, such as gold and silver, are on the rise again!

BU ROLL MARKET LEVELS OFF --- ---- at least for the moment

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

The BU roll market seems to have hit a plateau after weeks of nearly frantic price lowering. The small number of changes this week have virtually all been of a minor degree—and several small gains were scattered among the slight losses. This could be the long overdue “bottoming out”—or just a pause in a continuing trend. Either case could be argued—but there is increased evidence of buying interest here and there. “Below market” bidding is a good barometer. At such a point, the buyers must be beginning to feel that the “bottom” (for the particular material they are interested in) is near. It is the thought that “this week’s ask will be next week’s bid” which has kept most buyers in the wings until now.

The above is not to give the impression that the “bottom” has already been reached and that buyers are flocking into the market place. Only that nearly all material offered this week was priced within the “bid-ask” range—and that an occasional buyer has begun to appear—zeroing in on specific material which he feels is now bargain priced.

Quite a lot of bidding has been noted for early Lincoln rolls—09-S thru 16-S, 11-D thru 15-D and a number of other scattered dates. It has been quite a while since this material has been in general demand. In this area, of course, prices are also down—and investor interest has once again been stirred. Early Mercury dime rolls in “average circ” or “GOOD and better” condition are also selling well—particularly those elusive “D” mint rolls of 1917, 1919, 1924, 1925 and 1927 thru 1934. Even a few Buffalo rolls are getting into the act—although mintmarked rolls prior to 1927 are not easy to locate in decent condition.

Choice type material is, as usual, in demand. The problem in this area is one of grading. Unfortunately, nearly all “UNC” and “BU” coins turn out to be “sliders” at best (more often just plain “AU”). Numerous dealers to whom we have talked have virtually given up on ordering such material. The return postage on coin after coin makes it more trouble and expense than it’s worth.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Believe it or not, there were no price changes for the Lincolns this week (and practically no sales, either).

NICKELS: Changes have been minimal for the Jeffersons, also—with only an occasional transaction noted; Buffalos are unchanged.

1940D - Offered at a slightly lower $28
1942P (t2) - Up $2.50—with bids at $152.50
1943D - Still easily located around $82.50
1951S - Now available at a lower $72.50

DIMES: A couple of small gains are registered by the Roosevelts; the Mercuries are basically firm at current levels.

1938S - Mild interest at $200; none offered
1939S - Slightly lower; available at $345
1949D, 52P & 53D - Interest noted for all three
1951S - Offered this week at $170

QUARTERS: Here too we have only minor adjustments this week; trading volume is extremely light.

1948S - Transactions at a slightly higher $35
1949D - Bid $93—very few available
1955D - A sale or two around $90

HALVES: Virtually all of the changes in this area are on the down side; “below market” bidding is frequently monitored.

1947D - Sharp drop; a quantity of choice rolls is available around $115
1949P - Below the $300 mark now!
1950P - Offered at a lower $180
1953P - Offered at a lower $135
1959P & 61P - Both edge slightly lower

DOLLARS: Both the Morgan and Peace series remain nearly unchanged; several buyers are in the market—but they aren’t willing to go above the current “bid” price for the rolls they need. Sales are light and scattered.

1878CC - Always fluctuating; offered this week at $240
1881P - Up slightly; bid now $70
1898O - Transactions noted at $61.50
1926D - Still on “want lists” at $205; none available.

PROOF SETS: A couple of changes for the earlier dates; small quantities of many dates are beginning to interest investors at today’s very low levels.

1936 - Up slightly; 1937 & 1939 - Down slightly
1958 - Available in quantity—now at $11.75
1970S - Transactions recorded at $6.60

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

CANADIAN: Prices are on Page Five; a little bidding has been recorded—for a change!

The bid for common silver this week is in the 16% - 17% range.

War-time Nickels are bid at approximately $3.10 - $3.20.

Canadian Silver is bid at $965 - $975 per bag.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER
reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

PRICE LEVELING CONTINUES Cautious Bidding Noted in Several Areas

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Price changes have been minimal again this week for the proof sets. Several dates have fluctuated—but only slightly—and in both directions. More buyers are now "in the market" for up to one hundred each of nearly all dates after 1952—and the "bargain offerings" we had gotten so accustomed to have begun to disappear. Of course, in truth, when sets are offered at current "ask" prices, they are already "bargain priced". It is just that further substantial price lowering for proof sets seems unlikely—although, given the current overall market position, substantial gains in the immediate future seem no more likely. Careful accumulation of choice sets at the investors' leisure will probably be the next step in the saga of U.S. proof sets.

Plus and minus signs have also been held to a minimum for BU rolls for a second week (with the small gains and losses about evenly divided). Relatively long buying lists are now interspersed with the frequent selling lists. In fact, quite a number of issues are now receiving daily bids—though the prices offered are, for the most part, still at or just below currently recorded bid levels.

Strangely, today's low ask prices for the wartime nickel rolls still aren't attracting many buyers—prices for these rolls are still edging a little lower and a BU roll set was available during the week as low as $650. The only date in the series which is not constantly available is the 1942-P (II)—bids of $152.50 are not successful and virtually all Wartime selling lists exclude this one.

Silver dollars have probably registered the most action during the week. The more common issues are still very easy to locate (but prices are basically firm)—the more elusive rolls are again beginning to record gains. In a couple of instances, as a matter of fact, the gains have been impressive—the 1904-P has moved from $240 to $270 and the 1926-D from $205 to $250. There are a number of other dates which are really much more scarce than today's price would indicate. Just how much would a bidder have to offer to locate just a few choice rolls of 1923-D Peace Dollars?

This Week's Market

CENTS: Again this week virtually all offerings have been within the bid-ask range. Several 1960-P small date rolls were traded at $117.50.

NICKELS: Prices are mixed; sales remain infrequent (although bidding for several dates seems to be on the increase). A roll set of the Wartime issues is available at $650.

1938D (J) - Offered this week at $142.50
1938S - Offered this week at $157.50
1939S - Up another notch; bid now $300
1946S & 47S - These two edge slightly higher

DIMES: Relatively few changes; a few of the more scarce dates in the Mercury series are appearing on "want lists".

1937S - Bid moves up to $162.50; none offered
1938S - Still in demand at $200—also not available
1950D - Back down to $77.50 ask
1953D & 57D - Both are in mild demand; bid slightly higher

QUARTERS: Some of the earlier dates slip back a little; the remainder of the series is regularly offered within current price ranges.

1939P - Available now at $110
1940P - Available now at $125
1941D & S - Both are offered at a lower $190

HALVES: A couple of the walking Liberty rolls are on the market with lower price tags; the Franklins are very lightly mixed.

1942D & 43S - These two are lower
1947D - Still slipping—available now at $110
1948P - Choice rolls are for sale at $120
1953D, 54P & 55P - All edge a little higher

1958P - Available in quantity at $31

DOLLARS: Considerably increased activity—from both the standpoint of rolls offered and the number of dates appearing on buying lists.

1878CC - Up $5—with bids recorded at $230
1885S - Bids noted at a higher $200
1887O - Transactions at a higher $75
1890O - Still advancing; bid now $190 for choice rolls
1890S - Sales at a lower $105
1903O - Offered this week at a lower $475
1904P - Sharp increase; bid now $270
1926D - Up $45!—bid now $250; none available

PROOF SETS: Quite a number of slight fluctuations; quantity bidding is on the increase at or near the current bid levels.

1951 - Sales in the $55-$57.50 range
1956 & 1959 - Both edge slightly lower
1962, 62 & 63 - These three are up a little
1964 - Offered in quantity at $4.90
1970S - Bid moves up to $6.75

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

With the coming Eisenhower Dollar boom, possibly by the end of this year, that could touch off a general numismatic boom . . . it is more important than ever to continue to push forward a program for AUTHENTICATION OF COINS. For the last two years a group of hobbyists have been in the process of raising money for an American Numismatic Authentication Trust. The goal so far has been about half completed or achieved. $50,000 is the top amount that this group has been striving for. Donations have been slow up until now but I am told that there has been some increase lately. If we can generate more enthusiasm for this program and reach our goal by the end of the year, the timing could be excellent. Once the goal has been achieved the American Numismatic Authentication Trust will be dissolved and the money turned over to the American Numismatic Association.

From that time on we will have the start of a real efficient authentication service that will be of immense benefit to every coin collector and coin investor in the United States!

Anyone who has not as yet sent in a tax deductible donation I suggest they mail their checks to any of the three ANAT trustees: Virgil Hancock, Box 936, Bellaire, Texas 77401 Abe Kosoff, Box 456, Encino, California 91317 John J. Pittman, 4 Acton Street, Rochester, N.Y. 14615. If you haven't ready cash at the moment they will be happy to accept a pledge . . . or even numismatic merchandise.

Treasury silver sales will be ending shortly. Price-wise, silver is one of the world's most volatile commodities. Eventually the shortage of silver is going to become more and more serious. Treasury holdings have been whittled down month after month. If the price of silver has an upward movement at the time the public is becoming intensely interested in the new Eisenhower silver dollars . . . and the old silver dollars too . . . we can expect silver dollars to raise sharply in price and many of the Eisenhower pieces to disappear for good. It will be the same old hoarding story. What happened to the silver half dollars could happen to these new silver dollar pieces . . . providing they are silver, of course . . . and that is still up in the air.

I can forecast an unbelievable interest in the entire silver dollar series upon release of the first Eisenhower dollars. Bringing to life again a series that has been dead for the past thirty five years is something that is not going to be overlooked by the public . . . or the coin collectors and coin investors. This is an important numismatic event that is not going to be taken lightly!

With the stock market investor looking around for new investment fields . . . AT THIS VERY MOMENT . . . where could he place his investment dollars . . . more safely . . . than in the older silver dollars !!! In such a period of stock market uncertainty it is natural to expect these millions of investors to look elsewhere. The very name . . . the sound of it . . . SILVER DOLLARS . . . gives one a feeling of security and confidence in the future. Here one has the largest unit of silver and possibly the last unit of silver that the public and the investor can latch on to! Almost all of the older silver dollars have great numismatic value and this value is going to grow the moment the silver dollar series is brought back to life again!! Just a few of the stock market investors would do the trick. Let two or three hundred thousand stock market investors become interested in the new Eisenhower dollar AND then the REST OF THE silver dollar series . . . and the value race will be on!! And this many investors would be just a drop in the bucket when we are talking about twenty six million stock market investors!!

The wise coin investor should be starting to make his silver dollar selections during the next two or three months!

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER
reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

COMMON SILVER BID ADVANCES Bu Roll Prices are Mixed; Trading Remains Light

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Commemoratives have settled down in recent weeks and nearly all issues are now available within current bid-ask ranges. There are, however, a few exceptions—one of the most difficult of the PDS sets to find is the 1938 Arkansas set. Just a few weeks ago the ask price was around $50-$55—one or two transactions this week were noted at $75 (and "want lists" continue to include this one). Another "hot" item is the Bridgeport—with sales registered this week in the $35-$36 range. Earlier in the year this one was available by the roll at around $560 (or $28 per coin). The few rolls offered were quickly purchased by investors who already have a reasonable profit.

Choice BU Columbians—1892 and 1893—are not really easy to locate at today's prices (they are now bid $5.25 and $4.75). This issue has always been considered the most common commemorative—which probably is correct. Certainly in circ condition the Columbian is far from scarce. Yet really choice BU pieces are tough—most of the uncirculated pieces offered are "sliders". At a convention recently, a flawless gem 1892 sold for $20 to a collector who was trying to include a Columbian which matched the quality of the rest of his commem set!

Choice BU 1940-D quarters have been offered this week in the $23-$24.50 range—for as long as they last. Apparently a roll or two is being broken up; this presents an excellent long-term investment for the investor who fancies Washington quarters. Also, a few choice rolls of 1939-D nickels are being broken into lots of five or ten pieces and are available in the $22-$23.50 range—another long range opportunity. While neither of these issues can be termed "rare", they are both keys—and in the more active cycles of the market are not really easy to locate in choice condition at anything less than top dollar. It is always during market doldrums that better rolls come out of hiding and are broken into smaller lots far quicker sale.

As can be seen from the price chart, there is more interest in proof sets this week. The activity can only be called moderate—at best—but it is evident that current prices are beginning to attract buyers. Most of the bidders want at least one hundred sets of a particular date—and, of course, they all specify gem, spot-free material only!

This Week's Market

CENTS: At "bid" several dates are difficult to locate in choice condition—1941-D & S, 47-S, 48-P, 50-P, 51-P & S are among the wanted issues. Actual trading volume remains very light.

NICKELS: Scattered minus signs for the Jeffersons; choice BU single sets are easily available around $90. The BU roll set of Wartime nickels is still slipping—offered now at $625.

1944D - Off $2.50; available at $65

1946D & 47D - Both are now offered at $17

1950D - Sales at a slightly higher $320

1959P - Should be considered as a long term investment at today's price—around $3

DIMES: Prices are mixed for both the Mercuries and Roosevelts; transactions are infrequent as most bidding remains in the realm of "bargain hunting".

1938S - Up $5—with none offered to bidders at $205

1946P - Bids noted again at $14

1949D - Available now at $93.50

1950D - Back up to $75 bid

1953D - Still moving—sales at a higher $10.75

1958P - Offered now at a lower $15

QUARTERS: Only slight changes—a few dates are in mild demand.

1940P - Sales noted at $120

1944P - Suddenly quite elusive at $24.50 bid
1947S - Attractively priced at $85
1955D - Several transactions at a higher $87.50

HALVES: Some interest is noted for circ Franklin rolls at the current low prices—so far, however, the supply is certainly equal to the demand.

DOLLARS: Most of the changes are on the plus side; "bargains" among dollar rolls are far less frequent than in other areas.

1882P - Sales at a higher $60

1890O - Bid moves up to $200

1901O - Bid moves up to $55

1923D - Offered at a lower $145; often quite elusive

PROOF SETS: Several slight gains—most of the later date sets are wanted by the hundred.

1952 - Up slightly—with sales at $32

1958 - This one is lower; ask $10.75

1964 - Bid edges back up to $4.70

1968S - Sales at a slightly higher $6.10

1970S - Still advancing—bid now $8.40

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

The blockage of the mintage for the Dwight David Eisenhower coin CONTINUES. Senate Bill S-2582 was introduced on July 10, 1969. This is over ONE YEAR AGO!! No longer is this disgraceful delay amusing . . . and no longer should it be tolerated!!

It has been said that Dwight David Eisenhower symbolized the highest tradition of service to our country . . . in both war and peace. He represented something we are so sadly lacking at this time . . . strength and honor. Surely the many arguments, pro and con, over the silver content of this honoring coin should have been over and done with SIX MONTHS AGO. That would have certainly been sufficient time to debate this trivial question. It is delays such as this that are causing many young people to believe that democracy can no longer work. There is too much disagreement and squabbling in this country. Surely this is one area where we can forget disagreement. There are too many other problems . . . a thousand times more vital . . . that we should direct our attention to . . . and solve.

It surely must be time for at least one hundred thousand collectors and coin interested people to write to their Senators and Representatives and insist that pressure be brought to END this disgusting blockage . . . this rule by the minority. The Joint Commission has now recommended that the dollar contain some silver. The plan now expects to bring about a profit to the government of some 700,000,000 million dollars! At this price the government could well afford to subsidize many silver mines that are now closed or running at a reduced operation scale.

We simply have to go along with what the majority wants. The Joint Commission wants a silver coin. Hon. Wright Patman, Chairman of the Banking and Currency Committee . . . DOES NOT!!

The late President's 80th birthday is coming up in October of this year. If the stalemate continues a national disgrace will occur . . . the coin will not be ready to commemorate this event!!

From a selfish point of view the issuance of this coin would be a boon to the numismatic fraternity. When we stop to consider the trying times that the government brought about for the numismatic world since 1965, the government could possibly UNDUE much, if not all, of the harm that was done to the hobby by bringing out this exciting coin during 1970!!

The reincarnation of a coin series that has been dead since 1935 could be a dramatic turn of events for the coin industry . . . possibly one of the most important numismatic events EVER TO HAPPEN!! The coin investment and the coin collecting hobby surely could use this "shot in the arm" at this particular time! The government has promised to be kinder to all of us in the coin world. Let them prove their intentions by seeing to it that the Dwight David Eisenhower dollar be issued ON TIME!! Away with petty squabbling!!

Get those letters rolling to your Representatives, your Senators, to the Joint Commission. Tell them how you feel about the matter. Ask them who to write to . . . who can bring pressure . . . the kind of pressure that will end this blockage!

The Red book that is now making its yearly appearance is providing a documentation of price achievements for a small sampling of coins, reflecting the price advances of coins since 1947. Red Book is finally recognizing the investment opportunities inherent in coins. Thousands of coin collectors will now have this brought to their attention within the pages of the old and respected Redbook! Thousands of NEW collectors will get this message, starting with this new edition! While the Redbook only gives a very brief . . . one might say . . . tiny . . . sampling . . . the new study that is now a part of this "bible", does point out that coins generally increased substantially during the last 25 years. Of course my two "Profit March" books long ago covered ALL coins, every date and issue, as to price history . . . even going back as far as 1935!! Or some thirty five years!!

And today I have brought the 1964 issue of the "Profit March" up to date, bringing the price history up to date . . . filling in the gap from 1963 to now . . . and projecting ahead to 1980 as to values we might expect. A new feature of this coming "Profit March" is that it will contain the results of the CIC National Poll . . . the first Poll ever taken in the numismatic world!! Not only will each issue show the price history, the 1980 projection, but there will be figures given from the CIC Poll showing how many of each date and issue are being held by collectors and investors today!! Only subscribers to the CIC will get the pre-publication sections of this book . . . as issued in the coming months. The book itself will probably not be offered to the public until CIC subscribers have received all of this Poll data.

WASHINGTON QUARTERS PACE MARKET

Other Series Mixed; Trading Volume Still Light

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Buyer interest this week has more or less centered around Washington quarters—both the earlier BU singles and BU rolls in the late 30's and early 40's. It seems that a fairly large percentage of the more expensive BU singles which are offered turn out to be—upon close inspection—"sliders". This is especially true for 1932-D & S and 1936-D—and, to some degree, 1934-D and 1935-D. Most of the other pre-1940 issues were saved by the roll in sufficient quantity to assure an adequate supply of "original BU gems" (as they are often described). Among the above, the 1936-D is probably the coin which is most often "optimistically graded"—real gems will often fetch $250 from the serious collector.

Some of the earlier rolls which are receiving attention have not yet registered gains in the bid price—although several others have. For instance, there is obvious investor interest in the 1937-D and 1939-P & D rolls—as well as 1941-S and 1942-D. Quite a number of dates in the 1943-48 range are on the plus side this week—with the high mintage, low priced "P" mints leading the activity. Mr. Haylings recently pointed out in his "Coin Investing Communique" that mintage alone is not necessarily a guide to actual scarcity and that some of the high mintage dates in the early 40's are considerably underpriced on today's market. A little teletype bidding for some of these issues has borne this out.

* Interest in 1970-S proof sets remains high—although establishing bid-ask prices this week was difficult in the face of very erratic bidding. During the week these sets received bids as low as $7.50 and as high as $8.50—and they were offered for sale from $8.00 to as high as $10.00. This interest is basically due to the fact that no 1970 halves have yet been struck by the mint. Should none be minted this year—except those in the proof sets—the proof 1970-S half could become a relatively expensive and desirable coin. Bidders are currently offering to pay $105 for rolls of 70-S halves—but most dealers are interested in breaking up their sets—if they do so, they are then faced with the problem of selling all of those proof cents, nickels, dimes and quarters!

By the way, there is still a little activity noted for the "small date" 1970-S cent rolls—in the $22.50-$25 range. And the 1970 "small date" proof sets are still offered at around $20.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Numerous small changes—both up and down; increased "bargain hunting" is noted.

1938S - Offered at a lower $51

1942S - Up slightly—with bids at $77.50

1955S - Transactions recorded at $9.75

NICKELS: Here too the prices are mixed; actual trading volume remains light as a considerable amount of "below market" bidding continues to be registered.

1938S - Now available at $152.50

1942P (I) - Offered at $40—but strictly choice rolls are difficult to find at any price

1934D - Really in the "bargain basement" at $75 ask

1946D & 1947D - Edging higher—both are bid again at $17

1955P - "Brite" rolls are bid now at $33

DIMES: Roosevelts remain basically in the doldrums—it's mostly minus signs again this week. BU single sets are now in the $35-$37 range.

1950D - Offered at a lower $75

1951P & D - Bucking the trend with slightly higher bids

1951S - This one is available at $160

1955D - Offered at $22.50

1955S - Offered at $16

1958P - Offered at $14.50

QUARTERS: Here is where the action is—at least, this week.

1940S - Not easy to locate—bid now $158.50

1941D - Up $5; bidders are offering $185

1944PDS - All three move higher

1945D - This one is lower at $70 ask

1946S - Sales noted around the $100 mark

1948S - Up again—with bids at $37
1949D - Transactions noted at $100
1955D - Sales registered at a lower $85

HALVES: Very little change for either the Walking Liberties on the Franklins.

1946D - Up $6—bid now $136

1948D - A sale or two around $62.50

1956P - Offered this week at a lower $46

1959D - Transactions noted at $26

DOLLARS: Any Morgan roll is now bid in at least $50, common date BU Morgan bags are wanted at $2515—with circ bags wanted at $2100.

1890O - "Average strike" BU rolls are available at $200; choice, fully struck rolls are rarely found

1927P - Still slipping—with bank wrapped rolls offered around $350

PROOF SETS: Only slight changes; quantity bidding continues to some degree—mostly at "below market" levels.

1955 - Flat pack sales at a higher $19.50

1961, 62 & 63 - All edge slightly higher

1970S - Still bouncing around in the $8.25-$8.75 range; a few sales have been registered in this area

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

DEMAND INCREASES FOR SILVER DOLLARS

Commemoratives are Wanted; BU Rolls are Mixed

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Silver dollars and commemorative halves led the action this week—with continued interest also noted for several of the suddenly elusive Washington rolls. Most other BU rolls—Lincolns through Franklins—were lightly mixed and lightly traded. Both long selling lists and buying lists appear regularly, but, as usual, dealers seldom manage to get together on a price. Most sellers are reluctant to edge their prices any lower—and most buyers (unless they have a specific investor "want list" to fill) are only looking for bargains.

As mentioned, commemoratives are in demand—particularly those relatively low mintage issues which are priced in the $25-$35 range. The 1938-PDS Arkansas set is now bid at $75 (with virtually none offered for sale) and the lower mintage Booker T. Washington and Washington Carver sets are not easy to locate at current bid levels. The Bridgeport has registered further sales in the $37 area. Two issues which might be considered at this time are the 1936 Elgin (mintage 20,015) at $33 bid and the 1936 Lunchburg (mintage 20,013) at $32.50 bid—neither are plentiful and even mild demand would see reasonable price advances.

Several of the moderately priced silver dollar rolls have received higher bids during the week and, strangely enough, most of these bids have gone unanswered. Some of these very same dates were offered for as much as ten or twenty dollars less only a few weeks ago. Now, however, when a little bidding starts, dealers and investors may have decided to "hold on". This, of course, is a standard procedure.

The 1970-S proof half dollar is bid as high as $130 by the roll—with few if any rolls offered for sale. As was discussed last week, dealers aren't as quick to break up the 1970 sets as they were back in '68 and '69—they still have many of the less desirable cent and nickel rolls from those years on their hands. Selling the complete proof set now seems a much more sensible course.

This Week's Market

CENTS: No price changes among the Lincolns this week; several dates remain on various dealer "want lists"—with virtually none offered to the "below bid" attempts to buy.

NICKELS: The Jeffersons and Buffalos also remain relatively unchanged; some selective buying is recorded—bidders have little trouble locating the rolls they need.

1938S - Transactions registered at $150
1939S - "Choice" original rolls are difficult to find at $305 bid
1942P (t2) - A roll or two is traded around $155
1945P & D - Both edge slightly lower
1951D - Offered at a lower $34

DIMES: The Roosevelts are mixed; trading is very light and sporadic although buying lists include numerous dates—at "bargain basement" bids.

1948P - Available now at $52.50
1950D - Back up to $77.50 bid; a sale or two at $80
1953D - Additional sales around $11
1955P - Offered now at a lower $41
1958P - Still slipping—available at $14

QUARTERS: Only minor adjustments—several of those same dates are in mild demand.

1941D & S - Difficult to buy at today's price levels
1944P thru 1946P - Interest continues for these three
1949D - Available at a lower $100
1955D - Offered this week at $86.50

HALVES: The Walking Liberties are unchanged and seldom traded; the Franklins are lightly mixed.

1953D - Up $2—bid now at $24
1955P - Offered in quantity at $112.50
1958P - Transactions recorded at $28

1959D - Sales noted at $25.50

DOLLARS: Several gains—the most active area of the market; still considerable demand for circ bags at $2100.

1878 (8tf) - Bid moves up to $185
1878CC - Bid moves up to $240
1881P - Bid moves up to $74
1885S - Up $5—with bids noted at $200
1892P - Choice roll now available at $525
1897P - Bid moves up to $77.50
19040 - This one is lower; sales at $59

PROOF SETS: The 1970-S set is leading the activity—with sales as high as $9.25.

1957 & 1960 - Up slightly; bid now $4.70
1964 - Transactions recorded at $4.75
1968S - Bid now $6.20
1969S - Bid now $5.20
1970S - Bid now $9.10

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

Our new Pacific Marine Commander predicts that the Vietnam war will end within two years. "We will wrap up the war within two years . . . as we know it today" . . . said Lt. Gen. William K. Jones, who assumed command of the Pacific Marine force recently. He said that the war will end when the North Vietnamese have gone back to their own country and quit imposing their government and philosophies on the South Vietnamese. He claims that he sees this happening now and has no doubt that it will continue to happen.

The writer, if he is to believe anyone, would much prefer to put his faith in a Marine Commander and what he thinks . . . than a politician! The marines have played an important part in winning all of our recent wars.

So . . . the year 1972 could be a very exciting year . . . the end of the war and an election year too! Some economists see the battle of inflation continuing all through 1971 with a possible reduction to 4% yearly by 1972.

Here in the coin world we are expecting big things to happen when the new Eisenhower dollar is finally issued. This could come the end of this year . . . or sometime in 1971 . . . and could trigger off the biggest coin boom we have ever seen! This would probably happen in the year following the issuance, as time would have to be given for the silver dollar series to catch on fire. The year following the fire would spread to the rest of the hobby. Could be 1972 again!

The Republicans are naturally going to go all out for an improved economy, an end to the war and an end to serious inflation . . . by November of 1972 . . . if they hope to put the Republicans in power for another term! The Republicans haven't been in power, one might say, since the Hoover days. Eisenhower doesn't count because here it was simply a matter of the country voting in a war hero and at the same time voting in a Democrat administration. I don't think the Republicans are about to let go of their present hold . . . not after waiting so long!!

So . . . look for a lot of good things to happen by 1972. A boom in the economy, coming at a time when the coin world will be having its own Eisenhower dollar triggered boom . . . couldn't be better for the coin industry !!

I believe that more people will start to believe in coins again. They will remember INFLATION and they will remember the stock market. I think that many of our future investors are going to think about investments that will go along with inflation-expansion. They won't be thinking about the stock market . . . instead the investment possibilities of stamps, coins, antiques, paintings, precious metals will be studied carefully. Many will go along with this kind of HARD investment . . . the kind of investment that is based on a reducing scale. Investors will want something that will grow scarcer as the population expands . . . thereby inflating its own price limits at the same time that the economy is inflating.

With more leisure time ahead of us these investors will find that this is the kind of investment that not only offers a monetary value, but also a pleasure value too!! Whether it be a rare painting, a rare stamp, a rare coin or a rare antique . . . there is this ENJOYMENT factor . . . and these are the only investments that offer it!! One has a chance to have his cake . . . and eat it too! Combine your recreation dollars with your investment dollars . . . combine your hobby with your investment . . . combine your enjoyment of beauty and the artistic motif with the more mundane and practical profit-motif!!

The stock market is a horror for the little investor. The cost of living is now rising at 6.5 per cent annually, yet savers are only allowed 5% to 6% interest on their savings. Deduct 25% to 33% of this for state and federal income tax and the real bank interest only amounts to 3¾% to 4%. So . . . the investor is actually losing 2% to 2¼% yearly!

Inflation battled will continue from time to time . . . some minor . . . some bad . . . in the years ahead. The investor should take heed of what is happening to investors today . . . and consider the HARD investments (rare stamps, coins, paintings and antiques).

Dear Coinage reader: We decided to let our subscribers write this ad with their unsolcited comments. If you would like to find out what they are talking about, you know where to find us. Best regards, John Kamin, Editor.

IN COMMEMORATIVE HALVES?

Are you intrigued by this strange and unique series of coins? Have you wondered WHY certain coins with mintages less than 30,000 TOTAL sometimes are advertised
for just a twenty dollar bill? The FORE-
CASTER has been publishing info on the commemorative series for several weeks! If you see certain prices start to move sharply upwards you can bet your last buck it is because investors with GUTS & INFO are getting theirs while the getting is good!
Would you like to have the inside track -- to find out the best purchases recommended by the FORECASTER? Are there certain dates around in bag quantities that should be sold? It is ONLY the FORECASTER
(that we know of) among the many coin advisory services that has and recent "in-depth" coverage on the commemorative halves. And our clients have been the beneficiaries of that research and knowledge...while the rest of the investing public just went their merry way, twiddling their thumbs and missing out on the best buys in the series! Where were you, or did you fully intend "some day" to try out the FORE-

CASTER, but put it off?

The FORECASTER is definitely not for everyone - only those who like money, who like to be inside the market, those who like to measure objectively the security and profit potential of investments before they leap, and those who like exciting new ideas and are unafraid to open their minds to new horizons, to a wealth of new investment ideas. This might be just the opportunity you have been waiting for to CLIMB
ABOARD!

We have been calling the shots for knowledgeable investors for a long time. Occasionally we have been wrong, of course. But we probably wouldn't be around very long if we were wrong very often. Nor would the FORECASTER be the most expensive publication covering numismatic investments (among other things). During the past few years we have watched many coin advisory services come and go. Some last a year or two. Others die more quickly. Some simply cannot handle controversial subjects; others find themselves unable to go against the crowd, to engage in independent thought and research. Most of those that failed were merely blatant attempts to push their own dealer stock without regard for the welfare of the investor and his future.

But for you, this may be OPPOR-TUNITY KNOCKING. We are celebrating our EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY and as most firms that have something to celebrate,
there is a special offer made up for you to entice you to PARTICIPATE WITH US.

If you will try the FORECASTER for six months, and judge for yourself over the next 24 issues we will send you:

(A) Special reports number 23, number 24, number 25 and number 26 all of which discuss commemorative recommendations.
Single copy total value of the four special reports is $5.00.

(B) We will send you the new 1971 edition
of GUIDEBOOK OF U.S. COINS by the famous Mr. Yeoman, price $2.50.

(C) You will get the next 24 issues of the
FORECASTER, as they are published, a $22 value. You will receive all three of the above, a $29.50 value, only during our special celebration, for $22, the regular price of the subscription alone. Remittance must accompany your order, and you must use the coupon below to receive gifts (A) &
(B) with your subscription. SEND TODAY!
(All Plus the Next 24 issues of the FORE-CASTER).

SILVER DOLLARS STILL LEAD ACTIVITY

Roll Bidding Increases—But At Rather Low Levels

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

This is the week of the ANA SHOW in St. Louis—and many dealers are away from their teletype machines. Still, moderate trading has been recorded in some areas—with silver dollar rolls again leading the activity. There are still numerous dates which cannot now be purchased—even with regular daily bidding and higher bid prices. Some of these dates, we might add, are the very same ones which were offered for sale at somewhat lower prices only a couple of months ago. Also, there are several New Orleans rolls which seem virtually unavailable in choice condition. The 1887-O, 1890-O 1891-O rolls, for example, are offered relatively often—but these rolls almost invariably turn out to be extremely flat strikes. In several instances, dealers and investors are willing to pay a considerable premium for well-struck rolls (on even singles). Their buy requests go by unanswered for the most part.

Buyer interest has picked up to a considerable extent for the three "S" mint proof sets. The 1968 set has registered sales this week at $6.50, the 1969 set at $5.40 and the 1970 set as high as $9.25. As is usual in these cases, the ask levels manage to keep somewhat ahead of the bids—and sales have remained rather scattered.

Here is a run-down of the ASK prices for rolls of proof "S" mint singles from these proof sets. Interest in these rolls centers mostly around the halves—and to some extent for the quarters and dimes; the nickels and cents, as you can see from the prices, aren't in much demand.

	Cents	Nickels	Dimes	Quarters	Halves
1968	$18	$18	$95	$45	$70
1969	$18	$18	$90	$40	$67
1970	$18	$18	$95	$40	$140

Speculation continues about the 1970 half dollar—the possibility that none will be produced for regular "business use". One thing to consider, however, is that the mint has already accepted orders for 1970 Mint Sets—which, presumably will contain a half dollar.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Again virtually no price changes; several dates remain on "want lists" at or just below current bid levels. Bargain hunters are only occasionally successful.

NICKELS: Quite a number of both Buffalo and Jefferson rolls have begun to appear on buying lists; price changes, however, have been minimal. The BU single sets of Wartime nickels should be considered a good investment at today's price of $16 or so.

1935D - Very seldom offered; bid at a higher $265

1945P - Available this week at a lower $62.50

1950D - Up $5—bid now $320

DIMES: A few dates in the Roosevelt series are in mild demand at current levels—among them are 1951-P & D, 1952-P & D and 1953-D. The Mercuries are nearly unchanged and most later dates can be located without very much trouble.

QUARTERS: A couple of small gains have been registered—most issues are steady.

1937D - One of the better buys (when available); bid now $300

1941S - Up slightly—with bids at $185

1955D - Scattered interest at a slightly higher $85

HALVES: For both the Walking Liberties and Franklins there have been only the slightest price fluctuations; trading volume remains light.

1946D - Investor interest at today's bargain price; bid now $137.50

1948P - A sale or two noted at $117.50

1953D - Still advancing—with bids at $25

1958P - Buyers are "in the market" at the bid level of $27

DOLLARS: Quite a number of additional plus signs—especially for the medium priced rolls. Circ bags are still bid at $2100, BU Morgan bags at $2535 and BU Peace Dollar bags at $2350.

1878 (8tF) - Up another $5; bid now $190

1878P - Also up again this week with bids as high as $77.50

1885S - Bid reaches $205

1890S - Bid reaches $105

1891O - Choice rolls are difficult to locate; bid now at $195

1897P - Bid reaches $80

PROOF SETS: The "S" mint sets are all in demand—with the most interest still being shown for the 1970 set.

1952 - Sales at a higher $33.50

1953 - Bid moves up to $22.50

1956 - Quantity sales recorded at $7.50

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

losing..."

Dear Coinage reader: We decided to let our subscribers write this ad with their unsolicited comments. If you would like to find out what they are talking about, you know where to find us. Best regards, John Kamin, Editor.

IN COMMEMORATIVE HALVES?

Are you intrigued by this strange and unique series of coins? Have you wondered
WHY certain coins with mintages less than 30,000 TOTAL sometimes are advertised
for just a twenty dollar bill? The FORE-
CASTER has been publishing info on the commemorative series for several weeks! If you see certain prices start to move sharply upwards you can bet your last buck it is because investors with GUTS & INFO are getting theirs while the getting is good!

Would you like to have the inside track - to find out the best purchases recommended by the FORECASTER? Are there certain dates around in bag quantities that should be sold? It is ONLY the FORECASTER
(that we know of) among the many coin advisory services that has and recent "in-depth" coverage on the commemorative halves. And our clients have been the beneficiaries of that research and knowledge while the rest of the investing public
just went their merry way, twiddling their thumbs and missing out on the best buys in the series! Where were you, or did you fully intend "some day" to try out the FORE-
CASTER, but put it off?

The FORECASTER is definitely not for everyone - only those who like money, who like to be inside the market, those who like to measure objectively the security and profit potential of investments before they leap, and those who like exciting new ideas
and are unafraid to open their minds to new horizons, to a wealth of new investment ideas. This might be just the opportunity
you have been waiting for to CLIMB
ABOARD!

We have been calling the shots for knowledgeable investors for a long time. Occasionally we have been wrong, of course. But we probably wouldn't be around very long
if we were wrong very often. Nor would the FORECASTER be the most expensive publication covering numismatic investments
(among other things). During the past few years we have watched many coin advisory services come and go. Some last a year or two. Others die more quickly. Some simply cannot handle controversial subjects; others find themselves unable to go against the crowd, to engage in independent thought and research. Most of those that failed were merely blatant attempts to push their own
dealer stock without regard for the welfare of the investor and his future.

But for you, this may be OPPOR-TUNITY KNOCKING. We are celebrating
our EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY and as most firms that have something to celebrate,
there is a special offer made up for you to entice you to PARTICIPATE WITH US.

If you will try the FORECASTER for six months, and judge for yourself over the next 24 issues we will send you:

(A) Special reports number 23, number 24,
number 25 and number 26 all of which discuss commemorative recommendations.
Single copy total value of the four special
reports is $5.00.

(B) We will send you the new 1971 edition
of GUIDEBOOK OF U.S. COINS by the famous Mr. Yeoman, price $2.50.

(C) You will get the next 24 issues of the
FORECASTER, as they are published, a
$22 value. You will receive all three of the above, a $29.50 value, only during our special celebration, for $22, the regular price of the subscription alone. Remittance must accompany your order, and you must use the coupon below to receive gifts (A) &
(B) with your subscription. SEND TODAY!
(All Plus the Next 24 issues of the FORE-CASTER).

NOW YOU CAN EXPERTLY GRADE COINS USING OVER 1000 ACTUAL COIN PHOTOGRAPHS!

A fantastic new grading book called "Photograde" by James F. Ruddy has just been released. More than 1000 actual high-resolution photographs of over $100,000.00 worth of coins fill this big 8 1/2" by 5 1/2" 208 page book. Both the obverse and reverse of every copper, silver and gold type coin is illustrated. An accurate detailed description for each side of every coin enables anyone to expertly grade every U.S. coin. Exclusive information and photographs on how to grade colonial coins - spot counterfeits - recognize die breaks, adjustment marks and "clash" marks - over dates and recut dates - split grades - expert cleaning techniques - and many other important features not found in any other grading book make this an absolute must for every collector and dealer. Remember, if you cannot correctly grade coins you may be throwing your money away! Only $4.95 postpaid.

1970-S PROOF SETS ZOOM UP Circulated Mercury Dimes Appear Frequently on Want Lists

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

The bid for common silver bags reached the 30%-31% range at one point early in the week—with Wartime nickels receiving bids of as much as $360 per bag. Trading volume remained light—and most of the bags offered were priced a couple of percentage points over bid. At week's end, the bid had leveled again at the 28% that was reported last week. Since the price varies from day to day, there is really no way of course, to accurately forecast the bid for Monday or Tuesday of next week.

The 1970-S proof set has rather successfully dominated teletype activity during the week—with bids reaching $12.25—and the ask, as usual, managing to keep somewhat ahead of the bid. The 1970 set is not being traded in the large lots that were available in both 1968 and 1969. This is due, obviously, to the fact the individual orders were reduced to four sets—from the twenty which were allowed per order for the two earlier years. The 1970 set will, however, be gathered into larger lots—in fact, that is what is currently taking place. The presently "hot" 1970-S proof halves, by the way, are now bid at $200 per roll.

Considerable interest continues to be registered for circulated Mercury Dimes. Dealer buying lists are growing longer—both for cull-free "average circ" rolls and "fine to better" rolls and singles. There are numerous dates in this popular series which are seldom available in quantity—especially in any better than AG condition. It appears that at least a few investors see the potential in this series and regardless of current scarcity, it will never be easier to accumulate rolls and sets from 1916 thru 1945. As often happens in a series, it is not the lower mintage semi-key dates which are the most difficult to locate. The 1926-S, 1930-S and 1931-D & S can be found rather easily by the roll—and in "fine and better" if desired (the 26-S is a bit tougher than the others). But try to buy a high grade roll of 1916-S, 1917-D, 1919-D, 1925-D or 1928-D—virtually impossible! In these dates, the investor is now willing to buy by the single coin—perhaps eventually ending up with a really unusual roll for his investment portfolio. Price advances in this area seem inevitable.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Prices remain generally firm at current levels—with only minor adjustments noted; sales volume continues to be extremely light.

NICKELS: Several Buffalo rolls prove elusive at today's bid level; the Jeffersons are virtually unchanged—with some interest noted for circ sets and circ roll sets (within present price ranges).

1935D - Still none offered to bidders—at a higher bid of $270

1935S - Bid moves up to $182.50

1936S - Bid moves up to $100

1937D - A sale or two registered around $80

1950D - Up another $5—bid now $325

DIMES: Neither the Mercuries nor the Roosevelts have recorded much activity this week. A few "want lists" continue to include several dates—at "below market" bids, for the most part. The circ roll set bid has moved up to $340.

1951P, 53S & 54S - These three edge slightly higher

1953D - Sales noted at $11

1957D - Sales noted at $22

QUARTERS: A few widely scattered gains; as with the dimes, low bids are noted for many dates.

1936P - Up $5—bid level now $180

1941S - Still elusive at $187.50 bid

1948S - Transactions recorded at $38

1955D - Transactions recorded at $85

HALVES: Several small advances have been registered by the later date Franklins; the early dates—and the Walking Liberties—are basically firm at today's prices (with only occasional sales noted).

1948P & D - Some interest continues at current bid levels

1953D - Sales as high as $27

1958P - Sales noted at a higher $28

1960D & 61D - Both edge slightly upward

DOLLARS: Circ cull-free rolls of dollars are now bid at a higher $42.70—they are difficult to locate. The BU rolls are nearly unchanged in light trading.

PROOF SETS: A few of the earlier dates are available at lower prices; the "S" mint sets continue to dominate trading.

1941 & 1942 - Both are now offered at $86

1942 (t2) - Available at a lower $100

1955 - Flat pack sales noted at $20

1968S - Bid at a higher $6.60

1969S - Bid at a higher $5.60

1970S - Topping the action—with bids and sales as high as $12.25

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

To say that coin investors won't become greedy again would be far too optimistic. The get-rich-quick speculators have probably realized the error of their ways, it is true, but eventually a new generation of investors will take over. These people will also be looking for instant wealth. How long will it take for another bunch to take over? Some say ten years is about right. This places the date of the next speculative wave at about 1974. In the meantime those that are now waiting on the long-expected coin market rebound will be satisfied with the old-fashioned values in coin investing. They will go for the conservative coin issues, the older, rarer coins that have real value. There will be a turning toward the "common" rolls, especially those that the CIC Poll has found to be scarcer than supposed! Only those "blue chip" rolls that have definitely been proven (by the CIC Poll) to be as rare as their mintage and price indicates will continue to be in demand!

The upswing will probably come upon the issuance of the new Ike dollar coin and will be led by the rolls and singles where the available supply is limited! Mintages from here on are not going to mean that a coin is positively scarce or common.

Coin investors of the future will want their portfolios to contain only those single coins and uncirculated rolls that have values based on the available supply on hand . . . and not on just the price or mintage figure! This will be the coin investment of the future . . . the investment that will be conservative by nature with a base built on TRUE WORTH!! Only then can the coin investor have safety and stability!

In the past many coin speculators have thought they were taking "calculated risks." Speculation is defined as "taking calculated risks." Instead, however, many have been engaged in pure gambling that could not be called speculating or investing by any stretch of the imagination! It is my hope that the CIC Poll will place coin investors on the right track again where they will respect true values instead of worshipping imagination. That will be a welcome change.

It's a bold new approach to coin investing . . . this selecting of rolls on the basis of AVAILABLE SUPPLY ON HAND. It will be hard to break away from the pattern used in the past, where roll prices were mostly based on the size of the mintage and even on the artificial high price that had been set by other speculators. The coin investor of the future will buy only those uncirculated rolls that are being held in limited amounts . . . and this investor will want to know DEFINITELY just how many rolls are being held by collectors, dealers and investors! It's going to be a whole new game!

And, as in any other investment, the quality of the investment is going to be a vital factor in selecting coins. Patience and common sense is to be rewarded in the future if the coin investor builds up a portfolio of short-supply rolls!!

Coin collectors and coin investors have been asking "how rare is it" for decades and no one has every had much of an answer to offer. True, there could be a demand for a single coin or an uncirculated roll, but it didn't necessarily mean that the coin was in short supply. The CIC Poll is finding out that many of the blue chip, low mintage issues are being held in sizeable quantities . . . while many of the common, high mintage rolls are really quite rare . . . not many being held today by the dealers or investors!

Even a high price tag on an issue doesn't absolutely mean that the coin is being held in small supply. When a price is determined by inference only . . . when the so-called rarity is determined by inference . . . it being inferred that the coin is rare because the price is high . . . or the price is high because it is inferred that the coin is rare . . . we have a pretty shaky base for an investment.

It is good to break through all of this mystery . . . to find out just how many uncirculated rolls were actually put aside during the year of issuance . . . every year . . . over a period of many years!

The first break-through in hundreds of years of coin trading!! The amazing thing about it all are the millions of dollars being spent yearly for rare coins and not-so-rare coins! The amount spent in a decade would be staggering!! Think of a half a billion dollars being tied up in coins over a period of years . . . all bought on the mere inference that they were almost rare, really rare or would be rare someday. All too often the coins traded were NOT rare and would never be rare . . . and were actually being traded by the ton and being hoarded away by the ton!!

I truly hope that the CIC Poll figure, and the data that will come from other polls in the future, will dramatically change these buying patterns!

"Making your money make more money is our business"

THE FORECASTER

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

1329 West 7th Street

Los Angeles, Calif. 90017

"I DON'T KNOW WHY THE (censored) I WAITED SO LONG...enclosed find check for $40 for 1 year subscription..."

"...your BEHIND THE SCENES reporting is a great help, particularly your reports of what is trading off the tapes and by phone... and your analysis of market rigging has saved me many dollars as a small dealer..."

"...$40 per year sounds like a lot of money but... I can easily see where I would have been several thousand dollars richer...had I been a subscriber earlier this year..."

"...your reporting of current events is strictly professional and has saved me hundreds of dollars in the stock market and real estate...the idea of having a full-time professional economist on your staff...top-notch!"

"...the FORECASTER puts me at least two months ahead of the general market...your staff has GUTS...and are not afraid to call 'em as they see them...no matter who the sacred cow..."

"...we read each issue three times...once rapidly...once slowly...and then again to make certain we have missed nothing...the kind of information not available anywhere else...please send as many back issues as you can and bill me for them..."

"...your publication is DYNAMITE...can't wait for next issue..."

"...anyone who has over $300 in coins...is missing something...keep up the good work...research is the best in the business..."

"...renew my subscription for two years, and during my vacation send the FORECASTER to me at..."

"...when Bill Willoughby passed on, we all felt sad, and wondered what would happen to the FORECASTER...and now we know...better than ever..."

"...your publication has changed my investment thinking in every sphere for the better...am now making money instead of losing..."

Dear Coinage reader: We decided to let our subscribers write this ad with their unsolicited comments. If you would like to find out what they are talking about, you know where to find us. Best regards, John Kamin, Editor.

IN COMMEMORATIVE HALVES?

Are you intrigued by this strange and unique series of coins? Have you wondered WHY certain coins with mintages less than 30,000 TOTAL sometimes are advertised for just a twenty dollar bill? The FORECASTER has been publishing info on the commemorative series for several weeks! If you see certain prices start to move sharply upwards you can bet your last buck it is because investors with GUTS & INFO are getting theirs while the getting is good! Would you like to have the inside track... to find out the best purchases recommended by the FORECASTER? Are there certain dates around in bag quantities that should be sold? It is ONLY the FORECASTER (that we know of) among the many coin advisory services that has and recent "in-depth" coverage on the commemorative halves. And our clients have been the beneficiaries of that research and knowledge while the rest of the investing public just went their merry way, twiddling their thumbs and missing out on the best buys in the series! Where were you, or did you fully intend "some day" to try out the FORECASTER, but put it off?

The FORECASTER is definitely not for everyone - only those who like money, who like to be inside the market, those who like to measure objectively the security and profit potential of investments before they leap, and those who like exciting new ideas and are unafraid to open their minds to new horizons, to a wealth of new investment ideas. This might be just the opportunity you have been waiting for to CLIMB ABOARD!

We have been calling the shots for knowledgeable investors for a long time. Occasionally we have been wrong, of course. But we probably wouldn't be around very long if we were wrong very often. Nor would the FORECASTER be the most expensive publication covering numismatic investments (among other things). Ouring the past few years we have watched many coin advisory services come and go. Some last a year or two. Others die more quickly. Some simply cannot handle controversial subjects; others find themselves unable to go against the crowd, to engage in independent thought and research. Most of those that failed were merely blatant attempts to push their own dealer stock without regard for the welfare of the investor and his future.

But for you, this may be OPPORTUNITY KNOCKING. We are celebrating our EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY and as most firms that have something to celebrate, there is a special offer made up for you to entice you to PARTICIPATE WITH US.

If you will try the FORECASTER for six months, and judge for yourself over the next 24 issues we will send you:

(A) Special reports number 23, number 24, number 25 and number 26 all of which discuss commemorative recommendations. Single copy total value of the four special reports is $5.00.

(B) We will send you the new 1971 edition of GUIDEBOOK of U.S. COINS by the famous Mr. Yeoman, price $2.50.

(C) You will get the next 24 issues of the FORECASTER, as they are published, a $22 value. You will receive all three of the above, a $29.50 value, only during our special celebration, for $22, the regular price of the subscription alone. Remittance must accompany your order, and you must use the coupon below to receive gifts (A) & (B) with your subscription. SEND TODAY! (All Plus the Next 24 issues of the FORECASTER).

ROLL MARKET MOSTLY STEADY Buffalo Nickels Present Interesting Investment Opportunity

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Mild investor interest in Buffalo Nickel rolls has been evident for the past few weeks. In most cases, so far, the bid has remained at recent levels—with buyers able to pick up the rolls they want without creating the usual quick advance in ask prices. Actually, Buffalo rolls are far from common—and the only rolls which are relatively easy to locate are from the various mints of 1936, 1937 and 1938-D. The fact is that even these dates are quite often "out of stock"—except, perhaps, for one or two of the country's major dealers. As soon as the investor starts assembling a BU roll "short set" (from 1934 thru 1938) he is in trouble. The 1934-P & D issues are very elusive—with the underpriced Philly issue being even more scarce than the tough Denver coin. The 1935-P & S rolls are often difficult to locate—and the 1935-D is nearly as scarce as the 1934's.

Another problem which plagues the buyer in this area is striking—two of the twelve rolls in this "short set" are almost impossible to find in sharply struck condition. And, to make matters worse, these two dates are 1934-D and 1935-D. So, when the investor finally locates these elusive rolls, he is almost always faced with the fact that they are poorly struck examples—with very little detail—especially on the reverse. We have seen rolls of these two dates which any but the most experienced numismatists would say were "AU"—when in actuality they had just been removed from the original wrap-pers.

So, at today's prices, this BU roll "short set" presents an excellent long-term investment—and something of a challenge to put together in choice condition. This "challenge" can bring out the "collector" that is almost always hidden somewhere in the investor. In future years, the twelve coins in this "short set" will be easily resold. Buffalo nickels are, of course, among our most beautiful coins and chances are that the popularity of the "short set" will increase as the earlier dates become even more expensive. To add a little spice, the investor might set about to include a choice BU roll of the 1938 D/S variety—making the "short set" into a baker's dozen.

This Week's Market

CENTS: As usual, several minor adjustments have been registered during the week—with very light trading recorded. A couple of the larger dealers continue to bid for numerous dates—at rather low levels.

NICKELS: Quite a number of lower ask levels—only scattered sales. As with the Lincolns, several dates are on buying lists at low bid prices. Some interest is still being shown for Buffalo rolls.

1936PDS - These three edge lower
1937D - Sales recorded at $82.50
1939S - Choice rolls now available at $310
1942P (t2) - Interest continues—but at a lower $150
1946S & 1948S - These two seem to interest investors
1950D - Transactions at the bid level of $325
1955P - Offered now at $34

DIMES: Very few changes noted for either the Mercuries or the Roosevelts: an occasional date is in mild demand—usually at current levels. BU Roosevelt sets have traded at $36.

1938S - Still none offered; bid reaches $210
1939D - Available at a lower $60
1955S - Offered in quantity around $15
1958P - Should be of interest at the current level of $13.50

QUARTERS: Here the prices are mixed—and activity a bit more evident. Several dates remain elusive.

1943S - Bid reaches $140
1944P - Still tough—with bids noted at a higher $30
1946S - Lower—offered now at $97.50
1954S & 1955P - These two edge slightly lower

1955D - Sales at a higher $88
1958P - Available this week at $39

HALVES: Scattered price changes—and scattered sales. Most dates are easily located.

1940S, 42S & 43S - All edge lower
1946D - A sale or two around $140
1955P - Some interest at a higher $112 bid

DOLLARS: Very slight changes for the rolls: moderate trading is registered. Circ bags are bid at $2125

BU Peace Dollar bags are bid at $2400
BU Morgan Dollar bags are bid at $2500

PROOF SETS: Trading volume has been very light this week; most of the recently offered large lots seem to have been withdrawn from the tapes.

1936 - Choice sets are bid at a higher $710
1937 - Also up—bid now $235
1955 - Further sales around $20
1963 - Now somewhat ahead of the other common dates—with sales as high as $3.65
1968S & 1969S - Both slip back a little
1970S - Still strong—with sales at $12.35-$12.50

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

ROLL CHANGES SLIGHT; PROOF SETS STIR

Mercury Dimes in The Late 30's Present Good Buys

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Last week we discussed the current long-range investment opportunities in Buffalo Nickel rolls. Equally as interesting are many of the Mercury Dime rolls from the same years—1934 thru 1938 (or, actually, up thru 1940). Several of these issues are almost never offered for sale by the roll—such as 1934-P & D, 1935-D and 1936-D (much the same dates as the more scarce Buffalos). Putting away rolls of these dates is most often accomplished by picking up a few gem pieces at a time. And, as with the nickels, the 1934-P is proving to be at least as elusive as the Denver issue—perhaps more so.

Nearly all of the other dates in the 1934-40 group are priced at attractive levels in the current market. Even mild bidding will see almost immediate price advances. Recent interest in the 1938-S roll has produced practically no offerings. The most easily located dates are 1936-P, 1937-P, 1939-D and 1940-PDS; of particular interest (at current prices) should be 1937-D, 1938-P and 1939-P.

There is no problem in assembling a BU roll "short set" of Mercury Dimes—1941 thru 1945 (a total of fifteen rolls—available for about $600-$625). For the investor who desires to go a step further, why not start with 1934 and really have something in the way of a very saleable investment? This run of thirty-five dates presents more of a challenge—but it is not an impossible task.

A word about subscription renewals. All subscriptions expire at the end of a month. We send postpaid renewal envelopes together with the last four issues. To avoid missing any issues, we suggest that you renew early in the month. When the renewal is sent in after the subscriber has received his third or fourth notice, it is possible that a delay in mail delivery coupled with subscription processing time will mean a missed issue. Also, if the subscriber receives another renewal envelope after he has mailed a check, it only means that the above mentioned time element has not fully elapsed—there is no reason for concern that the account has not been credited.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Nothing really new to report—price changes remain minimal and trading is, as usual, light and scattered. Numerous dates are still on "want lists" at low prices and dealers aren't anxious to accommodate the bidders. The 1960-P small date roll has registered several sales around $110.

NICKELS: An occasional single BU Jefferson set trades in the $85-$87.50 range; prices for the rolls are mostly steady.

1936P & D - Attractively priced at $82.50 each

1950D - Further sales registered at $325

1954S - The lowest price in years—ask only $4.50

DIMES: The Mercury rolls are unchanged (and the 38-S is still elusive at $210 bid); minor changes for the Roosevelts—single BU sets record a few sales in the $35-$37 area.

1953S - Offered this week at $17

1954S - Offered this week at $18

1955PDS - Scattered transactions within current price ranges

QUARTERS: The "P" mint rolls in the early 40's continue to interest investors—and the late dates (1966-69) are now appearing on buying lists.

1941P - Bid moves up to $40

1942P - Bid moves up to $34

1944P - Still elusive—bids of $31 produce few if any sales

1947S - Sales noted as low as $80 (still more scarce than the 46-S)

HALVES: Interest has increased (within present price ranges) for choice BU

Walking Liberties in the 30's—singles and rolls; the dates in the 40's are firm. Franklin halves are virtually unchanged—with circ rolls of the key dates regularly on buying lists at today's "bid" prices.

1944D - Bid at a higher $122.50; quite difficult to locate

1955P - Sales noted as high as $115

1956P - Quantity bidding is noted—at low levels

DOLLARS: Very few changes; long buying lists are regularly monitored—but the bids are still too low to encourage trading. Bargain offerings in the Silver dollar market are few and far between.

1888O - Bid moves up to $54

1899P - Bid moves up to $315

1901O - Bid moves up to $55

1926P - None offered to bidders at $145

PROOF SETS: Small gains pepper the chart; ask prices, as always, manage to keep ahead of the bidders.

1953 - Interest at a higher $23

1957 & 1960 - Both receive bids of $4.75

1961 thru 1963 - All three edge slightly higher

1964 - Sales registered at a higher $5

1968S & 1969S - Both record advances

1970S - A bigger "bid-ask" spread: $11.50 now bid—ask is $12.75

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

Inflation does not seem so menacing when we figure the price increase PER YEAR. 5% to 6% doesn't seem so terrible and we'll even gladly, eagerly settle for 4% per year. But . . . figured over a period of ten years . . . this works out to a 40%, 50% or 60% INCREASE IN PRICES! When we look at it this way it doesn't seem so meager!

Of course if we can get 5% or 6% on savings certificates we think we are holding our own, providing, of course, one leaves his interest in the account year after year. As many of you know, it is so easy to spend that interest each year. But . . . before you can spend the interest Uncle Sam wants about 25% to 30%, or more, of that interest. And the State also wants about one seventh of what the Federal government wants. So . . . we end up with a figure closer to 3½% to 4%. If inflation persists at the 5% to 6½% yearly rate then the average man is losing about 1½% to 2½% EVERY YEAR . . . on his SAVINGS.

If this average man is getting some wage increases he is fortunate but if past experience is any indication of what is to come then we can expect most of these wage increases to be wiped out by higher living expenses. He'll break even, which is good, I guess. It is his SAVINGS that seems to lie unprotected!

Trying to find a haven against taxes and inflation is not easy today. The stock market appears to be a wall street jungle. Latest investigations in the stock market appear to show that the "floor" specialists and their "specialist book" leave much to be desired. Some now want the specialist to be eliminated in favor of computers. Higher broker commissions for the little investor are now a fact. Many little investors are finding that they are not welcome in the stock market. It costs too much to handle their little accounts. Small purchases are time-taking and bothersome. The little guy is finding it harder to break into the market. Higher fees and charges are specially created to discourage him and keep him out of the market. Real estate investments are fine but many beginners are finding out to their sorrow that this is a field that requires a great deal of training and experience. It is not as simple as some had believed. It is getting to the point now where it is extremely difficult to anticipate which way the growth is going. If the choice is wrong one might have to wait for many, many years . . . and all the time paying higher and higher taxes each and every year that the property is being held. If the land is being bought on time there is the interest payments to think about. Recently the government decided to tighten up on the prepaid interest arrangements that made land investment an attractive thing. Now one can not use advance prepaid interest as a tax dodge. Today it is very easy to buy acreage at prices that are too high. When the subdivider comes around many are finding that he'll offer no more than was paid for the land. Another instance of the little fellow buying at RETAIL and then having to sell at RETAIL. One has to know how to buy land at a low enough price so that it will be attractive enough for the wholesale subdivider later on! One has to know when a price is too high and when it is a bargain. And one has to be extremely careful in the purchasing of vacant lots. Too many lot prices take a few steps backward before they again advance. Check in your areas and you'll find that this does happen, particularly if you paid the seller's price without too much thought or investigation! Yes, it's a rough game this investing in real estate.

So . . . what is left for the little fellow? As I have pointed out many times before . . . there are the SOLID investments that are based on scarcity. A diminishing supply going along with an increasing market and demand! These would include precious stones and metals, antiques, paintings, prints, rare stamps, rare coins.

Of course I am speaking of material that is short in supply. In other words . . . the AVAILABLE SUPPLY is limited and ACTUAL AMOUNTS on hand . . . KNOWN!! You can't go wrong, in my estimation, when you pick such rare material. It can only get rarer as the years go by and the population grows . . . and of course it is getting OLDER at the same time . . . which doesn't hurt one bid!!

There is something about a "Hard" investment of limited supply that fits into the INFLATION picture . . . particularly rare silver and gold coins! You may expect much of this RARE material to jump in value as a new demand is created and that demand could come during the year that the new Ike dollar is issued!!

NOW YOU CAN EXPERTLY GRADE COINS USING OVER 1000 ACTUAL COIN PHOTOGRAPHS!

A fantastic new grading book called "Photograde" by James F. Ruddy has just been released.

More than 1000 actual high-resolution photographs of over $100,000.00 worth of coins fill this big 8 1/2" by 5 1/2" 20B page book. Both the obverse and reverse of every copper, silver and gold type coin is illustrated. An accurate detailed description for each side of every coin enables anyone to expertly grade every U.S. coin. Exclusive information and photographs on how to grade colonial coins - spot counterfeits - recognize die breaks, adjustment marks and "clash" marks - over dates and recut dates - split grades - expert cleaning techniques - and many other important features not found in any other grading book make this an absolute must for every collector and dealer. Remember, if you cannot correctly grade coins you may be throwing your money away! Only $4.95 postpaid.

Dealers write for wholesale prices.

COMMEMS & PROOF SETS MOVE UP Choice BU Early Walking Liberties are Tough to Locate

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Commemoratives are again "on the move". Want lists have grown longer in the past couple of weeks—and numerous issues are being asked for in quantity. The 1920 Pilgrim, in particular, seems to be of major interest to dealers and investors. (This one was recently pointed out as an excellent investment by a leading advisory publication.) Several of the lower mintage PDS sets are regularly bid for—apparently a larger percentage of collectors are becoming interested in date collecting rather than just collecting by type.

It is interesting, by the way, to compare the 1971 Guidebook listings for commems with the 1970 listings. Most of the changes are reasonable and are in line with the current market. However, these price changes are obviously done far in advance of the release date of the book. With all of the interest in the 1938 PDS Arkansas Set (bid is now $76), the Guidebook lowered the listing from $72.50 to $65! Also, the 1936-S Oregon (mintage only 5,006) was raised only one dollar—from $19 to $20—while teletype bids have generally been in the $27-$28 range for months now. The largest single jump was, of course, for the 1921 Pilgrim—from $22.50 to $65!

Another area of considerable interest—and one in which buying is extremely difficult—is early BU Walking Liberty halves. Dealer buying lists continually include such issues as 1917-D (Rev), 1918-D, 1919-PDS, 1920-DS, 1921-PDS, 1923-S, 1927-S, 1928-S, etc. These dates—as well as most of the others before 1934—are very scarce in choice BU condition. Nearly all of the pieces offered turn out to be "sliders" or weak strikes—and the percentage of returned coins is staggering. Even a few serious collectors can keep the available supply of the gem Walking Liberties to a minimum.

Proof sets continue to register small gains. Investors obviously feel that the "bottom" has been reached and that now is the time to pick up a quantity of their favorite sets. The 1952 and 1953 sets are in considerable demand—as well as the "common date" 1961, '62 and '63 sets. It might be wise for the investor to consider the 1956 set at today's price of $8 or so—one of the best buys in the entire line-up at this level.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Virtually all early dates are firm at current levels; several of the later "P" mint rolls are offered in quantity at slightly lower prices. The 1955-S roll has registered sales at a higher $10.50.

NICKELS: Prices are lightly mixed; trading volume is light—as most bids remain rather conservative.

1938D (B) - Strongly bid at $75
1946S & 1948S - Considerable investor interest at current prices
1948D - Choice rolls are again available at $32
1950D - Quite a lot of activity—with sales noted as high as $330
1951D - Again priced in the $31-$33 range

DIMES: Only the slightest changes for the Mercurys and Roosevelts. Interest is still evident for such dates as 46-D, 51-P, 51-D, 53-D, 55-S and 57-D—but bidders are mostly looking for bargains.

QUARTERS: A few more small advances have been recorded by the Washingtons; otherwise, prices are firm—and trading is moderate.

1944P - Still tough to locate; bid reaches $32
1947P - Another scarce "P" mint; bid now $45
1955P - A few rolls are offered at $24
1955D - Edging back up—with bids noted at $88

HALVES: Minor price fluctuations for both the Walking Liberty and Franklin rolls. Several bids have been monitored for BU roll sets of Franklins (at $2600) and circ roll sets (at a higher $600).

1939D, 1944D & 1946D - All are elusive—with slightly higher bids
1950D - Offered this week at a lower $142.50
1955P - Another small gain—bid now at $115

DOLLARS: Common date BU rolls are now all bid at a higher $51—with VG and better circ bags bid at $2200 (circ rolls are bid at a higher $43.50). The later date New Orleans rolls are again of interest to investors.

1881P - Bid now at a higher $77.50
1891CC - Offered at a slightly lower $355
1899P - Up another $5—with bids recorded at $320
1901O - Bid now at a higher $57
1904O - Transactions registered at $58.50

PROOF SETS: Plus signs continue to dot the chart; quantities are wanted of most later dates.

1952 - Up another $2—bid now $35
1953 - Bid moves up to $23.50
1955 - Bid moves up to $21
1961 & 1962 - Bid by the hundred at $3.50
1963 - Still ahead of the '61 & '62—with bids this week at $3.80
1970S - Now leveling off; bid $10.50—ask $11

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

MARKET OUTLOOK BRIGHTENS Type Coins, Commems & Scarce Rolls in Demand

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

The general "feeling" of the market seems to be one of optimism. Several dealers—in recent weeks—have expressed their opinion that the bottom has been reached in most areas and that things "are looking up". Teletype activity reflects this outlook. Buying lists are longer—bidding is more active—and the lists of available material now include less of the really desirable material. We have even begun to see the plus signs outnumber the minus signs—for a welcome change. No, the coin market is not "booming"—but, on the otherhand, the "buyer's market" seems to be diminishing and, in many instances, it is obviously going to take higher bids to bring results. Let us hope this trend continues.

The demise of one teletype circuit seems to have created more—rather than less—interest in teletypes. New circuits are in the planning stages and the final result is most likely going to be more teletype members than before. If this happens, even a small increase in the number of buyers is likely to cause substantial price advances in some areas.

The most wanted material continues to be choice type material (with very reasonable bids being monitored), commemorative and the scarce rolls in the Buffalo nickels and the silver denominations. The word "scarce" is used, rather than "low mintage", because the two terms have been treated as the same for too long a time already. For rolls after 1940, it is seldom the lowest mintage which is the hardest to find. As one example, bidders are still having a heck of a time finding even a few rolls of 1944-P quarters—but how long do you think it would take to put together ten or twenty rolls of the low mintage 1946-S?

Another area of strong interest is GOOD to FINE type coins in bulk—large cents, Indian head cents, two and three cent pieces, seated half dimes and dimes, etc. These coins are in demand by the hundred—and, in general, most want lists remain unfilled. Few dealers, of course, have this material in bulk (even the hoards of Indian head cents have been dispersed)—usually what they have in stock is barely sufficient for their own needs. The large lots which, in the past, were relatively easy to pick up from those mythical "little ol' ladies" have become few and far between. Price advances for this common material have already begun to be registered.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Selling lists continue to include virtually all dates from 1934 on—as well as such scarce rolls as 1930-PS, 1931-P, 32-PD and 1933-PD; sales volume is as light as ever. Buying interest is noted—at a price—from early "S" and "D" mint circ rolls.

NICKELS: The lower-priced "common date" Buffalo rolls are in mild demand—in the $75-$77.50 range. Prices are mixed and sales are light for the Jeffersons; the bid for the BU Wartime roll set has edge up to $615.

1942P (II) - Still very hard to locate; bid now $152.50

1946S & 1948S - Interest at current levels continues; few offered

1950D - Transactions recorded again at $330

DIMES: The better date Mercuries in the 30's are seldom available; a few gains are registered by the lightly traded Roosevelts.

1950D - Bid moves up to $85—where are they?

1951P - Bid now at $24.50

1952D - Bid now at $20

1953D - Still edging higher; bid now $11

1955S - This one is lightly lower—at $15 ask

QUARTERS: A few small advances; otherwise, prices are quite firm.

1942D - Always tough to find; bid now $88.50

1944P - Bid now at $33; none available

1945P & 1946P - These two also edge higher

1950S & 1951S - Both receive regular bids at current levels, also none available

1955D - A sale or two around $88-$90

HALVES: The BU roll set of Franklins is bid at a higher $2325—and the BU "short roll set" (1941-47) of W.L. Halves is receiving bids of $2650. Roll prices have registered only minor changes.

1946D - Bid now at $139—quite elusive

1948D - Up this week with bids at $64

1949D & 1949S - Both interest investors at the current bid level of $240

1951D - Offered now at $220

DOLLARS: Circulated rolls and bags dominate the dollar "want lists"—with rolls bid as high as $45 and VG and better bags as high as $2270. BU rolls show only a few changes.

1878CC - Frequently on buying lists at the current bid of $230

1888O - Mild interest at a higher $54.50

1890O - Sharp jump—from $190 to $225 bid

1926P - Bid moves up to $147.50

PROOF SETS: No changes except for the 1970-S set—which is actually seldom traded at the present bid-ask prices. While dealers have lowered their bid to about $9.50—sellers are few and far between at less than $10.25-$11.00.

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

It is going to be "touch & go" for the Eisenhower dollar coin if we are expecting to bring it out in time for the President's birthday, October 14th. The way things are dragging it appears that AT BEST we cannot expect the Amended version of the House Banking Holding bill (now the most important piece of "Ike" dollar legislation) to reach the Senate before the very end of September. More time then will be needed if some sort of compromise bill is to get through the Senate and the House of Representatives, so this could lead to a possible passage if all goes well by the late, late fall months. And that brings us right up to the General's birthday date.

I don't know if the Treasury department already has this dollar piece designed, and if they have the presses waiting at this moment to "roll" . . . or do whatever they do to mint these pieces. Because there is a fight going on as to whether the dollar is to be 40% silver or of the cupro-nickel "sandwich" type it is probably going to be difficult for the Treasury department to have things planned out to the last detail. These are two different methods of production and would require different machinery and different departments to "make-ready" . . . depending on what the "word" is!

Vocal Congresswoman Leonor Sullivan (D-Mo.) and her subcommittee has jurisdiction over this coin legislation. She seems to believe that the coin WILL go into production in time for the late President's October 14th birthday! Still she is willing to admit that "anything could happen on this legislation." Congressman Patman, of course, wants the supro-nickel Ike dollar. Some in the Senate believe that they can arrange some sort of compromise whereby Congressman Patman will get some things he wants in the bank regulation bill in exchange for allowing silver to be used in the Ike dollar.

It is also possible that he may back down and agree to a 40% silver Ike dollar because the bill will not place any of these SILVER dollars into CIRCULATION. They will be sold to the public only for numismatic purposes at a good profit to the government. Only the copper sandwich dollars will go into circulation. This appears to be very attractive to the Senators and Representatives . . . they like the totals that are being presented . . . $728,500,000 in receipts to come from the sale of 130 million 40% silver dollars and 20 million proof dollars, providing the prices are fixed at $5 and $10. The same amount of silver that will go into these 40% silver Ike dollars would only bring approximately $84 million at present GSA sales rate. That is quite a difference and we can see why many want silver in these dollar coins. It would be much harder to get $5 and $10 for them if they were the common cupro-nickel variety! Yes, it is a very attractive and profitable way for the government to sell its silver.

It is planned to sell the proof dollars over a period of four years and the uncirculated dollars over a period of two years. Latest suggestion is to accept orders at some 44,000 Post Offices. Another job for the overworked postal clerks. Special computers would be used to make certain that orders would be guarded against excessive duplicate ordering.

While all of this is going on the government is going to be trying to get rid of the three million or so valuable silver dollars that they already have on their hands! Coming at the same time as the Ike dollar the numismatic world could be in for some exciting times during the next six months! How will the sale be handled? Probably on some sort of mailorder bid basis, where a minimum price would be set for certain groups. If more people wanted certain categories than others than the minimum would be raised. Alternate higher bids that the mailorderer would enclose would decide just who was to get a coin. A limit of ten coins would be set per person . . . one of each of the ten categories now being considered. All of this sounds great . . . doesn't it? We need the excitement right now . . . that is certain. The numismatic industry needs this "shot in the arm" and it appears that we are finally going to get it! I have felt right along that the REBIRTH of the DOLLAR SERIES is a fair exchange for the troubles inflicted upon us in 1964-65! And the DOLLAR boom that could very well result just might set off a wave of booms that will cover every area of numismatics . . . eventually. First will come the Eisenhower Dollar speculation wave . . . and more waves. Finally the ripples will reach back to the older Peace Dollars and then further back . . . until the whole series awakens!! From then on . . . anything can happen to other parts of the numismatic world!

SUPERB UNC 1941-P LINCOLN—Originally bought as a proof, the coin is flawless and has high square borders and a proof rim—however, it is probably not a proof—only an exceptionally choice UNC—$22.50

1829/27 UNCIRCULATED BUST HALF DOLLAR—only the slightest handling friction keeps this coin from the GEM category - sharply struck
Catalog $80.00—price $47.50

Choice full horn VF 1915-S Buffalo—no detracting marks, uncleaned - only—$19

Ten 1965 and five 1966 SPECIAL MINT SETS—as a lot - only—$35 (below bid)

Ten cull-free circ rolls 1943-D Jeffersons—as a lot—$195.00

Morgan Dollars: 1891-O, 1892-O and Two 1892-P; These were bought as UNC but they are not—but nice XF to "slider" lot of four—$25.00

Five choice BU rolls 1955-P Dimes—as a lot—$195.00

LINCOLNS: "LOT A" 1915-D & S, 21-S, 22-D, 23-S, 24-D, 25-S, 26-S, 31-D, 32-P & D, 33-P & D - all sharp F & VF 13 pieces—$23.50

MERCURIES: Exceptionally nice lot of VF & XF coins: 16-P, 17-D, 18-P & S, 20-S, 26-S, 28-D, 31-P, 38-D & S 10 pieces—$42.50

Circulated Mercury Dime Rolls: Most earlier dates in the Mercury series are getting very difficult to find in quantity. I have just gotten a good buy in the following dates and offer them at these reasonable prices. All rolls are average circ unless specified.

COMMON DATE DOLLARS ARE HOT Many Rolls Prove To Be Elusive in Silver Series

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Plus signs have outnumbered losses again this week—and by a large margin. Most of these small price advances are being registered by rolls in the silver denominations which do not seem to be around in the quantities currently wanted. In general, the wanted dates in all three series are clustered in the early 50's. There are, of course, other dates which have been active—but the Philly and Denver coins of 1950 thru 1953 or 1954 have been particularly hard to buy. This is especially true for the dimes and quarters. Quite a number of gains have already been registered in this area—and several of the other dates are also regularly appearing on dealer want lists. Gains for these other dates seem inevitable within a week or so—1951-D dimes and quarters in particular.

Silver dollars—common dates, that is—are hot! Circ rolls of VG and better dollars have registered sales as high as $47.50—and some dealers want up to one hundred bags. BU Morgan bags are now bid at $2625 and Peace Dollar bags at $2500. Again the demand has far surpassed the supply which is currently available. This buying interest in common dates has somewhat detracted from trading in the more scarce issues for the time being—although prices are very firm in this area and three or four advances have been noted. The five issues of 1878 and the New Orleans and San Francisco rolls of 1890 and 1891 seem to be of particular interest at this time.

And as for proof sets, prices are also quite firm at recent levels—with slight gains noted for the 1961 thru 1964 sets. Quantities of these four sets are wanted and it looks as if $4 might soon again be the minimum price for a proof set. The 1970-S set has moved lower to the $9.00-$9.50 range—it is evident that most dealers and investors have developed a "wait and see" attitude toward this one. What the mint will do about regular issue 1970 halves is still anybody's guess—and interest in the 1970-S proof sets and in the 1970 mint sets is still speculative.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Prices are holding firm; trading remains light.

1941D & S - These two are relatively scarce; bids edge higher

1943S - Transactions at a slightly higher $21

1955S - Bid again levels at $10

NICKELS: Prices are mixed—several dates are still of mild interest to investors. Common date Buffalo rolls are still wanted—in the $77.50-$80.00 range this week.

1938S - Offered now at a lower $147.50

1942P (t2) - Higher—with sales noted at $157.50

1947S & 1948S - Both edge a little higher

1950D - Off $5—bid $325; ask $340

1951S - Interest is evident at $69

DIMES: Several small gains have been registered by the Roosevelts; a few rolls cannot be located in any quantity.

1947P - Offered now at a lower $23.50

1950D - Still higher—bid this week at $87.50

1951P - Tough to locate at $25

1952P - Underpriced—bid moves up to $17.50

1952D - Also up; bid now at $21

QUARTERS: The Washingtons are rather strong, numerous issues are very difficult to buy at today's price levels.

1943P - Bid now at a higher $55

1944P - Still in demand—at $33 bid

1949D - This one is lower; sales at $95

1950S & 1951S - Both remain on want lists

1952D & 1953D - Both edge slightly higher

1955P - Attractively priced at $24 ask

HALVES: The Franklins record a few minor advances. Quite a few dates are currently in demand.

1944D - Bid now $124—still elusive

1947D - Available at a lower $112.50

1950P - Up $2.50—with bids at $172.50

1952D & 1954D - These two advance slightly

1953P - Attractively priced in the $131-$135 range

DOLLARS: The "common date" BU Morgan rolls are very active—with any date now bid at $52.50 (bags at $2625); circulated rolls (VG and better) are bid now at a higher $47.

1890O - Up another $5—bid now $230

1892P - Bid moves up this week at $485

1934P - Higher—with bids at $350

1935P - Also up; bid now $205

PROOF SETS: The 1964 set is in demand (bid is higher at $5.20); the 1961, 1962 and 1963 sets remain on want lists—at slightly advanced levels.

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

FRANKLIN HALVES BEGIN TO STIR Price Gains Continue to Outnumber Losses in All Series

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Buyer interest in Franklin halves is becoming more and more evident—and most of the bidding this week has been unsuccessful. Eight rolls have registered price hikes during the week. Nearly all dates from 1948 thru 1956 (and scattered later dates) are now “wanted”—many of them in five and ten roll lots. The “ask” prices for most dates in the series had slipped lower and lower for many months—buyer attention has been centered elsewhere. In many cases, these lower price levels were the result of only a very few rolls actually being offered for sale. When these few rolls were picked off by astute investors, the available supply at these low prices became almost nil. The 1949-PDS rolls are good examples. All three were offered in recent months—with the prices edging five dollars or so lower each week. They were not offered in quantity—only a couple of rolls of each. Now these few rolls have been sold and bidders find that there aren’t any more for sale at these prices. Continued interest would see substantial gains for these and such other dates as 1948-P & D, 1950-P & D, 1951-D, 1953-P & S, etc.

The “P” and “D” mint dimes and quarters in the early 50’s also continue to be of interest to numerous buyers—with several more gains recorded again this week. These dates are often wanted in ten and twenty roll lots. Most “want lists” remain unfilled as dealers try increasing their bids ever so cautiously. Scattered sales have been noted for 1951-P & D, 1952-P & D, 1953-D and 1954-P & D—but only a few rolls at a time.

Though both silver dollars and proof sets are still in demand, the prices offered are basically the same as last week. Circ dollar rolls have recorded sales around $48—with BU bags still at $2600 or so for the Morgans and about $2500 for Peace Dollars. Proof sets from 1952 are still bid for in quantity—again pretty much at last week’s prices. Sales have remained relatively light although a few lots of one hundred or so of the lower priced sets have changed hands. There seems to be a feeling of optimism—at least among some dealers—regarding the upside potential of proof sets in the next few months.

This Week's Market

CENTS: The bid level is still edging higher for the 1941-D & S rolls; the 55-S has registered sales again this week at $10. In general, the entire series remains relatively firm and still only lightly traded.

NICKELS: Any BU Buffalo roll is now bid at $80—with few offered for sale. Prices have fluctuated a little for the Wartime rolls—with the rest of the Jeffersons steady at recent levels.

- 1938D (B) - Transactions at a higher $80
- 1942P (II) - Still considerable interest in the $155-$160 area
- 1943S & 1945S - Both are now bid at $24
- 1944D & S; 1945P & D - These four edge slightly lower
- 1950D - Off another $5; available at $335

DIMES: Interest remains high for the Philly and Denver rolls from 1950 thru 1954; several small advances have been recorded.

- 1952P - Bid is now $18
- 1952D - Sales registered as high as $23
- 1953D - Nearly always on “want lists”; the bid has reached $11.50
- 1954P & D - Both edge a little higher
- 1955S - Of interest to investors—but only in the $13.50-$14.00 range

QUARTERS: Most of the activity is still centered around the rolls in the early 50’s—numerous gains are noted for these dates.

- 1950P - Bid moves up to $29
- 1951P - Bid moves up to $21.50
- 1951D - Bid moves up to $26
- 1952P & D Both are elusive even at this week’s higher bids
- 1955D - Sales recorded as high as $90

HALVES: The Walking Liberties have seen scattered sales this week—all within current price ranges. The Franklins, on the other hand, are now often difficult to locate—numerous price advances have been recorded for the better date rolls.

- 1949P - Bid this week at $275; none offered
- 1949D - Up $5—with bids at $245
- 1950P & D - Both advance $2.50; also very tough to find
- 1952P - Bid moves up to $38
- 1953P - Numerous attempts to buy at $135
- 1954D - Still advancing; bid now $17.50
- 1955P - Transactions as high as $120

DOLLARS: Several of the “common date” Morgan rolls have shown slight gains; buying has somewhat lessened in relation to the last couple of weeks.

- 1879S - Offered at a slightly lower $60
- 1880S, 81O & S, 82S - All four are now bid at $53
- 1892P - Choice rolls are available at $500
- 1902S - Scarce roll is offered at $1650

PROOF SETS: Only minor adjustments this week; buying lists are on the increase—mostly at the present “bid” prices. The 1970-S sets is now being traded in the $8-$8.50 range.

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

It is hard to accept, under today's conditions, the thought that an even bigger inflation boom is ahead, perhaps sometime around 1975. Short-term predictions by the government economists tell us that inflation is to be controlled next year. For the long-range prospects other economists are predicting that we are to have a big boom in the mid-seventies, accompanied by more inflation!

It is just as hard to accept, under today's numismatic conditions, the thought that a coin boom is ahead. Many have not stopped to realize the impact the issuance of the Eisenhower dollar coin will have on the numismatic economy. Many have not thought this over: this unusual coin means the revival, the reincarnation, of a coin series that has been dead for 35 years. Dead in the sense, of course, that continuing coins were not issued and for all practical purposes the series had reached a dead end!

In the history of numismatics we do not find many numismatic events to equal this coming Eisenhower one! And it will bring with it, mind you, an awakening for ALL of the numismatic world! The boom in the economy that is scheduled is also going to trigger off a boom for almost any kind of hobby! The amount of money that could be spent on coins, stamps, antiques and paintings during this coming boom will be unbelievable!!

I know that it is hard to believe that all of this will come true but the surging economy as a whole . . . the surging numismatic boom, triggered by inflation and the Eisenhower dollar . . . will surely make all of this come true. It will be too late then to pick up the bargains that are available today.

What better "hard" investment today is there . . . REALLY . . . than the silver half dollars and the silver dollars??

These are two investments that go hand in hand with INFLATION!! And what will gold be doing while the Eisenhower dollar is taking the numismatic industry for a trip to boomland? Will gold go to $3.00 an ounce? Washington's last scheduled silver auction is November 10th. There could be much higher prices for silver in 1971. Many think so. It is possible that this will be followed by a change in the price of gold. The historic silver-gold relationship could continue to hold!

There are reasons to believe that the 30 years of deficit spending and the inability to bring Federal spending within bounds is to bring on some serious problems in the months to come. The balance of payments seems to be now on its way to another deficit year! Deep economic trouble is now seen for Britain. Economists are now telling us that there is a worsening economic situation there that makes the short-term outlook at least most bleak! Things are far worse than they were when the last report was issued . . . and far worse than the government reports now indicate.

While, as yet, there is no suggestion officially of possible devaluation, Britain's most influential economic forecasting body, the National Institute of Economic and Social Research, has warned the government to be ready for a devaluation IF a program to stimulate economic growth is not brought forth and IF there is no adoption of a voluntary wage policy to check inflation quickly. I can't see where either are to come into being . . . so . . . that would leave the other choice . . . devaluation. And you know what happened to gold and gold coins the last time we went through all of this!!

The coin investor, while making sure that he has plenty of choice half dollar material and choice silver dollar material in his investment portfolio should certainly not overlook the gold coins. I can think of nothing better to round out a portfolio than some of the gold rarities! One has over 900 different dates, mints and varieties in the gold series to choose from! And that is just about ONE THIRD of ALL coins (prior to 1935) issued by our government. One can see that the gold coins play a very large role on our numismatic stage! Gold coins have a perfect record for steady appreciation . . . and even held up extremely well during the past numismatic slump and stock market slump.

When we stop to consider that these beautiful coins do represent ONE THIRD of all U.S. coins . . . the average coin investment portfolio just may not be carrying enough of them! Better review your holdings!

CHOICE TYPE MATERIAL IN HEAVY DEMAND Franklin Halves Continue Upward Move; Most Dates are Elusive

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Buyer interest for choice type coins continues to run high—and bid prices have been edging upward with dealer attempt to locate an adequate stock. The available supply of truly BU pieces of most types obviously falls short of current demand and future price advances are virtually assured. This week we will list the current "bid" prices for several of the more popular and reasonably priced type coins. Remember, these bids are for choice BU coins—"sliders" are being returned to the shippers at a great rate.

Large cents are bid around $27.50-$30—for "red and brown" uncirculated pieces. BU specimens are quite scarce and bring considerably higher prices ("processed" large cents should be avoided—as resale becomes quite a problem). Indian Head cents are bid around $200 per roll—or at $4.50 per single. At these prices, neither the large cents nor Indians are easy to locate.

Choice two-cent pieces are currently bid at $18.50; three-cent nickel pieces at $14.50 and three-cent silver pieces at $36. Shield nickels are on want lists at $21 and Liberty nickels at $15.

Choice BU Bust half dimes are bid around $55 and Seated Liberty half dimes at $22.50. Bust dimes are tough in strictly choice BU condition and bidders will pay as much as $100-$110 for gems; Seated Liberty dimes are wanted at $21 and Barber dimes are now receiving bids as high as $16. Gem BU twenty-cent pieces are worth $125-$130 to dealers.

Seated Liberty quarters are bid at $42; Barber quarters at $35 and Standing Liberty quarters at $21 (with "full head" specimens commanding at least $30 for the common dates). The "type one" S.L. quarter, in choice condition, is now bid at $41.

The common date Seated Liberty halves are wanted at $51 and Barber halves are very difficult to find in really choice condition at the current bid of $85. Seated dollars are in demand around $80 and trade dollars are bid at $60.

In proof condition, the common date Barber coins are bid at $55 for the dimes, $60 for the quarters and $100 or slightly more for the halves. The Seated Liberty proof coins are basically priced by date—with few issues really falling into the "common date" category. Proof Morgan dollars are bid at $130 or more and proof Seated dollars are on want lists at $200. Trade dollars in proof are bid at $250. These prices, of course, are for choice proof coins—not the usual hairlined specimens.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Very little to report. Activity remains at a near standstill for the Lincolns—although a sale or two has been recorded for the "hi 7" 1970-S small date roll around $23.

NICKELS: Scattered bidding and an occasional transaction—price changes are few and minor.

1938D (B) - Bid moves up to $82.50
1939S - Relatively scarce roll; available now at $300
1950P - Offered at a lower $47.50—a roll to watch
1951S - Slightly lower at $71 ask

DIMES: Bidding seems to have leveled off for those dates in the early 50's; this week's gains are slight and scattered.

1950P - Up slightly; bid now at $51
1952P - Also up a little—with bids at $18.50
1953D - Sales registered around $11.50
1957D - Nearly always difficult to locate; bid again at $23

QUARTERS: A few more small price increases; several dates remain of interest to a number of relatively patient bidders.

1942D - Bid now at $90; quite scarce in any quantity
1944P - Still on "want lists"—now at $33.50

1955D - Another advance; with bids at $91

HALVES: Although the Walking Liberties are quiet, the Franklins are registering substantial gains—with most of the early dates very elusive.

1949P - Bid up $20; now $295
1949D - Bid moves up to $260
1949S - Bid moves up to $250
1950P - None offered to bidders at $182.50
1950D - Bid moves up to $150
1951PDS - All three register advances
1952S - Up $5—with bids noted at $125
1953P - Also up another $5; bid now $140
1958P - Transactions at a higher $30

SILVER DOLLARS: Bid prices have settled down—basically at last week's levels; circ rolls slip back to the $47-$49 range.

PROOF SETS: Most dates after '53 are offered in twenty to one hundred set lots—all within current price ranges. The 1970-S set is now being traded in the $7.75-$8.25 area.

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GOLD TAKES THE SPOTLIGHT Trading Slows in Most Other Market Areas

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

GOLD has been upper most in the minds of the majority of teletype dealers all week. As the London gold price reached the area of $38 per ounce, trading in U.S. and foreign gold coins began to dominate teletype activity—with prices edging higher and larger and larger lots in demand. There are numerous gains in U.S. gold this week—from the fives thru twenties—and British sovereigns are receiving bids of $985-$1000 per one hundred pieces. The tapes have been flooded with messages regarding gold coins from dozens of countries and those dealers fortunate enough to have large and diversified stocks are having a busy time of it.

Actually, most of the other areas of the market have taken a backseat to the gold trading—and price changes have been held to a minimum during the week. There are several regular bidders who are attempting to pick up long lists of dates in all series at price somewhat below current trading levels. Most of these buying lists are run on a daily basis—and very few sales result. As a matter of fact, it appears that most dealers aren't in the mood to consider the counter-offers they often receive for the material they are listing for sale.

The 1970 mint set is receiving bids around $7.00—with very few offered for sale. So far, of course, no regular issue 1970 half dollars have been minted—and as the end of the year gets closer, speculation rises as to the possibility that none will be produced. The 1970-S proof sets have also perked up a bit this week—with sales noted as high as $8.40—with numerous buy orders for one hundred or more sets being recorded. Bidding has been rather light and sporadic for the rest of the proof sets. There is still some interest in one hundred set lots of the late dates—1961 thru 1964—but again the bidders are mostly looking for bargains. The 1968-S and 1969-S sets are relatively strong at current price levels.

As was discussed last week, choice type material remains in strong demand. The supply of "cherry" coins is really limited—and most dealers find they have ready retail customers for them. Therefore, dealer "want lists" usually go unfilled for weeks at a time.

This Week's Market

CENTS: As usual, very little activity; an occasional dealer runs his buy list—with rather low buying prices (which do not result in many transactions).

NICKELS: Selling lists have included several dates at lower levels; trading volume remains light. As with the Lincolns, "below market" bidding is prevalent.

1939S - Choice BU rolls are now offered at $290
1940P & 1941P - Both slip a dollar or so lower
1941D - Lower—and attractively priced at $22.50
1941S - Available this week at $26
1950P - Still edging lower; ask is now $46.50
1950D - Trading range narrows to $320-$330
1955P - Available this week at $32

DIMES: Again, a couple of slight gains for the Roosevelts; a few BU single sets have traded in the current $35-$37 range.

1950P, 1951-D & 1952P - All three register small gains

QUARTERS: For the Washingtons, too, changes have been slight and scattered—and sales are light. Nearly any roll is available for the asking.

1939P - To be considered at the lower ask of $105
1940P - Another interesting buy—at $115
1950P & 1952D - Both edge a little higher; few offered
1953P - Bid at a higher $38; a very tough roll to locate 1955D - A sale or two in the $91-$93.50 range
1968D - Were any saved?—bid regularly at $13.50 and none are offered

HALVES: The demand has lessened somewhat for the more scarce Franklin issues—but offerings are just as few and far between as ever.

1944D - Bid now at $125; very few are available
1947P - Difficult to buy at the current bid of $160
1950D - Again offered at a lower $150
1951D - Bids at $215 fail to produce results
1953P - A transaction or two noted at $140
1955P - Easily located within the $119-$122 range

DOLLARS: Several very small increases among the "common date" Morgans; trading is moderate.

1879S - Sales at the $60 level
1882P - Bid reaches $59.50 this week
1883P & 1884P - Still edging higher; bid now $56

PROOF SETS: The 1970-S set has rebounded a bit—bid $8.25; ask $8.75—with sales noted at $8.40. Very slight ups and downs for several other issues.

1951, '52 & '53 - All edge a little higher
1961, '62 & '63 - All edge a little lower

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

The barometer of the numismatic world . . . Coin World . . . a weekly coin paper . . . has been going up in circulation for several weeks . . . after a lengthy dropping period. This could mean that a trend is now starting . . . an upward trend! It could be that these circulation figures mean that business is improving in the coin industry. The Numismatic News also reports a rise in circulation figures. In the past when business was healthy circulation figures for Coin World were on the upward march. When the hobby turned sick then you could be sure that Coin World's circulation figures would start dropping . . . every week!

Circulation figures have increased by approximately 1-3/5% during the past month. If this continues the yearly gain would amount to over 19%. Actually this never happens. There are usually ups and downs. Coin World subscription totals have only reached a high of 160,000 to 170,000 (roughly) during the peak days in 1964-65. However, just a mere 2% increase in circulation figures each month for the next year would bring the total up to the boom time high. And of course if Coin World figures do attain that high again you can bet that it will mean that boom times in the coin hobby are approaching rapidly! Even if the present pace continues the subscription total would be at a boom time high in less than a year and a half!

The increase first became evident in August when the downward drift seemed to be slowing. The August 26th issue showed the first gain, followed by the September 2nd issue. There was a backward drift again for the two following issues . . . September 9th and September 16th. The September 23rd issue held ground and was almost level with the preceding week. From then on the jumps have been substantial.

The fact that Numismatic News also advises me that their publication is showing circulation increases makes me think that we may have the start of an encouraging trend. Let us hope so because we do want to have plenty of active members in the hobby when the Eisenhower Dollar boom commences in 1971. Yes, it appears that it will be the start of 1971 before the Ike coin makes its appearance. The issuing date appears to be a step nearer now that a version of the H.R. 6778 . . . the Banking Holding Bill . . . has been passed by the Senate. Now if everyone can resolve the differences between the House and the Senate we will be off and running with a probable minting date in January. This same bill will also provide for the disposal of the silver dollars now being held by the Treasury . . . and . . . the elimination of silver content in the present Kennedy half dollar (40% silver) . . . So . . . we could end up with three dramatic events . . . all happening at once . . . the first part of the year!

August 26 . . .	126,882
September 2 . .	126,984
September 9 . .	127,175
September 16 . .	127,102
September 23 . .	127,098
September 30 . .	127,448
October 7 . . .	127,857
October 14 . . .	128,397
October 21 . . .	129,110

Since writing this I have added the October 21st total to the list. Another BIG jump in subscriptions! At the rate this last week jumped the boom time high would be reached well within a mere year's time! Let's hope it continues because it means that newcomers are being attracted to the hobby. Maybe the "Ike" dollar is doing it!

COMMEMS CONTINUE UPWARD MOVE Gold Remains Strong; Scattered Rolls Are in Demand

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Interest remains high for choice BU commemoratives—and this week the chart again carries quite a number of plus signs. There is no such thing as a "bargain priced" commem—at least, not one that is in choice BU condition. Virtually all sellers list the current "ask" price (or higher—for really gem specimens). For the past few weeks, buyers have been concentrating on the low mintage PDS sets—particularly the Arkansas and Boone sets—and the scarce Oregon issues. Most of the latest gains are registered in this area. Many of these sets have really low mintages—approximately 2,000 sets for the '39 Arkansas, the '35/'34 and '38 Boone sets. Bidders, however, are currently trying to locate the lower priced sets with mintage figures which run from approximately 3,000 to 5,000—and the scarce Oregon single issues such as 28-P, 33-D, 34-D and 36-S. Another one to watch is the 1938-PDS Oregon set with a mintage of only 6,005—bid is still a low $43. For the present time, it appears that buyers feel that the Texas sets are fully priced—nearly all bidding for these sets falls within current ranges.

Gold, of course, remains strong. Price hikes have been slight this week—but trading has been active and relatively large lots regularly change hands. Virtually all the action is centered around common date pieces—either in XF/AU lots or quantities of strictly BU coins. There are very few "date" collectors—and the low mintage dates usually carry only a small premium over the common date price. The 1912 and 1920 Double Eagles seem to be two dates which interest collectors—sales of the 1912 have been noted around $70 and the 1920 usually brings about $65.

Buyer interest in BU rolls is sporadic—as the relatively few price changes this week would indicate. There is demand for scattered dates—and, as usual, those are the few issues which fail to appear on the numerous selling lists. The 1953-P quarters and 1946-D halves are typical examples.

The 1970-S "small date" proof sets still are holding strong—sales were noted this week at $23—and the "small date" rolls are still bid in the $23-$25 range.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Low buying prices remain the rule—with very few sales resulting. Some interest is noted for BU bags of 55-S (at just below current bid levels).

1939D - None offered to bidders at $80

1942S - Also difficult to locate—at $77.50 bid

NICKELS: The BU set of Wartime nickels is bid at $615—with few if any available at that price; the other issues are relatively unchanged and very lightly traded. Sales of BU single sets have been registered in the currently recorded $85-$87.50 range.

1942P (12) - Bid $156; quite scarce—at least at the present bid level

1943S - Available in quantity at a lower $24

1950D - Transactions noted at $325

DIMES: Very few changes for either the Mercuries or the Roosevelts; sales remain light and scattered. Those recently active dates in the early 50's have settled back down to normal trading.

1938S - Still impossible to buy at $205 bid

1942P - Offered at a lower $33

1948P - Transactions as low as $47.50

1952S - Also a little lower—ask is now $57.50

QUARTERS: Regular bids for the 34-P thru 37-P rolls produce no results; prices are nearly unchanged across the series.

1948D - Bid is now $57.50; ask $60

1952S - Slightly lower; offered now at $65

1953P - Up another dollar; tough to find at $39 bid

1955D - Scattered sales in the $91-$93.50 range

HALVES: Several of the high-powered Franklin rolls remain on "want lists"; price changes, however, are slight.

1942P - Bid moves up to $75

1946D - Sharp jump from $139 to $145 bid; none are offered for sale

1948D - Available at a lower $65

1954D - Bid now at $17.50

1955P - Sales noted around $119

1964P & D - Both are regularly sought in bag quantities

DOLLARS: Several more of the "common date" rolls have edged forward just a bit; trading is rather light—as most bidders keep their offerings just below current market levels. Circ bags have traded this week at $2325-$2350.

PROOF SETS: Small gains are scattered across the chart; an occasional hundred set lot of the lower priced dates is traded; however, most sales involve rather small quantities. The 1970 Mint Set is bid $7; ask $8.

1953 - Bid reaches the $25 mark

1959 - Bargain priced in the $5.60-$5.90 range

1961, 62, & 63 - All three again edge higher

1970S - Numerous sales around $8.25

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

The bid for 1970 mint sets is now almost equal that of the 1970-S Proof Sets—with relatively few mint sets being offered for sale. Bidders are having a tough time filling orders at $7.50 bid; the proof sets, on the other hand, have traded as low as $8 and are quite plentiful at the moment. Actually, price advances for both the mint sets and proof sets would have seemed in order after the front page article in the November 4th issue of Coin World—which stated that “chances are slim that any regular issue 1970 half dollars will be produced”. It appears that dealers and investors are about evenly divided in their opinions as to whether the mint will, at the last minute, turn out a large quantity of 1970-D halves.

At current prices, of course, speculation in the Proof Sets is far safer than in Mint Sets—if regular issue halves are to be minted. At $8, the downside risk is probably only a couple of dollars on the Proof Sets—but more like five dollars on the Mint Sets. The other side of the picture, however, is that if no other 1970 halves are minted, fewer Mint Sets than Proof Sets will be produced and the 1970-D half will be more scarce than the 1970-S proof. This is still all in the realm of speculation, of course—but as each day passes without word of the minting of 1970-D halves, the chances for a modern day “rarity” is greatly increased. It might seem odd to use the term “rare” when describing a coin that would have a combined mintage (Denver and San Francisco) of at least five million pieces—but how long has it been since any denomination could boast of a mintage figure that small. The 1960-P small date cent was the last one—but that, of course, is a “variety” and appears in a series that is all but dormant.

Commemorative halves continue to be of interest to a large number of buyers—with several issues being quite difficult to locate at current prices. Scattered BU rolls—particularly in the Washington quarter series—are on various “want lists”; proof sets are relatively firm. Gold prices have leveled off—and backed off slightly in some cases—as the price of London gold is again in the $37-$37.50 range. Quantities of various foreign gold coins continue to be traded—but the buying is now somewhat more selective. Choice type coins, as always, are easy for dealers to sell—but very hard to buy.

A REMINDER: Again, please do not wait to renew subscriptions until after you receive your last issue. Delay in mail delivery coupled with processing time may result in a missed issue.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Quantities of BU late dates and circ rolls in the 40's and 50's are on the market—being offered to a largely indifferent audience. Price changes, however, are minimal again this week.

NICKELS: Most of the bidding in the Jefferson series falls into the “bargain hunting” category; transactions remain light and scattered.

- 1938D (B) - Once again available in the $80-$82.50 range
- 1942P (II) - Sales registered at $155
- 1946S & 1948S - These two are of mild interest to long-term investors
- 1950D - Sales registered at $320
- 1955D - Available by the bag at $3.25 per; not always easy to locate

DIMES: With the price of common silver again in the area of 30%, those late date rolls should begin to stir. Many are still priced at bargain levels—especially such dates as 56-P, 57-P, 58-P, 59-P & D, and 60-P & D.

- 1950P - Up slightly; bid now at $53
- 1950D - Again on the move—with the bid now recorded at $92.50
- 1952D - Up $3; bid is now $24
- 1952S - Offered in quantity at a lower $55

QUARTERS: Several gains are scattered across the chart; an occasional date eludes buyers.

- 1941P - Sales recorded at $40

- 1943P - Bid moves back to the $57.50 level
- 1944S - Tough to find at $59 bid
- 1946D & S - Both edge slightly higher
- 1952D - Bid now $23; rather scarce at this price
- 1955D - Transactions at a lower $90

HALVES: Walking Liberty rolls are in mild demand (Particularly the common “P” Mints)—at current price levels; scattered sales are noted for the Franklins—with BU single sets trading around $127.50.

- 1946D - Bid still $145; none offered for sale
- 1953P - Choice rolls have traded this week at $140
- 1954D - Regularly bid at $17; also elusive
- 1955P - Further sales noted at $119

DOLLARS: Circulated rolls are changing hands around $46.50; BU roll prices are firm at recent prices—with only light to moderate activity recorded. BU Peace Dollar sets are traded at the $600 level.

PROOF SETS: The “S” mint sets are all slightly lower—with both the bidders and sellers thinking in terms of several hundred sets; the earlier dates are quite steady.

- 1968S - Sales noted at $6.50
- 1969S - Sales noted At $5.50
- 1970S - Sales noted at $8.00

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

Because the public state of mind is an influential factor in economic affairs (and in the investment world of stock markets and coin markets) the psychology of self aggrandizement afflicting this country seems to encourage the very thing it seeks to hedge against . . . or inflation! At times it is the Federal Government, sometimes the wholesalers and retailers and at the moment . . . some of the labor unions. All tend to use inflation of the PAST . . . and the present . . . and the future . . . of justify their exorbitant increases, to alibi their offenses against stable prices and costs.

Wage controls and price controls, of course, would put an end to these handy practices that have been constantly used by ALL offenders in the past! President Nixon, however, has hesitated about using such drastic measures. Some say it is because he had some part in the wage and price control government department that was set up during the wartime years of 1942 through 1946. He knows how difficult the controls were to enforce. So the story goes. However, my own memory tells me that this bureau did a mighty good job of holding down prices. The minute they relaxed in 1946 I remember restaurant meals, in particular, going sky high . . . and a lot of other things!

Wage controls, when accompanied by price controls should be welcomed by the public. If provisions were made to allow some wage increases because of seniority or because of PROVEN INCREASED PRODUCTIVITY . . . then no one would be hurt. The business man would be able to make these special waged increases without being pinched into wanting price hikes. This constant spiral of price-wage-price INCREASES gets us nowhere . . . and in the end only erodes the savings and pensions that we are trying to put together for our old age years.

The only thing we can say for inflation is that it is forcing some investors into the HARD item investments . . . and away from SECURITIES. Gold metals, silver metals, diamonds, platinum, antiques, rare stamps, rare coins, gold coins, silver coins, paintings, are becoming more attractive to this knowledgeable investor!

If the cost-of-living escalation of costs continues this is the only thing left for the investor as the real estate market and the stock market do not fare well under extreme inflationary conditions. Mild inflation . . . yes . . . but not the kind we are having and may continue to have for some years!

Until we have wage and price controls it appears that the price-wage gains constantly put through call to mind the tail-chasing dog. Inflationary wage increases only give the illusion of catching up. And of course the investor has to do better than just "catching up." And this is where coin investing enters the picture! Rare silver coins and rare gold coins . . . where the AVAILABLE SUPPLY is KNOWN to be small . . . is just about the safest and best investment, in my opinion, around today . . . and will be for years to come. I am speaking of choice uncirculated silver and gold material that is SCARCE!

The constant erosion of inflation will continue to be caused by Washington, the Unions and the Retailers and Wholesalers. The government is trying to hold down spending at this time but nevertheless our deficit this year is ahead of last year . . . at this writing. The Unions show no signs of listening to any pleas for restraint. They want bigger hikes, their demands have never been larger. Retailers and Wholesalers continue to raise prices. Whether they are doing it because of past wage increases or of wage increases that they know are coming soon is hard to determine. Some are greedy and want a bit more than the wage hikes . . . and so this is tacked on . . . and prices then go up too much when compared to the wage increases. And so it goes. No wonder the investor is confused today. He thought the stock market would be refuge . . . the perfect spot to keep his money in . . . a way to ride along with inflation. But . . . the stock market liked inflation up to a point . . . but not beyond that. The "hard" investment area is the ONLY investment area left, it seems . . . the only way left to fight INFLATION!

COMMEMS CONTINUE UPWARD SWING BU Rolls Firm; Gold is Actively Traded

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Commemorative halves have again registered substantial gains. This week the price hikes are centered around the lower priced PDS sets of 1935, 1936 and 1937. In several instances the bids for these sets now exceed the 1970 Guidebook listings—and none of the others are far behind. It is apparent that the lowest priced sets are being broken up into single typespecimens. In both the Arkansas and Boone series, this is the only way to get single coins for commemorative type sets. There were some large mintage single issues for both the Oregon and Texas series, but, for a while, buying the lower priced PDS sets resulted in three type coins—each priced the same (or even slightly less) than the high mintage single issues. This is now fast becoming a thing of the past.

The highest mintage Arkansas set—1936-PDS (mintage 9,660 sets) is now bid at $43.50—and the low mintage 1938 set (3,156 sets) registered sales at a higher $82 this week. The 1935-PDS and 1936-PDS Boone sets (5,005 set each) have reached the $46 bid level. The least expensive type coin in either the Oregon or Texas series is now priced at $15—with the four lower priced PDS sets in the two series all showing additional gains this week—particularly strong is the 1937 Texas set with bids at $52 (Guidebook is $50—mintage is 6,571 sets).

Foreign gold coins—in the $10-$30 range—continue to be offered in lots of from ten to one hundred or more pieces. Trading has been light to moderate—but interest remains evident and bargains usually last only a short while. United States gold coins are quite firm at recent levels and a substantial amount of trading is regularly recorded. BU rolls remain relatively quiet except for scattered dates—again mostly in the Washington series. The 1970-S "small date" cent roll has suddenly shot up to the $35 bid level—and they seem no more plentiful at this price than they did at $25. The 1970 Mint Sets have recorded sales as high as $10—with bids regularly recorded at $9. As each week passes without any regular issue 1970 halves, investors become more and more interested in the 1970-D halves which are included in these Mint Sets. In only a few weeks it will be 1971—so who knows!

This Week's Market

CENTS: No price changes have been recorded this week for the Lincolns; as a matter of fact, very few rolls have been included on either selling or buying lists. Late date rolls are still available in bag lots within current price ranges.

NICKELS: Scattered bidding is noted—also at current levels—for the Wartime Nickels. The BU Wartime roll set is now bid at $620—with none offered at that price. The remainder of the series has experienced little change.

1936D - Up $2.50; now bid at $82.50

1941PDS - All three edge slightly lower

1945S - Offered in quantity as low as $22.50

1946S - Regularly on "want lists" at $23

1951S - Transactions registered at $67.50

DIMES: Several of the Meres in the 30's are of interest to investors—such as 34-P & D, 36-D, 38-S—all are difficult to locate in quantity; the Roosevelts remain quiet.

1938S - Bids of $205 still fail to produce results

1942D - Offered at a slightly lower $39

1948P - Sales recorded at $47.50

1951S - Ask is now $155

1952S - Several rolls are available as a lot at $52.50 per

1954P & 1957D - Both edge a little higher

QUARTERS Mild interest continues for scattered dates, sales are light.

1942S - A choice roll was traded this week at $520

1943P - Still elusive—bid now $58

1951P & D, 1952 P & D - These four interest investors

1953P - Bid now $41.50; quite scarce

HALVES: Very little changes for either the Walking Liberties or the Franklins; BU "short sets"—1941-47—have traded at $145 and BU Franklin sets at $127.50.

1946D - Another substantial jump; bid now $150

1953P - Further transactions registered at $140

1955P - now easily available at $120

DOLLARS: Buyers are willing to pay "bid" in most cases—and sellers are holding out for the full "ask" price; the result has been very few sales. Circ rolls (VG and better) are still trading in the $46-$47 range.

PROOF SETS: One hundred set lots of all dates from 1956 are offered—at prices basically in line with current ranges; sales are light and scattered.

1956, 1957 and 1959 - All edge slightly lower

1964 - An occasional sale of a few sets around $5

1970S - Firm for the moment in the $7.75-$8.10 range.

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

TRADING LIGHT; PRICES MOSTLY FIRM Gold, Commems and Scattered Rolls Lead Activity

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Gold—especially large lots of the lower priced foreign pieces—and talk of common silver continue to dominate much teletype trading time. Those one-hundred piece lots of foreign gold coins—mostly in the $10-$15 price range—are still regularly offered. Sales, however, have been rather scattered. Bidders for U.S. gold coins are always on the scene—and whenever the bidder is serious and edges his offering price up to current levels, sales result within a short time. With the recent lower prices in the silver market, bags of common circ silver coins have dropped back to approximately the 25% area. Medium and long term investors usually accumulate a few bags upon each price recession—the only question is, of course, how to pick the “bottom” of each dip.

There are several areas of buying in the “coin” end of the market—scattered areas of interest created by dealers and investors with particular favorites at the moment. Franklin halves are strong—and so are the Walking Liberty rolls in the 40's. Prices have been basically firm for these two series and it is evident that BU roll sets are being accumulated whenever the price and quality warrant purchases.

Commemorative halves, of course, are as much in demand as ever—with interest still centered around those PDS sets discussed last week. It is obvious that most dealers just aren't going to sell any quantity at today's bid prices. They most likely have more over-the-counter sales than material anyway. Full rim Barber quarters and halves are constantly on “want lists”—and it seems that most of the GOOD and better rolls which are offered for sale are actually “average circ”—which means practically no rims at all on most of the coins. Dealers are solving the problem by offering to buy “VG” coins—at $.75 for the quarters and $1.75 for the halves. So far, the quantity traded has been small. One of the toughest Mercury dimes to find in any quantity is the 1934-P. Bidders regularly offer to pay $5 per and there are very seldom any offered for sale. We mentioned several weeks ago that the 1934-P BU dime seems to be more scarce than the higher priced 1934-D.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Very slight changes; trading remains at a near standstill for most dates. Some buying interest is noted for the scarce 1941-D & S and the key 1942-S and 1960-P small date rolls. AND, the 1970-S small date roll is now bid as high as $44! This one is catching on.

NICKELS: Single BU Jefferson sets have traded during the week at $87.50. This is apparently the “bottom” on choice sets and astute investors might be wise to put a few sets away—be careful of “sliders” in the key early dates. Mild bidding is scattered across the roll chart—all within current levels.

1942P (II) - Transactions noted at $157.50
1950D - Still available in the $320-$330 range
1955P - Offered at a slightly lower $31

DIMES: The BU roll set of Roosevelt is bid now at $1725—few have offered. The BU rolls register a few slightly lower ask prices.

1950D - Available this week at $92.50
1952D - Also lower; ask is now $22.50

QUARTERS: BU single sets (1941-64) are still priced at a reasonable $92.50; Several “P” mint rolls are on want lists—most of them at slightly high prices.

1943P - Now bid at $59
1944P - Now bid at $34
1945P & 1946P - Both have edged up to $28.50

1953P - Now bid at $42

1955D - Offered this week at a lower $90

HALVES: Although prices remain unchanged, considerable buying interest is recorded for the Franklins—both BU rolls and choice BU sets. Several dates (such as 49-D, 51-P & D, 52-S, 53-P, etc.) have traded within current ranges. this week.

DOLLARS: Very slight adjustments have been made by the “common date” Morgan rolls; trading remains light and only the bargain offerings (of which there are very few) create much activity.

1880S thru 1882S - All three are now bid at $53.50

1898O - Sales noted at $59

1904O - Sales noted at $58.50

PROOF SETS: The earlier sets—pre-1956—have registered a few small gains and scattered sales. Later date sets are, as usual, easily available within recent price ranges.

1952 - Bid moves up to $36

1953 - Bid moves up to $25.50

1961 thru 1963 - These three edge a little lower

1970S - Now in the $7.60-$7.95 range

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

The Eisenhower dollar coin is the most important thing we in the coin industry are talking about these days. And we are talking about the coming silverless clad half dollar and the mailorder auction for the older silver dollars being held by the Treasury. Lots of things to talk about if one is a coin collector or a coin investor!

At this very moment Congress is back in action (November 16th) and it is expected that they will make some decisions on the three mentioned subjects . . . probably before the end of the year. So it is reasonable to expect that we are to have a 1971 Eisenhower dollar coin and a 1971 silverless clad half dollar. And of course the release of the older silver dollars is tied in with all of this . . . so the government auction will also happen in 1971.

The interesting thing about the Eisenhower dollar coin is that it will probably be stuck at the Denver and Philadelphia Mints with a possible striking at the San Francisco Mint. If we add these three varieties with the proof variety and the uncirculated variety that will be turned out, we can total up five different kinds of Eisenhower dollars!

Your guess is as good as mine but I would suppose that production of all of these dollars will come about after the first of the year. We could expect to see some of them in the Spring of 1971. The special $5 and $10 issues may be available earlier in the year as the government may want to get this loot as fast as possible!

The coin should be beautiful and will show an earlier version of the late President Eisenhower. The image could be that of Eisenhower when he first became President. His image, as duplicated on the coin, will face to the right. What is to appear on the reverse side is an interesting point. There had been some talk about a space vehicle appearing thereon . . . but this doesn't seem to have been carried out.

With four or five types of Eisenhower dollars to make their appearance, and with the release of the older dollars now being held by the Treasury Department, I should imagine that the dollar series will catch on tremendously with the collector, to say nothing of the coin investor!

The coin investor would do well to start obtaining for his investment portfolio . . . as many rare, older, silver dollars as he can afford. If he is in the stock market or the real estate market and has decided to get out and put his investment money back in the bank . . . he would do well to carefully consider the investment possibilities and future potential for these silver dollar coins.

If the public decides to become interested in the silver dollar series THIS will help (curiously enough) to arouse the interest of the COLLECTOR and the old and new coin investors! Every time the PUBLIC has become involved in numismatics, the hobby and investment has BOOMED!! Keep that in mind! And naturally every time the collector sits up and starts to pay attention to a coin, or a series, things begin to happen for the COIN INVESTOR!

I sincerely believe that the public will be interested in silver dollars after the newspapers get through with pages and pages of news about the silver dollar auction and the new types of Eisenhower dollar coins. The mere fact that this is the rebirth of a coin series, after it had been allowed to die some thirty five years ago, is SENSATIONAL news in itself!! Coming on top of all of this will be the elimination of the silver from the Kennedy half dollar. Sort of taking some of the glory from Kennedy and placing it around Eisenhower. Half dollars could enjoy some of the interest that the silver dollar series is bound to attract! Now that the Federal Government has ended the silver metal auctions we can expect the public to be even more interested in anything silver, particularly a silver Eisenhower coin. The government has kept nearly 200,000,000 ounces of silver and 165,000,000 ounces are to be reserved or stockpiled for defense use. This leaves only about 30 million ounces left for numismatic purposes. Ordinarily this amount would go for the production of the 40% silver Kennedy halves. If the Kennedy half dollar is to be turned into a clad coin perhaps this amount is the amount that is to be used for a silver Eisenhower proof or special uncirculated issue of the Eisenhower coin. Congress is going to have to consider all of this, whether they want a silver Eisenhower coin or not! Of course the government is probably still melting down some of the minor silver coins that are still in circulation . . . and this could add up to a fair size amount yearly. That would help in supplying the Mints with silver for the Eisenhower coin.

MARKET STEADY; PRICE CHANGES SLIGHT

Buying Interest Gains in Several Areas

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

In spite of the sharp drop in the price of silver, interest in bulk silver dollars—circ and BU—has remained strong. The bid level is $2325 for circ bags (VG/better)—and the asking price for the occasional bag which is offered is in the $2350-$2375 range. At this point, buyers seem determined to go no higher than $46.50 per roll and the sellers appear to be nearly as determined to hold out for that little extra—$47 to $47.50.

The dealers who want BU Morgans have offered to pay as high as $2600 this week for bag quantities (specifying no 1921's). Most of the bidders, however, have kept their offering prices down to $2550—or $51 per roll for any date. Sales of both BU and circ bags have been relatively light. Sellers, as usual, manage to keep a few dollars ahead of the bidders. This situation, of course, occurs at nearly all price levels. When the bid for circ rolls was $48 a few weeks back, the sellers then wanted $49. Today they will settle for $47.50—but the bid is only $46.50!

The proper grading of coins remains quite a problem for both dealers and collectors. Not only are collectors (and investors) skeptical of buying thru retail ads—but many dealers find that buying over the teletype circuits also often presents the same problem of grading. Mail auctions are even worse for the most part. This situation, of course, will never really be improved until dealers become conscious of the fact that—over a period of time—a reputation built upon honest grading and good service will mean a better and more lasting business. When one sees "BU" Morgan and Peace Dollars advertised in retail ads at half the current teletype bid levels—then certainly something is wrong somewhere! And, on the other hand, there are dealers—and some "big ones"—at that—who have been sending out overgraded coins for a long time now—and they are still going strong. The problem becomes most apparent when a collector decides to sell a few coins—especially BU specimens. Most likely, at that point, he will be told that the coin is a "slider", AU, polished XF, etc. The dealer may buy the coin—at quite a loss to the collector—and he may again sell the coin as BU. Perhaps things will improve when more and more buyers return coins rather than accepting them. It should be up to the buyer, of course, as well as the seller, to decide upon a grade for each particular coin that changes hands. The new grading book—called "Photograde"—(by James Ruddy) can go a long way toward alleviating grading problems—if buyers (and dealers) will use it to the fullest advantage.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Although there have been a few minor losses, bidding actually seems to have increased this week. Several dealers have been running fairly extensive buying lists—usually at "bid" or just below. Sales have remained light at these bid levels. The 1970-S "small date" roll is bid now at $48!

NICKELS: Here too scattered "want lists" often appear. Prices are steady—and "below market" bidding rarely encourages transactions.

1938D (B) - Traded this week as high as $82.50

1943P - Offered at a lower $30

1950D - Again sales noted at $325

1955P - Offered at a lower $30

DIMES: Price changes have been minimal—reasonable bids continue to get results. BU single sets are of mild interest in the current range of $35-$37.

1937D - A very tough roll to locate; now bid at $210

1946S - Available now at a slightly lower $29

1955D - Also a little lower—ask is $21.50

1957D - Back up to $24 bid

QUARTERS: A number of issues remain on various buying lists. The bid prices are firm at last week's levels—except for the 1955-D which is now bid at a higher $90 (with sales noted as high as $92.50).

HALVES: Interest in Franklin rolls—particularly the better dates—has increased again. For those interested in accumulating a choice BU roll set, now seems to be the time. Bargain offering in this series are few and far between—and even quite reasonable bids often fail to get a response.

1950P - Bid now at a higher $180

1950D - Also up—with bids at $147.50

1951S - A slight increase; bid now $116

DOLLARS: Several small gains for the lower priced Morgan rolls; the better dates are firm at current levels—and are seldom available by the roll.

1878S - Bid edges up to $71

1880S thru 1882S - Now bid at $54

1882P - Offered at a slightly lower $61

1899P - Up $5—with bids noted at $325

PROOF SETS: The only change registered this week was an increase for the 1970-S set—which is bid again at $8. The 1970 Mint Set has leveled off in the $7-$8 range now that orders are rapidly being filled by the mint.

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

CANADIAN: The unchanged prices are on Page Five this week. Quantities of the later date sets are regularly offered within recent price ranges—mostly to an indifferent audience.

The bid for common silver this week is in the 21%-23% range.

War-time Nickels are bid at approximately $3.25-$3.35.

Canadian bags are bid around $1010.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

THE RARE 1929-D "Full Head" S.L. QUARTER

---most serious collectors know that the four rarest "full head" quarters are 19-D, 24-D, 26-D and 29-D. When offered (which isn't very often) they usually are priced at three to four times Guidebook. This choice original BU "Full Head" 1929-D for $95.00

Four strictly BU 1950-S Roosevelts---$16.00 (this is considerably under "BID").

1924-P Standing Liberty Quarter - GEM BU with virtually a
"full head"---$32.50

GEM ORIGINAL UNCIRCULATED 1932-S QUARTER

Vol. VIII No. 49

December 4, 1970

Single copy price: $1.00

INTEREST SCATTERED ACROSS ENTIRE MARKET 1970 Proof Sets and Mint Sets are Strong

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Bids for the 1970 Mint Sets have ranged this week from $8.50 to as high as $10.50—with ask prices noted from $11.00 to $13.50. Very few buyers and sellers have gotten together. The 1970-S Proof Set is also stronger—with bids now in the $8.25 area and ask prices generally recorded around $8.50-$8.75. Here we are in December now—with no signs of a regular circulation issue of 1970 halves. If none are produced in the next three weeks, we will have a two million or so mintage on the BU 1970-D half and three million or so on the 1970S proof. This surely would be a "shot in the arm" for coin collecting—or, at least, for half dollars. The Kennedy half series would already have a "key" coin!

Silver dollars continue to hold up well in spite of the further drop in the price of silver. Bag quantities (both BU and circ) are continually on buying lists—and it seems that dealers usually have to add a few dollars to their bids in order to find a seller. Common silver bags, however, have now skidded as low as 18% bid. This situation, of course, is directly linked to the price of silver itself—and a major change (in either direction) can take place in the matter of hours.

Scattered dates in BU rolls after 1940 are receiving buyer attention. In the Lincoln cents, 1941-D & S, 1943-S and 1949-S are among the wanted issues. The 1942-P (II) Jefferson roll is a "toughie" and quite a number of the Roosevelts are on "want lists"—among them: 1951-P & D, 1952-P & D, 1953-PDS, 1954-PDS. The 1943-P quarter roll is currently the most elusive Washington—followed closely by the 1953-P. In the Franklin line-up, virtually any "bargain" is sold rather quickly—and in Morgan and Peace dollars there seems to be no such thing as a "bargain". Proof sets are trading within current ranges—with most of the interest for 1952 and 1953 sets. Circulated material, in general, is very slow—with only the key dates generating mild interest. Circ War-time rolls (especially 1943-D, 1944-D & S) are of interest to those buyers who are selling "processed" sets and roll sets.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Again little change; those same dealers are still running buying lists—at or just below the current "bid" levels. The 1960-D small date roll is now available in quantity at $2.00—on the other hand, the 1970-S small date roll is receiving bids as high as $57-$58!

NICKELS: Prices are mixed and the changes are slight. Trading remains sluggish although increased interest is noted for the attractively priced War-time series.

1942P (II) - Up another $5; bid now $160

1943D - Bid edges up to $73.50

1948D - Offered at a lower $31

1950D - Now registered in the $310-$325 range

1955P - Still slipping; available at $28

DIMES: Longer "want lists" have begun to appear for the Roosevelts—sales have remained light and scattered (due probably to the fact that current offering prices, for the most part, aren't really adequate.)

1950D - Sales at a lower $87.50

1953S - Interest at a slightly higher $17

1954S - This one is also of interest—at the usual $17 bid

QUARTERS: A few more widely scattered plus signs have been recorded this week; trading is light—but dealer buying lists continue to include numerous dates in this series.

1939P - Up $5—with few available at $105 bid

1943P - Still advancing; bid now $60

1953P - Bid now $45; none offered

HALVES: The Walking Liberties are quite firm at present price levels; numerous Franklin rolls are on "want lists"—one or two at higher prices. BU Franklin sets are trading relatively often in the $125 area.

1950P - Back down to $185 ask

1951P - Up slightly—with bids at $58.50

1952P - Now available at $40

1953P - Still active—with bids at $142.50

DOLLARS: Again the lower priced Morgans have inched forward—and sellers still manage to keep a dollar or two ahead of the bidders.

BU Morgan bags are bid at $2640 (no 21's)

BU Peace bags are bid at $2500

Circ bags (VG/better) are bid at $2325

PROOF SETS: The only change this week is for the 1970-S set—which is now bid at $8.25.

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

We all know that business is slack. Many have been cutting down on their purchasing. However, money put into savings accounts has been on the rise. Even though it appears that we have passed through a small depression or recession millions of people have been able to sock some money away. Instead of putting it in the stock market or other investment markets we find that it has been going into the bank accounts.

If we try to look ahead over the LONG term it would be much wiser to continue with our investment programs. The future is still ahead and most of us will live to see it. A savings account is nice to have but sad to say it will not be enough for the FUTURE! In order to keep ahead of inflation and high taxes the coin investor is going to have to have a rate of appreciation in excess of 6%, perhaps even 7% . . . and I am speaking here of the decline in purchasing power that inflation is bringing about. If I add in the tax percentage that must be subtracted from each purchasing dollar then perhaps one will have to have a yearly yield of 9% to 10% . . . TO JUST BREAK EVEN!! Of course if we are in some of the fortunate groups who are getting tremendous wage increases, things won't be quite so bad. Even for these people their savings or investment money set aside will depreciate yearly at the mentioned rate!

So . . . if we are to think about our family and the future we must have a wise investment program. Nothing could be wiser than a HARD investment program.

Mark my words, in the coming five years one will see advances made by the silver dollar series (to be reborn) that will be astounding. We will see a carry-over, in my opinion, to the half dollar series . . . and then back to the other coin series. Gold coins are bound to have a lively five years for coin investors . . . due to the steady inflation rate . . . which could be larger than we have ever had! These five years will see yearly units of gain, the way I see it, that will be well in excess of the 10% range I have been speaking of! It is quite likely that no other investment will be able to duplicate this record during these particular five years of inflation!

It is a SAFE, sane, sensible investment . . . this investing in coins . . . the OLDER coins . . . where the available supply is KNOW TO BE SMALL . . . particularly the silver and gold coins. Probably the ONLY sane investment area left in this crazy world! Remember now . . . I am speaking of the older coins . . . the rare ones . . . the way, way back series where some of our finer type coins come from! I am speaking of the choice silver coins and the choice gold coins that have had excellent price histories during the past coin slump! And I am speaking of coins that have been graded accurately . . . with a leaning toward the BU coins.

As I have said many, many times . . . one must become a collector-investor if he is to become a successful COIN INVESTOR!! This makes the investment somewhat different from the real estate market or the stock market. In a way it is BEST that this is the way the coin market is developing. The investor with the knowledge of the COLLECTOR is WISE . . . and he is not depending ENTIRELY on the Coin broker or dealer. In the stock market or the real estate market too much trust and dependence is placed with the broker! And this is not good. With KNOWLEDGE of the field you are investing in you can be on even terms with the dealer or broker. You are then not at a disadvantage . . . and can weigh your experience against the experience of the broker. Two heads are better than one . . . they say. I am a firm believer that the collector-investor has an almost FAILPROOF set-up . . . unknown to other investment fields.

The 1ke dollar coin's fate is still in doubt. About all one can say is that the longer it is postponed the greater will be the BANG when the RELEASE is finally made!!

W.L. halves---the four pieces---$19.00

SOME HIGH-GRADE EARLY LINCOLNS

(These are all original coins---none have been processed in any way)

1910-S---strictly UNC---light red and choice---$15.00

1912-P---an absolute GEM---fully struck and flawless---not overpriced at---$15.00

1912-P, 1914-P, 1916-P and 1919-S---truly XF---brown and choice---$7.00

1913-S---red & brown beautifully toned UNC--- well-struck---$17.50

1912-S and 1914-S---choice brown XF/AU---sharp strikes--- pair---$14.00

1915-P a true AU---with considerable original luster--- quite scarce in this grade---$20.00

1916-S---A superb chocolate brown UNC---a gem strike---$13.50

1917-S and 1918-S---both are choice AU/UNC's with much original luster---only the slightest rubbing---pair---$15.00

Circulated set of Lincolns---1909-39---in deluxe album---
GOOD to XF (missing only 09-S, 09-SVDB, 14-D, 22-Plain and 31-S)---the semi-keys range up to VF--- only---$40.00

1920 Pilgrim commems - very choice BU---$21 (2 available)

1918-S W.L. HALF - BU---with the slightest friction (better than most "GEMS" in retail ads)---only---$45.00

Miscellaneous lot of halves: 1916-P VG; 1917-P VF, 1917-D (obv) VG; 1917-S (Rev) FINE; 1918-P FINE; 1918-S VF; friction)---$15.00

1931-S Mercury Dime - choice "slider" UNC---$15.00

Miscellaneous lot of LINCOLNS: 1914-S & 15-S VF;
1922-D, 23-S & 24-D FINE; 1925-S, 26-S, 32-P, 33-P &
33-D VF; 1931-P, 32-D & 34-D XF - 13 pieces---$23.50

THE RATE 1929-D "Full Head" S.L. QUARTER---most serious collectors know that the four rarest "full head" quarters are 19-D, 24-D, 26-D and 29-D. When offered (which isn't very often) they usually are priced at three to four times Guidebook. This choice original BU "Full Head" 1929-D for---$95.00

PRICES MOSTLY FIRM; TRADING MODERATE Gold, Commems, '70 Mint Sets and Scattered Rolls in Demand

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

Choice early material—as usual—is in strong demand. Nearly any “cherry” will sell quickly at a reasonable price—and dealers are willing to pay for quality. The problem is, of course, that really choice coins are few and far between. This not only applies to early “type” material but also to singles in such series as Walking Liberty halves, Standing Liberty quarters, Mercuries, Buffalos and Lincolns. As a matter of fact, both the Walking Liberties and Mercuries are currently in strong demand—and price is less of an object than quality. Although all dealers know how to grade coins—and they certainly won't keep the overgraded coins sent to them—but of course, some of them continue to send this sort of material to other dealers. It seems that the rarer the date, the more liberal some dealers tend to be with grading. An “About GOOD” 1926-D Mercury might be “GOOD” if it were a 21-D and “VERY GOOD” if it were a 16-D!

The greatest area of concern, however, is in the category of “choice BU”. At one time or another, practically any UNC or “slider” carries the “choice BU” tag. This is a particular problem for the “type” collector who is trying to assemble a really choice set. Many collectors have simply stopped buying coins except at coin shows or from dealers showcases. Ordering and returning coins has become far too time consuming and expensive—and resale is often a nightmare!

The market picture for rolls and proof sets is pretty much the same as it was last week. Scattered issues are in moderate demand—with price advances again recorded for the more elusive dates. Gold—both U.S. and foreign—is fairly active and silver dollar bags remain strong. Bids for VG/ better circ bags are at the $2330 level; BU Morgan bags (no 21's) at $2650 and BU Peace dollar bags (and '21 Morgans) at $2500. Trading remains moderate—most dealers are holding out for a little more.

There is a rumor currently circulating that there might be another “date freeze” at the mint—with 1970-D halves being produced next year. This seems to be a little far-fetched (although not impossible by any means). If the mint had made a few million 70-D's for circulation—and wanted to “insure circulation”—then a “date freeze” would be more probable (although a rather dubious policy, to be sure). But no 1970-D halves except those in the Mint Sets have been minted—so why mint them in 1971? It would be alarming—to say the least—to feel that whenever a low mintage issue comes along that the mint might simply produce more of that particular issue in another year.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Virtually unchanged—only the slightest and widely scattered loses are noted; a moderate amount of “below market” bidding is registered as usual. A number of choice early rolls (1930 thru 1940) are offered within current price ranges.

NICKELS: The BU roll set of Wartime nickels is bid now at a slightly higher $625; price changes across the series are light and scattered—and so is the trading.

1942P (II) - Still strong at $160 bid
1943S & 1946D - Both edge a little higher
1955P - Lower again—ask is now $27

DIMES: Very few Mercury rolls are offered for sale—and prices are quite steady. The Roosevelts are receiving several higher bids—yet the BU roll set has slipped back to the attractive level of $1700-$1825.

1950P - Bid is higher at $55
1950D - Back up to $92 bid
1952D - Also up—with bids recorded at $22.50
1955S & 1957D - These two edge lower

QUARTERS: Those early Philly rolls (1941 thru 1945) are still in demand—with very few available. Otherwise, prices are firm at recent levels.

1941P - Actively bid at $40; none offered
1944P - Bid moves up to $36

1945P - Bid moves up to $29
1953P - Still a “toughie”—bid now $46

HALVES: Changes are light and scattered; buying interest remains evident for both the W.L. and Franklins—but most bidders are content to wait for a “buy” rather than advance the bid level.

1946D - Available now at $152.50
1949P - Also a little lower; offered at $300
1953S - Quite strong at the higher bid of $55
1964P & D - In spite of lower silver prices, these two have advanced again

DOLLARS: A few more small gains for the moderately bid “common date” Morgans. Choice BU single CC Dollars have registered several advances.

1879O - Bid moves up $84
1881O - Bid moves up to $55
1934S - Choice BU singles are hard to locate at the new higher bid of $225

PROOF SETS: A few minor adjustments only; the 1970-S set is now trading in the $8.10-$8.35 range—and the 1970 Mint Set has registered sales as high as $12.50 (with most ask prices in the $14 area).

1936 - Offered now at $730
1952 - Slightly higher; bid now $36.50
1953 - This one is a little lower; bid $24
1964 - Easily located at $5

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

HOLIDAY BUYING ACTIVE; ROLLS STEADY

This is The Last Issue For 1970—HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

The Market in Depth

ALLEN HARRIMAN

As usual, trading at this time of year centers around the "gift-giving" end of numismatics. Dealers have reported increases in over-the-counter sales of proof sets, choice BU singles and type material. Numismatic books are also popular items during the holiday season. Many teletype bids have been on a "rush" basis—and want lists have become longer and more varied. BU rolls and other investment materials have taken the usual December "back seat" to this seasonal trading.

Another phenomenon which usually occurs at this time of year has more or less failed to materialize. Choice BU early rolls often appear on the market in December (and again around tax time in the spring). Other than a few better date Lincoln and Mercury rolls, this year's offering of scarce early rolls has been quite limited. It appears that much of this better date is now in the strong hands of investors and probably will remain in their vaults for some time to come. Dealers, on the other hand, are already "sold out", for the most part, on this type of material.

In recent months another interesting area of buying has increased noticeably. Circulated Barber halves—by date—are appearing more and more frequently on buying lists. Dealers are finding that the lowly G/VG Barber half is often in demand and even more often not available. There are many tough dates in this series and it is apparent that both collectors and investors now have developed an interest in putting away either complete date sets or quantities of the more scarce issues. The low grade 1892-O currently tops the list of elusive dates—closely followed, of course, by the five other early keys (1892-S, 1893-S, 1896-S, 1897-O & S). Bids of $30 for strictly GOOD 1892-O's are frequent—and this date only lists at $24 in the 1971 Redbook. The late-date, low mintage issues (1913-P, 1914-P and 1915-P) are far easier to locate at current prices than are some of the other under-rated issues. Dates to watch (and accumulate, if interested) are 1893-O, 1894-POS, 1895-POS, 1896-PO, 1899-O, 1899-OS, 1901-OS, 1904-S, 1905-PO, 1909-O, 1910-P, 1911-D and 1913-DS. These can still occasionally be picked up at or near the common date price—and they are not common. One dealer recently purchased twenty common date circ rolls and found over three rolls of the above issues—most in full rim G/VG!

This is the last issue for 1970. The next issue you receive will be dated Friday, January 1, 1971—a happy holiday season to all.

This Week's Market

CENTS: Almost completely unchanged—with only the usual light and scattered bidding. The 1955-S roll can be located in lots of ten or twenty rolls at $9.50 per.

NICKELS: Holiday trading in BU rolls is not very brisk—and the Jeffersons are no exception. The BU Wartime set remains of interest at $625—and nearly all rolls are steady at current levels.

1946D - Up another notch; bid now $18
1950D - Slipping—bid $305; ask $320

DIMES: Slightly lower ask prices are registered for quite a number of Mercury rolls—including several scarce dates; prices for the Roosevelts are mixed—and the BU roll set ask price is now a lower $1800.

1929D - Very seldom available by the roll; offered at $460
1936S - Offered now at $185
1938S - Offered now at $205
1949S - A couple of choice rolls are available at $465
1950D - Still advancing; bid now $96
1951S - Offered now at $152.50

QUARTERS: Very few changes this week; light to moderate trading is noted within current price ranges.

1941P - Still tough to locate; none offered to buyers at $40
1943D - Up slightly—bid now $92
1951D - Also a small advance; bid $27
1955D - Transactions recorded at the bid price of $87.50

HALVES: Buying lists continue to include numerous dates in both the Walking Liberty and Franklin series—but buyers are being overly generous with the bids. Sales have remained light.

1946D - Up sharply—with bids at $155
1949D, 1951P, 1951-D and 1952-S - All are elusive at current bid levels
1958P - Bid moves up to $31
1959P - Bid moves up to $22.50

DOLLARS: Longer and longer buying lists are in evidence for the common—and the not-so-common—Morgans. Most dealers, however, aren't willing to part with their rolls at anything less than ask. Price changes are few again this week—as most bidders still are pinning their hopes on lower bids.

1879S - This one is a little lower; ask $60
1887O - Bid moves up here—now $77.50
1904O - Also up slightly; bid $59
1928P - Choice BU singles are scarce at $82.50 bid

PROOF SETS: Several small changes are noted—but they are over-shadowed by the activity in the 1970-S sets (which is now bid strongly around $8.55).

1936 - Still lower at $710 ask
1952 & 1953 - Both are pulling back just a bit
1964 - Bid a little stronger at $4.80

GOLD: The following prices are for circulated (XF or better) and BU common date gold pieces. Better dates and gem uncirculated specimens bring proportionately more.

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER reports the national coin market as it closed Friday afternoon. Under the present system, it is impossible to monitor all transactions or offers to buy and sell, but the broad information sources of the Newsletter make it a very accurate reflection of the market.

INVESTORS NOTE: the prices in the Newsletter are from dealer-to-dealer transactions. As an investor, you may place your buy and sell orders through a dealer for a fee, as you would buy stock through a broker.

HOW TO USE THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

BID columns show the highest price at which dealers are offering to buy.

ASK columns show the lowest price at which dealers are offering to sell.

Where an item has no price entered, there was no offer to buy or sell outstanding as of the close of business, even though transactions may have occurred earlier in the week. This leaves you with a picture of the market as it actually stood at the close of business on Friday afternoon.

Most prices on lower priced rolls are in bag lots.

Mintages are shown in millions.

GEORGE W. HAYLINGS

Get ready for the Ike Dollar Coin. It is on its way . . . finally. The first U.S. dollar COIN minted since 1935 . . . and that is a long thirty five years ago! Never before such a reincarnation . . . the bringing to life again of a long dead coin series. Now the collector will have an "open end" in this series. There will be a gap, of course, between 1935 and 1971 . . . and by the time the new coin is released the interval will really be thirty six years! But . . . the collector can extend his collecting of dollars, going ahead into the future. No longer will he have to stop at a 1935 dead-end!

Disclosure now tells us that these special "Ike" dollars will have an unusual reverse side showing an eagle landing on the moon. A National Aeronautics and Space Administration design will be used, picturing a bald eagle clutching olive branches in both claws, landing on the cratered moon. Behind the eagle's right wing will be the earth and above the eagle the Apollo 11 spacecraft.

Just having a coin bearing the likeness of President Dwight D. Eisenhower is enough to excite the coin industry for years . . . but to have a space-age design too . . . that is really too much!! This will be the first coin in the U.S. to commemorate our unbelievable activities in space! Perhaps the coin will go down in history and numismatic history for this SPACE AGE CONCEPT more than the dedication to the late President! The first coin to go out into SPACE, so to speak, is something that coin collectors hundreds of years from now will be curious about!!

Will the public latch on to the clad variety that will be turned out yearly from here on? I hope not. It would be sad if these dollar pieces followed in the wake of the Kennedy half dollar . . . to disappear from all circulation! I am sure that the general public will be delighted with the novelty of having a silver dollar in their pocket, even though it is a nickel and copper combination. Let us hope that the numismatic fraternity sticks with the special uncirculated issues and the proof issues . . . and leaves the clad types alone. But there is still a certain part of the public that we are going to have to watch. These are the people that pop a couple of Kennedy halves into the cookie jar and then forget about them for good. Multiply this with a growing, expanding population and the amounts that can disappear are HUGE!

Will the Las Vegas gambling casinos stay with their present silver Token coins? I imagine the Franklin Mint would be interested in knowing the answer to this question! From outward appearances it seems that the casinos are happy with the silver tokens . . . in fact they are probably making money out of them. It seems that the public does take some of them home and as they cannot be used at other casinos, or used elsewhere in lieu of money, many are lost, discarded, or kept as souvenirs. As these tokens are not the same size as the regular dollar coins the gambling slot machines would have to be adapted all over again to accept the new Ike dollar. It cost a fortune to change the machines after the Great Coin Shortage . . . so that Tokens could be used. Will Las Vegas be willing to go to this trouble and expense again? Would it be worthwhile?

We have to remember that there is something about playing with REAL coins . . . of winning REAL coins . . . especially in the slot machines . . . that can never be matched by the use of tokens. Still, chips have been used in lieu of money for a long time in the gambling games.

If the gambling casinos believe that silver dollars will be more appealing to the customers you can bet that they will switch back regardless of the cost. And if this happens we will have a real serious shortage of the Ike dollar coins. Once again it may be that only in Las Vegas will one be able to find the clad Ike dollars. Perhaps the casinos don't want to go through all of this again. If they did I can see a problem arising where they would have to forbid customers from taking Ike dollars outside of the casino.

It looks like a great year ahead for numismatics. We need a boost badly at this time but I don't believe that anyone ever dreamed some years back that we would get such a sensational BOOST!! I wish all of my readers a happy Xmas time. Next Christmas you will be giving silver dollars as Xmas gifts!
